PREFACE.

After much prayerful research and study, we bestow the results of our labors upon the public, without apology. With a conviction, born of fervent desire for the true enlightenment of the people and the salvation of souls, we have arranged these Bible Readings. That which we have in view is (1)—The glory of God in directing the mind of the reader to the definite teaching of his word on all important Bible subjects. (2)—The overthrow of false doctrine and error which is to-day flooding the earth, bringing thousands of honest souls under its nefarious influence. (3)—To furnish much help to Bible students who are enquiring for the “old paths” and desiring to know the whole truth. (4)—To present to the home circle a complete arrangement of the various themes of Bible truth that will enable them by a daily study of the Scriptures—rightly divided—to be wise unto salvation.

We are very grateful to those who so kindly contributed to this work, and we have distinguished their arrangements by placing their names under each subject head. We have also made a few choice selections from a “subject concordance, or text-book of persons, places, and subjects” published by the American Tract Society. These we have arranged into suitable Bible readings for this work. In order to give credit to the above named publishing house, we have refrained from placing our names under these readings.

To every lover of Bible truth this work is commended. You will find it interesting, instructive, and edifying. We have endeavored to make the work thorough. To those who in the past have manifested but little interest in the study of God’s word, and to those who have been skeptical regarding its teachings, we commend a study of these readings, assured that they will thereby find many doubts removed, many difficulties solved, and a pleasant and profitable interest excited in the study of the Bible. May the prayers of true Christians waft this work on in its mission of salvation to the ends of the earth is the humble wish and prayer of the Authors.

2. "To-day" is held out to fallen man by the divine hand of love.

Heb. 3:7, 8; 4:7.

2 Pet. 3:7-12, 14, 15.

3. Full salvation is now offered to all.

- (a) The gospel offer.

Mark 16:15.

Rom. 1:16.

- (b) The gospel invitation.

Mat. 11:28, 29.

Rev. 22:17.

- (c) The gospel promise.

1. To save.

Heb. 7:25.

Rom. 6:22.

2. To keep.

Jude 24.

- (d) The gospel warnings.

Mat. 24:14.

Mark 1:14, 15.

Mark 16:15, 16.

John 8:21, 24.

1 Pet. 4:17, 18.

1. A question.

Heb. 2:1-3.

2. The answer.

1 Thes. 5:2, 3.

1. A question.

1 Pet. 4:17.

2. The answer.

2 Thes. 1:7-10.

4. God "now" commandeth "all men everywhere" to repent.

Acts 17:30.

5. Except men repent they shall "all" perish.

Luke 13:1-5.

Psa. 9:17.

"While false prophets are confiding
In a foolish, erring dream
Of millennial enjoyments,
They neglect the cleansing stream.
O poor sinner, don't believe them,
There will be no age to come;
If in life you find not Jesus,
Death will seal your awful doom."

LESSON III.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

THE SECOND COMING OF THE LORD
AND WHAT WILL FOLLOW.

Jas. 5:7, 8.

1. There is but one coming future.

Mat. 24:3.

1 Thes. 5:23.

1 John 2:28.

2. The manner of his coming.

- (a) Visible.

Acts 1:9-11.

Rev. 1:7.

Luke 21:27.

- (b) Unexpected.

Mat. 24:37-39.

- (c) With his saints.

1 Thes. 3:13.

Mat. 25:31.

- (d) With a shout.

1 Thes. 4:16.

- (e) Quickly.

Mat. 24:27.

Mark 13:35, 36.

3. Solemn warnings to the church in view of his coming.

Mat. 24:44.

2 Pet. 3:11, 12, 14.

4. Four things that will take place the instant of his coming.

- (a) The universal resurrection of the dead.

1 Thes. 4:16, 17.

John 5:28, 29.

Rev. 20:11-15.

Acts 24:15.

- (b) The general judgment.

2 Tim. 4:1, 8.

1 Cor. 4:5.

Eccl. 12:14.

Rev. 20:11-15.

2 Cor. 5:10.

Rom. 14:10-12.

- (c) He will reward the righteous and punish the wicked.

Mat. 16:26, 27.

2 Thes. 1:7-10.

Luke 17:28-30.

2 Pet. 2:4-9.

Mat. 24:44-51.

Mat. 25:1-12.

Rev. 18:11.

Mat. 25:31-46.

- (d) The utter consuming and passing away of this earth and the works therein.

Rev. 20: 11, 12.

2 Pet. 3: 7-12.

1 Pet. 4: 7.

"The Lord is coming shortly,
According to his word,
Taking vengeance on the wicked,
And all who know not God:
Oh, what an awful picture!
To some it will come true;
And oh, my brother, sister,
Shall it be I or you?"

Millennialism Refuted.

LESSON IV.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The two resurrections.

I. THE FIRST RESURRECTION IS SPIRITUAL.

Rev. 20: 6.

1 John 3: 14.

1. There can be no resurrection except there first be a death.

- (a) The dead state.

Gen. 2: 15-17.

Rom. 5: 12.

Eph. 2: 1.

Rom. 8: 6.

Rom. 7: 9.

1 John 3: 14.

1 Tim. 5: 6.

Spiritual death reigned over the world from Adam to Christ.

Rom. 5: 12-14.

Gal. 3: 21, 22.

- (b) The resurrected state.

1. Christ brought life to the world.

2 Tim. 1: 9, 10.

John 10: 10.

John 11: 25, 26.

2. The dead are now raised to life.

Eph. 5: 14.

John 5: 24, 25.

3. Confirming testimony.

Eph. 2: 1, 5, 6.

Col. 2: 13.

Col. 3: 1.

Rom. 6: 13.

1 John 3: 14.

2. From the foregoing scriptures we learn that every convert of the cross from the dawn of this dispensation to its close compose the first resurrection. It can also be said that there have been two great spiritual resurrections; namely, the mighty host raised up to spiritual life before the "dark ages," and the second host quickened to life since that time.

Rev. 20: 4-6.

II. THE SECOND RESURRECTION IS LITERAL.

John 5: 28.

1. The time of it.
 - (a) At the last day.
John 11: 24.
 - (b) At Christ's coming.
1 Cor. 15: 22-28.
 - (c) When the "last trump" sounds.
1 Cor. 15: 51-53.
2. The order of it—Those left over to the arrival of the Lord will not be rewarded until the dead are raised.
1 Thes. 4: 13-18.
3. It will be universal.
John 5: 28, 29.
Dan. 12: 2.
Acts 24: 15.
Rev. 1: 7.
1 Cor. 15: 12, 13.
1 Cor. 15: 20-22.
4. The saints
 - (a) Shall rise to eternal life.
John 5: 29.
 - (b) Shall be glorified in Christ.
Col. 3: 4.
 - (c) Shall be as the angels.
Mat. 22: 30.
 - (d) Shall have incorruptible bodies.
1 Cor. 15: 42.
 - (e) Shall have glorious bodies.
1 Cor. 15: 43.

- (f) Shall then be recompensed.
Luke 14: 14.
5. The wicked
 - (a) Shall rise to shame and everlasting contempt.
Dan. 12: 2.
 - (b) Shall rise to eternal damnation.
John 5: 29.
6. With the resurrection of the dead comes "the end."
1 Cor. 15: 22-28.

Millennialism Refuted.

LESSON V.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The kingdom of God.

- I. IT IS A SPIRITUAL KINGDOM.
 1. It is not of this world.
John 18: 36, 37.
 2. It is "within you."
Luke 17: 20, 21.
 - (a) Mankind must seek it.
Mat. 6: 33.
 - (b) Manner of entering into it.
John 3: 3-5.
Mat. 18: 3.
Col. 1: 13.
 - (c) Believers must pray for it.
Mat. 6: 10.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

- (d) It is promised to them.
Luke 12:32.
- (e) What is it?
Rom. 14:17.
- (f) When is it received?
Acts 2:1-4.
Acts 2:39.
Psa. 47:8.
- (g) Location of it.
Luke 17:20, 21.
3. It was promised to come before the disciples' death.
- (a) The promise given.
Mark 9:1.
Now read.
1 Cor. 4:20.
Acts 1:8.
- (b) The promise fulfilled.
Acts 2:1-3.
A proof.
Rom. 14:17.
4. Through full salvation we are now made "kings and priests" unto God, and we reign on the earth.
Rev. 1:4-6.
1 Pet. 2:9.
Rev. 5:9, 10.
Rom. 5:17, 21.
- (a) Over sin.
Rom. 6:12,14,15.
- (b) Over depraved appetites.
1 Cor. 9:27.
- (c) Over the world.
1 John 5:4.

(d) Over the beast (all false religion).

Rev. 15:2, 3.

(e) Over Satan himself.

Luke 10:17-19.

II. THE TIME OF ITS ESTABLISHMENT.

1. A prophecy.

Dan. 2:44.

Dan. 7:18.

"These kings"—spoken of in the above text—refer to the four universal monarchies that reigned in succession in ancient times; namely, Babylon, Medo-Persian, Grecian, and Roman. They are brought to view in Daniel as follows:

Dan. 2:31-33.

Dan. 2:37-43.

Dan. 7:1-7, 17.

2. The above prophecy fulfilled.

Mark 1:14, 15.

Mat. 4:17.

Luke 1:31-33.

3. The kingdom began under the labors of John the Baptist.

Mat. 11:12.

Luke 16:16.

4. It was carried on under Christ's personal ministry.

Mat. 12:28.

Mat. 21:43.

Mark 11:7-10.

Mark 12:34.

John 18:36, 37.

Luke 4:43.

5. It was fully established on Pentecost.

(a) Christ's promise to his disciples.

Luke 9: 27.

Luke 12: 32.

Mat. 16: 28.

Mark 9: 1.

Now read.

Acts 1: 8.

1 Cor. 4: 20.

(b) Christ's promise fulfilled.

Acts 2: 1-4.

A proof.

Rom. 14: 17.

6. Further proofs that the kingdom was then set up.

Col. 1: 13.

Heb. 12: 28.

1 Thes. 2: 12.

Rev. 1: 9.

III. PROPHECIES RELATING TO THE KINGDOM, WHICH HAVE REACHED THEIR FULFILLMENT.

(a) Prophecy.

Isa. 2: 2-4.

(b) Fulfillment.

Heb. 1: 1, 2.

Heb. 12: 22, 23.

1 Tim. 3: 15.

Luke 24: 47.

1 Pet. 4: 17.

Luke 2: 8-14.

Col. 2: 2.

(a) Prophecy.

Zech. 9: 10.

(b) Fulfillment.

Mat. 21: 1-9.

Mark 11: 7-10.

Luke 19: 37, 38.

(a) Prophecy.

Psa. 132: 11.

(b) Fulfillment.

Acts 2: 29, 33.

Rom. 1: 2-4.

Luke 1: 31-33.

Heb. 2: 9.

2 Tim. 2: 8.

Acts 13: 22, 23.

(a) Prophecy.

Psa. 110: 1-3.

(b) Fulfillment.

Acts 2: 30, 32-36.

(a) Prophecy.

Psa. 2: 6-9.

(b) Fulfillment.

Acts 13: 33.

Heb. 1: 1-8.

(a) Prophecy.

Dan. 7: 14.

1 Cor. 15: 23-28.

Jude 25.

(a) Prophecy.

Psa. 22: 27-31.

Isa. 60: 1-5.

(b) Fulfillment.

Luke 1: 78, 79.

Luke 2: 25-32.

Acts 13: 46-48.

Acts 11: 18.

Acts 28: 28.

Acts 26: 14-18.

IV. THE FUTURE KINGDOM.

Acts 14: 22.

2 Thes. 1: 5.

2 Pet. 1: 11.

1. When will we enter it?

Mat. 25: 31-34.

2. What is it?

2 Tim. 4: 18.

V. IN THE DAY OF JUDGMENT
CHRIST WILL DELIVER UP THE KINGDOM TO THE FATHER.
"THEN THE END."

1 Cor. 15: 22-28.

"One we hail as King immortal,
He did earth and hell subdue;
And bequeathing us his glory,
We are kings anointed, too.

"Shall we then by sin be humbled?
Must we yield to any foe?
No, by heaven's gift we're reigning,
Over all this world below.

"Oh, what grace and high promotion,
That in Jesus I should be Raised from sin to royal honor,
Even reigning, Lord, with thee.

"All this life is blissful sunshine,
Earth is subject at our feet;
Heaven pours its richest blessings
Round our throne of love complete.

"I am reigning, sweetly reigning,
Far above this world of strife;
In my blessed loving Savior,
I am reigning in this life."

Millennialism Refuted.

LESSON VI.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The binding and loosing of the Dragon.

I. IN THE BOOK OF REVELATION, THREE ANTICHRIST RELIGIONS ARE BROUGHT TO VIEW. THEY ARE THE PAGAN, SYMBOLIZED BY A "DRAGON" (Rev. 12: 3; 13: 2; 20: 2); THE PAPAL, SYMBOLIZED BY A "BEAST" (Rev. 13: 1-8; 14: 9-11.); AND THE PROTESTANT, SYMBOLIZED BY AN "IMAGE" OR THE "FALSE PROPHET" (Rev. 13: 11-18; 14: 9-11; 19: 20).

II. WHILE JOHN, "IN THE SPIRIT," WAS IN HEAVEN, HE THERE SAW THESE SYMBOLS OF THINGS THAT WERE TO TAKE PLACE UPON THE EARTH IN REALITY.

Rev. 4: 1, 2.

Rev. 12: 1, 3, 7.

III. THE CHURCH—THE BRIDE OF CHRIST—IN HER PRISTINE GLORY.

Rev. 12: 1.

1. Her travail for the salvation of the world.

Rev. 12: 2.

2. She brought forth a man child. Rev. 12:5.

3. This man child stands for the great host of children brought forth by the primitive church.

Isa. 66:7-13.

Dan. 7:27.

Rev. 2:26, 27.

IV. THE GREAT RED DRAGON; NAME- LY, THE ANTICHRIST RELIG- ION OF PAGAN ROME.

Rev. 12:3.

1. The appellations "old serpent, devil, and Satan" are symbolically applied to this dragon (Paganism).

Rev. 12:9.

Rev. 20:2.

(a) Because its religion was purely of devilish origin.

(b) Because of its subtlety, and its being the chief instrument through which the whole then known world was deceived by Satan.

(c) Because of its great opposition to the Christian church.

2. This dragon (Pagan Rome) persecuted the church of God (See history of the ten Pagan Persecutions).

Rev. 12:4-13.

V. MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL

1. Is the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jude 9.

(Is the Lord Jesus Christ.)

Zech. 3:1, 2.

Dan. 12:1.

Acts 5:30, 31.

2. Has the key of the bottomless pit. Rev. 1:18.

Rev. 20:1.

3. At the time when Rome was the ruling power of the world, and Paganism was the universal religion, Michael—the Lord Jesus Christ—came from heaven to earth, and with his angels—pure apostolic ministry—he made war against this great red dragon, and conquered it. With the great chain of his eternal truth he bound this antichrist power and hurled it from its lofty position to the great abyss; and set up his glorious kingdom instead. Rev. 12:7-11.

Rev. 20:1, 2.

4. At this time God's kingdom triumphed upon earth, and a glorious reign of righteousness was enjoyed by God's people here upon earth.

Rev. 1:5, 6.

Rev. 5:9, 10.

1 Pet. 2:5-9.

Rom. 5:17.

VI. THE BEAST.

1. Pagan Rome, when she saw her religion crumbling under the increasing light of

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

Christianity, became wroth at the woman—church—and through her son, the beast (Papal Rome), made war against the remnant of God's people.

Rev. 12: 17.

Rev. 13: 1-8.

2. This beast reigned on earth 1260 years: 42 months equal 1260 days.

Rev. 13: 5.

Ezek. 4: 6.

3. In this great wilderness (Popery) the woman—church—remained 1260 years, time from 270 A. D. to 1530, A. D.

Rev. 12: 6, 14.

4. She becomes corrupted.

Rev. 17: 1-5, 18.

5. This corrupt woman brings forth harlot daughters (Protestant sects).

Rev. 17: 5.

VII. THE IMAGE MADE.

1. The second beast (Protestantism as a religion).

Rev. 13: 11-18.

2. An image made to the first beast (Popery).

Rev. 13: 13-15.

This image is the sectarian institution.

3. During the reign of the beast and his image, the kingdom of God was crushed under human authority, the reign on earth ceased, and the only reign enjoyed by the people of God during that 1000 years—long period of time—was with Christ in Paradise.

Rev. 20: 4, 6.

4. At the end of the great apostasy God's kingdom again triumphs upon earth, and a glorious reign of peace and blessedness is again enjoyed upon earth by the people of God.

Dan. 7: 21, 22.

Rev. 15: 2, 3.

VIII. THE LOOSING OF THE DRAGON.

1. In the last days this dragon power was to be loosed. This refers to the present revival of the spirit and religion of Paganism.

Rev. 20: 3, 7.

2. A union of the dragon (Paganism), beast (Popery), and his image (Protestantism), is now being effected. The same will be a great persecuting power against the "beloved city"—pure church—before the end.

Rev. 20: 8, 9.

Rev. 16: 13, 14.

3. This last conflict will end with the second coming of Christ.

Rev. 20:9, 10.

2 Thes. 1:7-10.

Millennialism Refuted.

LESSON VII.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

Our future home.

I. NEGATIVE—IT WILL NOT BE THIS EARTH.

1. This world will come to an end.

Mat. 24:3.

Mat. 28:20.

1 Pet. 4:7.

2. This earth will pass away.

- (a) Old Testament proof.

Psa. 102:25, 26.

Isa. 24:19, 20.

Isa. 51:6.

- (b) New Testament proof.

Mat. 24:35.

Luke 21:33.

Heb. 1:10, 11.

- (a) The time when this earth will pass away.

Rev. 20:11-15.

- (b) The manner in which it will pass away.

2 Pet. 3:7-12.

II. POSITIVE—IT WILL BE HEAVEN.

2 Tim. 4:18.

Mat. 6:19, 20.

Mat. 19:21.

Mat. 5:11, 12.

1. Heaven is a prepared place.

John 14:2, 3.

2 Cor. 5:1.

2. Heaven is termed

- (a) A city.

Heb. 13:14.

Rev. 22:14.

- (b) A country.

Heb. 11:16.

3. This is the new heavens and the new earth which we shall enter after the present globe has passed away.

2 Pet. 3:7-13.

Rev. 20:11-15.

Rev. 21:1.

4. Heaven is described as being

- (a) Eternal.

2 Cor. 5:1.

- (b) Holy.

Psa. 20:6.

- (c) Far better.

Phil. 1:23.

5. The saints

- (a) Shall be with Christ.

1 Thes. 4:17.

- (b) Shall behold the face of God.

Mat. 5:8.

Rev. 22:4.

- (c) Shall be glorified with Christ.

Rom. 8:17, 18.

- (d) Shall reign with Christ forever.

2 Tim. 2:12.

Rev. 22:5.

- (e) Shall rest from toil and labor.

Job 3:17.

- (f) Shall shine as the stars.

Dan. 12:3.

- (g) Shall receive

1. A crown of righteous ness.

2 Tim. 4:8.

2. A crown of glory.

1 Pet. 5:4.

3. A crown of life.

Rev. 2:10.

4. An incorruptible
crown.

1 Cor. 9:25.

6. The preparation necessary to enter heaven.

- (a) A pure heart.

Mat. 5:8.

- (b) A holy life.

Heb. 12:14.

2 Pet. 3:11, 14.

1 John 4:17.

- (c) Diligence.

2 John 8.

2 Pet. 1:5-11.

- (d) Faithfulness unto death.

Rev. 2:10.

“Brighter than the glorious sunsets
Which delight this earthly clime;
Than the splendor of the dawns,
Breaking o’er the hills of time,
Is the richness of the radiance
Of that land beyond the sun,
Where the noble have their country,
When the work of life is done.”

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The two covenants.

Gal. 4:21-31.

I. THEY ARE TERMED

1. First and second.

Heb. 8:7.

2. Old and new.

Heb. 8:13.

II. THE TEN-COMMANDMENT LAW

WRITTEN AND ENGRAVEN IN TABLES OF STONE, COMPOSED
THE “FIRST” OR “OLD” COV-ENANT PROPER.

1. Direct proof.

LESSON II.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The two laws.

1 Cor. 9: 19-21.

I. THEY ARE TERMED

1. In the law of Moses.

Acts 13: 39.

2. The law of Christ.

Gal. 6: 2.

II. THE "LAW OF MOSES" AND THE "LAW OF GOD" ARE THE SAME.

Neh. 8: 1, 8, 14, 18.

Mat. 15: 4.

Mark 7: 10.

Luke 2: 22-24.

John 7: 19, 22, 23.

III. CHRIST'S LAW WAS A NEW ONE.

John 12: 48-50.

John 1: 17.

IV. COMPARISON OF THESE TWO LAWS.

1. The first was a law of works.

2. The second is a law of faith.

Rom. 3: 27, 28.

3. The first was a yoke of bondage.

Gal. 4: 24, 25, 30, 31.

Gal. 5: 1.

4. The second is a law of liberty.

Jas. 2: 12.

5. The first was the ministration of death.

2 Cor. 3: 7.

6. The second is a law of life.

Rom. 8: 2.

John 6: 63.

V. THE LAW OF MOSES WAS ALL FILLED IN CHRIST, AND IS NO LONGER IN FORCE.

Mat. 5: 17, 18.

Gal. 3: 19, 16.

Gal. 3: 24, 25.

Rom. 10: 4.

VI. THE COMMANDMENT LAW WAS DISANNULLED.

Disannul—to abrogate, to make null and void.

Heb. 7: 12, 18.

VII. PAUL'S INSTRUCTION REGARDING THE LAW.

1. Ye are not under the law.

"Church of God, in heaven written,
Thine the risen life of Christ,
And the treasures to thee given,
Never, never, can be priced.
Far above this world's confusion,
Walking close by Jesus' side,
Leaning on his loving bosom,
Is the church, his chosen bride."

* These texts apply directly to Israel after the flesh. But indirectly they apply to the apostasy of the church, as Israel was a type of the church.

6. The household of Cornelius.

Acts 10:44-48.

7. Lydia of Thyatira.

Acts 16:14, 15.

8. Crispus and the Corinthians.

9. The twelve disciples whom Paul found at Ephesus.

Acts 19:1-7.

III. IN EVERY CASE FAITH AND REPENTANCE MUST PRECEDE WATER BAPTISM.

1. Faith.

Acts 8:37.

(a) Effect of faith.

Acts 10:43.

1 John 5:1.

Rom. 5:1.

2. Repentance.

Acts 2:38.

(a) Effect of repentance.

Acts 3:19.

IV. IN ORDER TO FOLLOW THE ONLY MODE OF WATER BAPTISM, WE MUST

1. Go where there is much water.

John 3:23.

2. Go into the water both the preacher and the candidate.

Acts 8:38.

3. Be buried in baptism.

Rom. 6:4.

V. THERE IS ONLY ONE ACTION IN BAPTISM.

Eph. 4:5.

VI. BAPTISM MUST NOT BE PERFORMED IN ANY OTHER NAME THAN THE "FATHER, SON, AND HOLY GHOST."

Mat. 28:19.

VII. THE APOSTOLIC CEREMONY USED IN BAPTISM.

Acts 8:16.

Acts 10:47, 48.

Acts 19:5.

VIII. THE OBJECT OF WATER BAPTISM.

1 Pet. 3:21.

XI. THIS ORDINANCE IS TO BE ADMINISTERED BY GOD'S MINISTERS UNTIL THE END OF TIME.

Mat. 28:19, 20.

The Church—its Ordinances.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

Feet-washing.

1 Tim. 5:9, 10.

I. GOD'S PEOPLE MUST OBSERVE ALL THINGS THAT JESUS COMMANDED.

Mat. 28:19, 20.

1. By keeping God's commandments we prove

- (a) That we love God.

- John 14: 15, 21.

- John 14: 23, 24.

- (b) That we are his friends.

- John 15: 14.

2. By not keeping God's commandments we prove

- (a) That we do not love him.

- John 14: 24.

- (b) That we lie in professing to know him.

- 1 John 2: 4.

II. FEET-WASHING IS ONE OF THE "ALL THINGS" THAT JESUS COMMANDED US TO OBSERVE.

John 13: 12-17.

1. Ought—to owe, be obliged, indebted.

Example of its use.

1 John 2: 6.

2. Should—denoting obligation, or duty.

Example of its use.

1 John 3: 23.

III. FEET-WASHING IS AN ORDINANCE OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

1. It was instituted by Christ.

John 13: 1-5.

2. It was commanded by him.

John 13: 14, 15.

Mat. 28: 19, 20.

3. It was delivered to the churches by the apostles.

1 Cor. 11: 2.

4. It was demanded by the apostles.

1 Tim. 5: 9, 10.

IV. REASONS WHY IT IS NOT THE OLD JEWISH CUSTOM.

1. In manner.

- (a) In the custom each washed his own feet.

- Gen. 18: 4; 19: 2.

- (b) In the ordinance we wash one another's feet.

- John 13: 14.

2. In design.

- (a) In the custom they received a literal benefit—cleanliness.

- Gen. 18: 4.

- (b) In the ordinance we receive a spiritual benefit.

- John 13: 17.

3. Peter's case.

- (a) Although a Jew, he understood not.

- John 13: 6, 7.

- (b) Feet-washing was made a test of fellowship.

- John 13: 8.

4. Feet-washing was made a condition upon which widows were counted worthy.

1 Tim. 5: 9, 10.

V. THE HOUSE OF GOD IS THE CHURCH. FROM THE FOREGOING WE LEARN THAT CHRIST, ITS CHIEF CORNER-STONE AND FOUNDATION, INSTITUTED, PRACTICED, AND COMMANDED FEET-WASHING. THE APOSTLES PRACTICED, DELIVERED, AND DEMANDED IT; HENCE, IT CONSTITUTES A PART OF THE BUILDING, IS IN THE BUILDING; AND WHO DARE TAKE IT OUT?

The Church—its Ordinances.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The Lord's Supper.

I. IN THE ELEVENTH CHAPTER OF FIRST CORINTHIANS WE LEARN

1. That Paul delivered the ordinances to the churches, and that they kept them.

1 Cor. 11: 2.

2. That the Lord's Supper was one of the ordinances he delivered.

1 Cor. 11: 23-25.

3. That the Lord's Supper does not consist in a full meal, but in the bread and wine.

1 Cor. 11: 20-27, 34.

4. That this ordinance shall be observed till Christ comes.

1 Cor. 11: 26.

II. THE ORDER IN WHICH IT WAS INSTITUTED.

1. Two days before the feast of the passover, Satan entered into Judas and he covenanted with the chief priests to betray Christ for thirty pieces of silver.

Mat. 26: 1-16.

Mark 14: 1-11.

Luke 22: 1-6.

2. On the first day of the feast the disciples came and asked Jesus: "Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?"

Mat. 26: 17.

Mark 14: 12.

Luke 22: 7-9.

3. He instructed his disciples, and they prepared the passover.

Mat. 26: 18, 19.

Mark 14: 13-16.

Luke 22: 7-13.

John 13: 2.

4. In the evening, Christ and the twelve apostles sat down to the passover supper.

Mat. 26: 20.

Mark 14: 17.

Luke 22: 14.

5. Before they ate the passover Christ arose from the table and instituted the ordinance of feet-washing.

John 13: 1-17.

6. After Christ had washed the disciples' feet he sat down again, and they ate the pass-over.

John 13: 12, 21-28.

7. While they were eating the passover Christ pointed out the betrayer.

John 13: 21-26.

Mat. 26: 21-25.

Mark 14: 18-21.

Luke 22: 15, 21-23.

8. Immediately after receiving the sop Judas went out.

John 13: 27-30.

9. After Judas went out Christ instituted the Communion, or Lord's Supper.

Mat. 26: 26-30.

Mark 14: 22-26.

Luke 22: 19, 20.

III. CONCLUSION.

Eccl. 12: 13, 14.

"Round thy table here we gather,
And commune, dear Lord, with thee,
In the consecrated emblems,
Lo! thy precious blood we see—
See thy dear atoning passion,
And our holy unity.
Oh, we'll keep thy blest memorial,
Till anew we sup with thee."

V. IN THE LAST DAY.

1. The antichrist sect religion will be cast down to hell.

Rev. 20: 10.

Rev. 19: 20.

2. The church will be caught up to heaven and be ever with the Lord.

1 Thes. 4: 16, 17.

"The church of the morning bright,
Like crystal so clear her light,
Triumphant, she knew no fears.
In finest white linen dressed,
True holiness she possessed,
Two hundred and seventy years.

The sun went down ere his time,
The moon also ceased to shine;
Left Zion in bitter tears.
No star then appeared in sight,
Oh, long, dreary Papal night!
Twelve hundred and sixty years.

The sun coming up next day,
Dispersing the night away,
Caused Popedom to grope in fears.
The mists not all cleared away,
There followed a cloudy day,
Three hundred and fifty years.

We welcome the evening light,
The gospel so clear and bright
Breaks forth as in days of yore.
The mists are all cleared away;
All hail the supernal day!
The sun shall go down no more.

Hell never can destroy the church,
Built by the Savior's hands.
Upon the rock, the solid rock,
Christ Jesus, still she stands;
Despite of persecutions flood,
And gates of hell forsooth,
She's still the kingdom of the Lord,
The pillar of the truth.

THE HOLY PLACE TYPIFIED THE JUSTIFIED BELIEVER — THE HOLY OF HOLIES THE SANCTIFIED BELIEVER was the sign of the foreign power which took command of the city, where only God should reign. This standard and foreign power it represented, resembles in several features, the institution of sect government, a foreign and human rule set up in the spiritual house of God; and, in fact, constituted a type of the same. As the Romans invaded Jerusalem and demanded subjection from their subjects, so sect power usurps sway over the spiritual city and temple of God, and demands loyalty to its creeds, even at the expense of loyalty to God. So it should be understood that man-created churchism is an abomination that maketh desolate, just as the Roman standards were when worshiped by the Romans. The detestable thing was present at the destruction of Jerusalem in A. D. 70, and was brought in and set up in "the greater and more perfect tabernacle, which the Lord pitched" in the form of Romanism and Protestantism.

III. ITS CLEANSING

1. Is effected in the present

Sectism.

BY S. L. SPECK.

The diagram on page 119 represents the gradual rise of a few of the many sects that have arisen since 270 A. D. Each individual branch represents a sect; the branch or trunk upon which it stands represents the sect out of which it sprang. Inasmuch as every Protestant sect sprang out of the Romish sect, either directly or indirectly, the diagram is a literal interpretation of Rev. 17:1-6. The trunk in the diagram represents the Romish sect—"The mother of harlots." The different branches represent the different Protestant sects—her daughters.

I. THE FOLLOWING IS A KEY TO THE DIAGRAM.

1. The Romish sect was established 270 A. D.
2. The Greek sprang out of the Roman sect in the 10th century.
3. The Lutheran sprang out of the Roman sect in the 16th century, by Martin Luther.
4. The German Reformed sprang out of the Romish sect in the 16th century, by Ulrich Zwingli.
5. The United Brethren in Christ sprang out of the German Re-

- formed sect in 1880, by Wm. Otterbein.
6. The Winebrennerian sprang out of the German Reformed sect in 1830, by Jno. Winebrenner.
 7. The Episcopal sprang out of the Romish sect in the 16th century, by King Henry VIII.
 8. The Old School Presbyterian sprang out of the Episcopal sect in the 16th century, by Jno. Knox.
 9. The Cumberland Presbyterian sprang out of the Old School Presbyterian sect in 1810, by Samuel King.
 10. The New School Presbyterian sprang out of the Old School Presbyterian sect in 1838, by Albert Barnes.
 11. The Disciple (Campbellite) sprang out of the Presbyterian sect in 1810, by Alexander Campbell.
 12. The Methodist Episcopal sprang out of the Episcopal sect of England in 1766, by Thos. Coke and Philip Ambury.
 13. The Methodist Protestant sprang out of the M. E. sect in 1828.
 14. The Evangelical Association sprang out of the M. E. sect in 1800, by Jacob Albright.
 15. The Wesleyan Methodist sprang out of the M. E. sect in 1843.
 16. The Free Methodist sprang out of the M. E. sect in 1860, by B. T. Roberts.
 17. The Quakers sprang out of the Episcopalian sect, of England in 1650, by Geo. Fox.
 18. The Hicksites sprang out of the Quakers in 1827, by Elias Hicks.
 19. The Progressive Friends sprang out of the Quakers in 1850.

Harvest Time.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. THE PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND THE TARES.

Mat. 13:24-30.

1. The parable was intended to teach a prophetic history of the church.
2. The interpretation of the parable is as follows:
 - (a) The field is the world.
Mat. 13:38.
 - (b) Christ sowed "good seed" in this field, and the good seed are "the children of the kingdom"—his church.
Mat. 13:37, 38.
Mat. 16:18.
 - (c) While "men slept"—departed from the apostolic faith and drifted from spiritual life and holiness—an enemy (the devil) sowed tares—planted in the earth an apostate church—sectism.

Mat. 13:25, 39.

- (d) During the reign of sectism God's people have been unequally yoked together with unbelievers, and in a sense have "grown together."

2 Cor. 6:14-18.

- (e) The harvest or separating of the wheat from the tares was to take place "in the end of the world," just before Christ's coming. The angels (from angellos) are God's holy ministers.

Mat. 13:39-41.

Mat. 24:30-34.

Joel 3:13, 14.

- (f) The harvest-time is here. God is sending forth his messengers, and with the sickle of truth (Heb. 4:12.) the harvest is being reaped. The tares, sectarian institutions, and false professors, who are the "children of the wicked one," are being bound for the eternal burnings; while the pure wheat, God's people, are being gathered out of sectism into "his barn" —Zion.

1. Tares separated.

Mal. 3:17, 18.

Rev. 18:1-4.

2. Tares bound.

Mat. 18:18.

Psa. 149:3-9.

3. The wheat gathered.

Mat. 13:30.

Psa. 147:12-14.

II. THIS PARABLE ALSO TEACHES THAT THE FIELD IS THE WORLD. IN THIS FIELD THE GOOD AND BAD WILL GROW TOGETHER UNTIL CHRIST COMES, WHEN AN ETERNAL SEPARATION WILL TAKE PLACE.

Mat. 25:31-46.

III. CONCLUSION.

John 4:35-38.

Gleaning Time.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WE ARE IN THE EVENING OF TIME, AND GOD IS GLEANING OUT THE FEW HONEST SOULS THAT ARE SCATTERED THROUGHOUT HIS GREAT HARVEST-FIELD. THE REMNANT OF THE GENTILE WORLD IS NOW BEING GLEANED.

Father's Will.

Gen. 17:1-8.

BY S. L. SPECK.

- I. THIS WILL WAS MADE EXCLUSIVELY TO ABRAHAM AND HIS SEED.

Gen. 17:8.

- II. THERE IS A LITERAL SEED OF ABRAHAM, AND THERE IS A SPIRITUAL SEED ALSO. ALL THE JEWS BY NATURE ARE THE LITERAL SEED, AND ALL THE PEOPLE OF GOD ARE THE SPIRITUAL SEED.

1. Literal seed.

John 8:31-33, 37.

2. Spiritual seed.

Gal. 3:29.

Rom. 4:13-16.

- III. THE SPIRITUAL SEED INCLUDES ALL, BOTH JEWS AND GENTILES, WHO ARE SAVED BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST.

Gal. 3:29.

- IV. IF THE PROMISED INHERITANCE MEANT THE LITERAL LAND OF CANAAN, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN FULFILLED IN ABRAHAM,

AND ALL THE LITERAL SEED WOULD HAVE ENTERED IT. BUT THESE ALL DIED IN FAITH, NOT HAVING RECEIVED THE PROMISE.

Heb. 11:13.

- V. THE PROMISE TO ABRAHAM AND HIS SEED WAS TO BE FULFILLED IN CHRIST; HENCE, A SPIRITUAL INHERITANCE.

Gen. 22:15, 18.

Gal. 3:16.

Gal. 3:13, 14.

- VI. A TESTAMENT OR WILL DOES NOT TAKE EFFECT UNTIL THE TESTATOR DIES; THEREFORE, THE WILL TO ABRAHAM AND HIS SEED, WHICH WILL WAS TO BE FULFILLED IN CHRIST, DID NOT COME INTO EFFECT UNTIL JESUS CHRIST DIED UPON THE CROSS.

Heb. 9:16, 17.

- VII. A TESTATOR WHO DIES CAN NOT EXECUTE HIS OWN WILL, SO THERE MUST BE OF NECESSITY AN EXECUTOR APPOINTED TO CARRY INTO EFFECT THE WILL; THEREFORE, GOD HAS APPOINTED THE HOLY GHOST TO EXECUTE THE WILL HE MADE TO ABRAHAM AND HIS SEED, WHICH WILL TOOK EFFECT AT THE DEATH OF CHRIST.

John 16:7, 13, 14.

- VIII. THE PROMISE OF CANAAN TO ABRAHAM AND HIS SEED, FOR AN EVERLASTING INHERITANCE, WAS A TYPE WHICH SIGNIFIES A SPIRITUAL LEGACY OR BLESSING WE WOULD RE-CEIVE THROUGH CHRIST.

Gen. 22:17, 18.

God's Covenant With Abraham And His Literal Seed.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. THE COVENANT.

1. I will multiply thee exceedingly, and make of thee a great nation. Thy seed shall be as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore in numbers.

Gen. 12:2.

Gen. 15:5.

Gen. 17:6.

Gen. 22:17.

Gen. 24:60.

2. Unto thy seed will I give the land of Canaan for a possession.

Gen. 12:5, 6, 7.

Gen. 13:14-17.

Gen. 15:18.

Psa. 105:9-11.

II. THE COVENANT WAS FULFILLED UNDER THE LAW.

1. The literal seed of Abraham became a great nation, and multiplied until they became like the stars of heaven and the sand of the sea shore in numbers.

Deut. 1:10.

Deut. 10:22.

Deut. 26:5.

1 Kin. 3:8.

Heb. 11:12, 13.

2. The literal seed of Abraham received the literal land of Canaan for an inheritance.

Neh. 9:23-25.

Josh. 24:13.

3. Did Abraham receive the promise?

(a) Abraham himself individually did not receive the inheritance.

Acts 7:5.

(b) Abraham received it and possessed it in his seed.

Heb. 6:15.

Neh. 9:7, 8.

Josh. 23:14.

Josh. 21:43-45.

Gen. 28:4.

4. In what sense did the Jews, the literal seed of Abraham, receive the land of Canaan for an everlasting possession, and dwell therein forever?

(a) The word forever in the Old Testament, when applied to things pertaining to the earth, signified, "a limited duration; for a time only."

Ex. 21:6.

Jonah 2:6.

Ex. 12:24.

Ex. 27:21.

Ex. 28:43.

(b) The word everlasting in the Old Testament when applied to statutes in Israel and to things pertaining to this earth simply signifies a limited duration, for a time only.

The Battle of Armageddon.

Rev. 16: 16.

BY D. O. TEASLEY.

I. THE BATTLE FIELD.

Armageddon (mount of holiness and truth) of the New Testament is an antitype of the Megiddo of the Old Testament, which was the scene of the two greatest victories ever won by ancient Israel; viz., that of Barak over the Canaanites (Judges 4 and 5), and that of Gideon over the Midianites (Judges 7). Here also Deborah sang her war song. Judges 5. Here (in Armageddon, the great battle field of the New Testament) shall the armies of the redeemed put to flight the infernal hosts mentioned in Rev. 20: 8 as Gog and Magog; viz., the combined forces of false religions. The battle of Armageddon is not, as some have supposed, a battle fought with lead and steel, but a struggle between the powers of right and wrong. On the one side will be the saints of the most high God, commanded by Jesus Christ and the Spirit of truth. On the other side, the false religions of earth marshaled by the Archfiend and the spirit of Paganism.

III. GOD'S SACRIFICE.

Mat. 24:28.

Ezek. 39:17.

“While Mat. 24:28 may have had a fulfillment at the destruction of Jerusalem, it evidently was to reach its true fulfillment just prior to the end, as it is used in such close connection with the coming of the Son of man. The word ‘eagles’ is more correctly rendered ‘vultures’ in the new version. The basis of the language is a dead, putrifying body, the scent of which attracts the vultures and other birds and beasts of prey. The application of this figure is spiritual. While the Lord is mustering his host on the high plains of Armageddon (Rev. 16:16) in this beautiful evening light, the spirits of devils are gathering together the hosts of Babylon in confederation and opposition to the burning truth of God, and the true saints of God who stand by it. This is the last spiritual conflict. The Gog and Magog army of false religions being slain and cut off by the word of God, compose this great carcass. The vultures signify evil spirits which possess and prey upon these dead formalists. These now swarm and throng the great Babel of sectism. Rev. 18:2-5. This slaughter is called a great sacrifice, because many of them possessed noble attributes, and were even mighty through God; but when the whole truth was presented they would not get saved from the last spot of sin and sectism; therefore, God had to sacrifice them in order to get a pure church.”

1. This sacrifice will take place on the mountains of Israel—battle field of truth.

Ezek. 39:2-5, 17.

2. It will be a sacrifice of great men—those who have been useful in the work of God.

Ezek. 39:18-20.

Rev. 19:18.

3. There are various reasons why God must make this sacrifice.

- (a) He must have a pure army.
 Rev. 19: 14.
 Rom. 1: 24-26.
 Isa. 4: 3-5.
- (b) People become careless.
 Ezek. 39: 6, 7.
 1 Pet. 5: 8.
 2 Pet. 1: 5-10.
- (c) They become unfaithful.
 Jer. 23: 1, 2, 11-15.
 2 Pet. 2: 20-22.
 Ezek. 34: 2-10.
- (d) They will not receive a love for the truth.
 2 Thes. 2: 10-12.
 1 Kin. 22: 15-27.
 Jer. 51: 37-40.
4. Wild beasts (beastly spirits) and feathered fowls (deceptive spirits) shall prey upon the carcasses of those who are slain.
 Ezek. 39: 17.
 Isa. 34: 2, 3, 13, 14.
 Jer. 7: 33.
 Rev. 19: 17.
 Rev. 18: 2, 3.
5. They are slain with the sword of truth.
 Isa. 34: 2-14.
 Rev. 19: 15.
 Jer. 48: 10.
 Eph. 6: 17.
6. Condition of those slain.

- (a) They sleep a deep and perpetual sleep.
 Isa. 29: 8-10.
 Jer. 51: 39, 40, 57.
- (b) They are under the influence of, and controlled by wicked spirits.
 Rev. 18: 2.
 Isa. 34: 13, 14.
 Jer. 12: 9-12.
 Isa. 18: 3-6.
- (c) They are drunken.
 Isa. 29: 9.
 Isa. 28: 7, 8.
- (d) They are compared to sleeping, greedy, dogs.
 Isa. 56: 9-12.
 Micah 3: 11.

IV. THE GOG AND MAGOG ARMIES.*

1. Their gathering.
- (a) Manner of gathering.
 Rev. 20: 8.
 Rev. 16: 13, 14.
- (b) Time of gathering.
 2 Tim. 4: 3, 4.
 2 Pet. 2: 1-3.
 2 Tim. 3: 1-5.

* Note.—The three unclean spirits which proceed out of the mouth of the dragon (Paganism), and out of the mouth of the beast (Popery), and out of the mouth of the false prophet, (Protestantism) are the three great powers of formal religion, which will be the instrument in the hands of the devil of gathering together the Gog and Magog armies to the great and final conflict with the armies of heaven. This being the case the adherents of these three false spirits maturely become the Gog and Magog armies.

(c) Place of gathering.

Rev. 20: 9.

Rev. 16: 14.

2. Their armor.

Ezek. 38: 2-4.

3. Their captain.

Rev. 20: 7, 8.

4. General description.

(a) They are divided.

Mark 3: 24, 25.

(b) They are empty, faint, and hungry.

Isa. 29: 8.

forever with the Lord.

1 Thes. 4: 16, 17.

Lo! heaven now opens to rapturous view,
The armies that follow the faithful and true,
Arrayed in fine linen and armor of light,
With swords of destruction, the nations to smite.

Chorus.

All glory to God! we'll follow the Lamb,
All glory to God! we'll fight in the van;
In uniform white on our holiness steeds,
We'll rush to the battle, wherever he leads.

The holy all ride upon hobbies, they say,
But horses we have of a heavenly neigh;
Then join in our phalanx of cavalry white,
And ride in the Spirit's omnipotent might.

This campaign of fire shall sweep over the land,
Enlisting the pure that are able to stand;
In columns of glory they follow their King,
Like thunder their songs of sweet melody ring.

Speed onward, great army, to judge and make war,

Salvation in Jesus go trumpet afar:
There're battles to fight and fair trophies to win,
And perishing souls to be rescued from sin.

All honor to Jesus, whose eyes are a flame,
Who wondrously helps us each battle to gain:
He's clothed in a vesture that's dipped in the blood,

He graciously shed to redeem us to God.

The beast and his army all gathered in vain,
With all the false prophets they're taken and slain:

The bride and the bridegroom now shine as the sun,

The rapturous scene of the marriage is come.

V. THE FINAL CONFLICT.

1. The armies of heaven advance.

Rev. 19: 11-16.

2. The armies of the beast appear.

Rev. 19: 19.

3. The beast and his armies are taken.

2 Thes. 2: 8-10.

Rev. 19: 20.

Rev. 20: 9, 10.

Dan. 7: 11.

2 Thes. 1: 7-9.

4. King Jesus thus triumphant over the armies of earth and hell at this time delivers up his glorious kingdom to the Father.

1 Cor. 15: 24-28.

5. The army in Armageddon's heights is now released from duity and caught up to beHope.

Sin—Objections Considered.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

There are certain texts of scripture brought forth as objections to a sinless life in this world. These we will briefly consider.

I. "THERE IS NO MAN THAT SIN-NETH NOT."

1 Kin. 8: 46.

Eccl. 7: 20.

1. The above language was uttered by Solomon about one thousand years before Christ came and made a perfect atonement for sin.

2. Solomon described the condition of the human family under the law only.

3. The sacrifices of the law could not save from sin.

Heb. 10: 1-4, 9-12.

Heb. 7: 19.

Heb. 11: 39, 40.

Heb. 9: 7-14.

4. Since Solomon's day Christ has come to the world to put an end to sin, and to fully save man from it.

Rom. 8: 1-3.

The Sleep of Sin.

Eph. 5: 17.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. IN YOUTH IS GOD'S TIME FOR MEN TO SEEK HIM.

Eccl. 12: 1.

1. They that seek early shall find.

Prov. 8: 17.

2. Seek while he may be found, call while he is near.

Isa. 55: 6.

3. Harden not your hearts.

Heb. 4: 7.

II. SOLEMN WARNINGS TO MEN WHO PRESUMPTUOUSLY GO ON IN SIN.

1. God's Spirit will not always strive.

Gen. 6: 3.

2. Procrastination will make

- (a) Your heart as an adamant stone.

Zech. 7: 11-13.

- (b) Your conscience seared as with a hot iron.

1 Tim. 4: 1, 2.

3. You may be "almost persuaded, yet be lost.

Acts 26: 28.

4. You may receive the last call.

Acts 24: 25.

III. MEN CAN PRESUME UPON GOD'S MERCIES, AND REJECT THE OF-FERS OF SALVATION UNTIL

1. God's Spirit no longer strives with them.

Gen. 6: 3.

2. God departs from them, and will not hear them.

1 Sam. 28: 6, 15.

3. Their house is left desolate.

Luke 13: 34, 35.

4. The door of mercy forever closes against them.

Luke 13: 25.

5. God will no longer have mercy.

(See LXX.)

IV. THE SAD CONDITION OF SUCH SOULS.

1. Their eyes are forever closed.

Isa. 29: 8-10.

2. They sleep a perpetual sleep.

Jer. 51: 39.

3. They may seek to enter, but will not be able.

Luke 13: 23, 24.

4. They may call, but God will not answer; they may seek, but can not find. God will mock and laugh when their fear cometh.

Prov. 1: 20-31.

V. THEIR SAD END.

Luke 12: 19, 20.

VI. THEIR FINAL, AWFUL DOOM.

Jude 13.

"But the Bible you have slighted,
And the Spirit turned away;
And refused, though oft invited,
To improve the gracious day.
Oh, how hard your heart is getting,
Oh, how sad your state to day!
Friend, your star of hope is setting,
Flee to Christ without delay."

Sinfulness of Sin.

Rom. 7: 13.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. LIGHT RATES THE SINFULNESS OF A CRIME.

Rom. 7: 7-13.

John 9: 39-41.

John 15: 22-24.

II. SIN TO SOME IS GREATER THAN TO OTHERS, BECAUSE THEY HAVE MORE LIGHT.

John 19: 10, 11.

III. SINNERS ARE MORE SINFUL UNDER THE GOSPEL DISPENSATION THAN UNDER THE LEGAL.

Mat. 11: 20-24.

Mat. 12: 41, 42.

IV. SINNERS THAT PROFESS ARE WORSE THAN NON-PROFESSORS.

Mat. 23: 14.

Mat. 12: 43-45.

2 Pet. 2: 20, 21.

VI. LIGHT WILL RATE THE PUNISHMENT OF THE WICKED IN HELL.

1. Some will receive "few stripes," others "many."

Luke 12: 46-48.

2. Some will have a "much sorer punishment" than others.

Heb. 10: 29-31.

3. It will be "more tolerable" for some than others.

Mat. 11: 20-24.

Mat. 12: 41, 42.

Luke 10: 10-15.

"What awful darkness shrouds all the earth;
Hearts sealed in hardness, grope on in death.

* * * * *

O world of sinners—if not too late—
While hope yet glimmers, flee from your fate.
Awake, O sleeper, God help you hear:
Death coils around thee, thy doom is near."

Materialism Refuted.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. MATERIALISM DEFINED.

Materialism—the doctrine of materialists; the opinion of those who maintain that the soul of man is not a spirit substance distinct from matter; that man possesses no spiritual, conscious entity, separate and distinct in substance from the body, but is only a material being.

II. THE DOCTRINE OF MATERIALISM IS UNSCRIPTURAL AND WRONG FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON.

1. It brings man on a level with the beasts.

- (a) Man in his nature stands but a little lower than angels and much higher than the beasts.

Psa. 8:4-7.

- (b) Angels are wholly spirit beings, wholly immortal.

Heb. 1:7, 14.

Mat. 22:29, 30.

Luke 20:35, 36.

- (c) Man is both spirit and body.

1 Cor. 6:20.

1 Cor. 7:34.

Job 32:8.

2. It denies experimental salvation in this life.

- (a) If man were wholly a material being he could not undergo any spiritual change. Salvation is a spiritual work which restores the moral and spiritual nature of man from a defiled condition to a righteous state.

Psa. 23:3.

Jas. 1:21.

Psa. 19:7.

Heb. 10:39.

1 Pet. 1:9.

1 Cor. 5:5.

- (b) It is by man's spiritual nature that he is made conscious of God.

Luke 1:77.

1 John 5:10.

Rom. 8:16.

3. It denies spiritual birth in this life.

- (a) Spiritual birth is a necessity.

John 3:3-5.

- (b) Spiritual birth is now attainable.

John 1:12,13.

1 John 2:29.

1 John 3:9.

1 John 4:7.

1 John 5:1.

1 Pet. 1:22, 23.

1 Pet. 2:2.

Psa. 87:5, 6.

Isa. 66:8-12.

- (c) That which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

John 3:6.

4. Materialism contradicts the plain teaching of the Bible.

- (a) Man is part spirit.
Job 32: 8.
1 Cor. 6: 20.
- (b) Being a spiritual being, as well as a material being, man requires, derives, and feeds on both spiritual and natural food.
Mat. 4: 4.
Jer. 15: 16.
1 Pet. 2: 2.
John 6: 48-51.
John 4: 14.
Psa. 36: 8.
Psa. 107: 9.
Isa. 55: 2.
5. It denies a present state of spiritual death, and denies that spiritual life is now attainable.
- (a) Were man wholly a material being, he could die only a natural death, and could enjoy and possess only natural life.
- (b) Sin produces death to the soul. Not a cessation of its conscious existence, but an alienation from God's approving smile and favor, which is the normal sphere of its happiness. Hence, every unregenerated man and woman is in a state of spiritual death.
Isa. 59: 1, 2.
Gen. 2: 17.
Eph. 2: 1, 5.
Col. 2: 13.
Rom. 8: 6.
Rom. 7: 9.
1 Tim. 5: 6.
1 John 3: 14.
- (c) Spiritual life is now attainable through Jesus Christ.
John 10: 10.
Eph. 5: 14.
Isa. 55: 3.
1 John 3: 14.
Rom. 6: 13.
John 5: 24.
Eph. 2: 1.
1 John 5: 11, 12.
1 John 5: 13.
John 17: 13.
- (d) Spiritual life and spiritual death being present conditions of the human family, proves that man possesses a spiritual, conscious entity, separate and distinct in substance from the body.
1 Cor. 7: 34.
6. It makes scripture meaningless. For example.

- (a) God puts his law in our hearts.

Psa. 37: 31.

Heb. 8: 10.

2 Cor. 3: 3.

Psa. 119: 11.

- (b) Out of the heart are the issues of life.

Prov. 4: 23.

Mark 7: 21.

- (c) Salvation makes the heart pure.

Mat. 5: 8.

1. This can not apply to the organ in our bosom which pumps the blood through our system.

2. It can only apply to man's spiritual, moral nature—the soul.

Acts 15: 8, 9.

1 Pet. 1: 22.

- (d) Our heart (soul) shall live forever.

Psa. 22: 26.

III. THE DOCTRINE OF MATERIALISM WAS ADVOCATED BY THE ANCIENT SECT OF THE SADDUCEES.

Acts 23: 8.

1. Jesus refuted and silenced the Sadducees by proving that Jehovah is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, not the God of the dead but of the living.

Mat. 22: 32-34.

2. God is not the God of dead bodies, but “of the spirits of all flesh.”

Num. 27: 15, 16.

The Nature of Man in His Present State.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHEN GOD CREATED MAN

1. He made him but a little lower than the angels.

Psa. 8: 4-7.

2. He made him in his own image and exact likeness.

Gen. 1: 26, 27.

- (a) God is a Spirit.

John 4: 24.

- (b) A spirit hath not flesh and bones.

Luke 24: 39.

- (c) God is invisible.

Col. 1: 15.

1 Tim. 1: 17.

Heb. 11: 27.

- (d) God is immortal.

1 Tim. 1: 17.

- (e) To create man in God's likeness and image would be to create him a spirit being, immortal, and immaterial.

Job 32: 8.

Ecc. 12: 7.

3. He formed a spirit in man.

Zech. 12: 1.

4. He formed a body out of the dust, an earthly house for man to dwell in.

Gen. 2: 7.

2 Cor. 5: 1, 6.

- (a) Our bodies are mortal.

Rom. 6: 12.

2 Cor. 4: 11.

- (b) Our bodies are the only part of us that will put on immortality in the resurrection.

Phil. 3: 20, 21.

1 Cor. 15: 42-44.

II. THE BIBLE CLEARLY TEACHES

1. That there is a spirit in man.

Job 32: 8.

Zech. 12: 1.

1 Cor. 2: 11.

2. That man is both body and spirit.

1 Cor. 6: 20.

1 Cor. 7: 34.

Mat. 26: 41.

2 Cor. 7: 1.

Num. 27: 16.

Heb. 12: 23.

3. That man is both soul and body.

Job 14: 22.

Micah 6: 7.

3 John 2.

4. That man is a compound being—an outward man, and an inner man.

2 Cor. 4: 16.

Eph. 3: 16.

Rom. 7: 22, 23.

5. That the spirit of man is a being in form.

Zech. 12: 1.

2 Cor. 4: 16.

6. That the spirit of man is a conscious entity.

Rom. 8: 16.

Rom. 7: 22.

7. That the soul is the volitional part of man's being.

Micah 6: 7.

8. That while the body perishes, the soul may be renewed.

2 Cor. 4: 16.

9. That the body may be in ill-health while the soul is in a blessed state of prosperity.

3 John 2.

10. That the soul or inner man is immortal.

Mat. 10: 28.

Rev. 6: 9-11.

1 Pet. 3: 3, 4.

- (a) God is immortal—aphthartos.

1 Tim. 1: 17.

- (b) The dead shall be raised incorruptible—aphthartos.

1 Cor. 15: 52.

- (c) The hidden man of the heart—the soul—is not corruptible—is aphthartos.

1 Pet. 3: 4.

- (d) Since we see that aphthartos means immortal, and the inner, hidden man—the soul—is aphthartos, (1 Pet. 3: 4.) then man possesses an immortal part. The body is mortal, (Rom. 6: 12.) while the soul is immortal. Mat. 10:28.

The State of Man Between Death and the Judgment.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. NATURAL DEATH

1. Separates the soul from the body.
Gen. 35: 18.
Luke 12: 20.
2. Is the time when the soul leaves the body.
Gen. 35: 18.
3. Does not involve the soul in its ruin.
2 Cor. 4: 16.
Mat. 10: 28.

II. AT NATURAL DEATH.

1. The body returns to dust.

2 Tim. 4: 18.

3. Heaven is a prepared place.

John 14: 2, 3.

2 Cor. 5: 1.

- (a) Like the "Lamb slain from the foundation of the world," heaven was prepared in the mind of God, in his divine plan, from the beginning.

Rev. 13: 8.

Mat. 25: 34.

- (b) Christ in reality had to be slain, and also went and really prepared our future place of a bode.

John 14: 2, 3.

Rev. 7: 9-17.

4. Heaven is termed

- (a) A city.

Heb. 13: 14.

Rev. 22: 14.

- (b) A country.

Heb. 11: 16.

- (c) New heavens and new earth.

2 Pet. 3: 7-13.

Rev. 20: 11-15.

Rev. 21: 1.

III. THE PUNISHMENT OF THE WICKED.

1. The future punishment of the wicked will be in hell, which is a place prepared for the everlasting punishment of demons.

(a) Hell is a place.

Luke 12: 4, 5.

(b) Hell is a place prepared.

Mat. 25: 41.

(c) The wicked shall be turned into hell.

Psa. 9: 17.

2. The place and state of future punishment is termed outer darkness, and in that darkness the wicked shall weep, wail, and gnash their teeth forever.

(a) Outer darkness.

Mat. 8: 11, 12.

Mat. 25: 30.

(b) There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Mat. 24: 50, 51.

(c) The wicked shall remain there forever.

2 Pet. 2: 9, 13-17.

Jude 13.

3. The place and state of future punishment is termed a lake of fire, which will be everlasting fire, and in this ever lasting fire the wicked will suffer an everlasting punishment.

(a) A lake of fire.

Rev. 20: 15.

Rev. 21: 8.

(b) Hell fire.

Mat. 18: 9.

Mark 9: 47.

(c) Fire that never shall be quenched.

Mark 9: 43-48.

(d) Everlasting fire.

Mat. 25: 41.

(e) Suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

Jude 7.

(f) Everlasting punishment.

Mat. 25: 46.

Rev. 20: 10.

4. The future punishment of the wicked consists in torment, and that torment will last forever and ever.

(a) Torment.

Mat. 8: 28, 29.

Rev. 14: 10.

(b) Forever and ever.

Rev. 14: 10, 11.

Rev. 20: 10.

5. The future punishment of the wicked consists in damnation, and that damnation will be eternal.

(a) Damnation.

John 5: 29.

Mat. 23: 33.

(b) Eternal damnation.

Mark 3: 29.

6. There will be degrees of future punishment.

(a) The wicked will be punished according to their deeds.

Mat. 16: 27.

Rom. 2: 6, 9.

2 Cor. 5: 10.

(b) They shall be punished according to the light received by them.

Luke 12: 47, 48.

(c) Some will have a much sorer punishment than others.

Heb. 10: 29-31.

(d) Some will receive greater damnation than others.

Mat. 23: 14.

(e) It will be more tolerable for some than others.

Mat. 11: 20-24.

Mat. 12: 41, 42.

Luke 10: 10-15.

7. The Bible nowhere employs any stronger words to assert the endless existence of God himself and all that pertains to his eternal kingdom, life and glory, than it employs in declaring both the never-ending felicities of the righteous in heaven, and the never-ending punishment of the wicked in hell, who reject the infinite love and mercy of God, and close this probationary state in rebellion against his throne.

(a) Forever—"aiona."

1. To God be the glory forever.

Mat. 6: 13.

2. The Son abideth forever.

John 8: 35.

3. God blessed forever.

Rom. 9: 5.

4. His righteousness remaineth forever.

2 Cor. 9: 9.

5. Jesus Christ the same yesterday to-day and forever.

IV. CONCLUSION.

Heb. 10: 31.

Materialists' Arguments Considered.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. AGAINST THE IMMORTALITY OF THE SOUL.

1. God only hath immortality.

1 Tim. 6: 15, 16.

- (a) This text has direct reference to Jesus Christ and not to the Father.

1 Tim. 6: 14-16.

- (b) Jesus Christ is King of kings and Lord of lords.

Rev. 17: 14.

Rev. 19: 16.

- (c) To take this text in an exclusive unqualified sense would deny the immortality of the Father and of angels.

Mat. 22: 29, 30.

Luke 20: 35, 36.

- (d) We yet inhabit mortal flesh, mortal bodies, which are subject to physical death; while Christ has already received his immortal, resurrected body, and death hath no more dominion over him. In this sense he only hath attained immortality.

Rom. 6: 9.

- (e) This text referring to the resurrection of these bodies has not a feathers weight of evidence against the immortality of the soul.

2. Seek for immortality.

Rom. 2: 7.

- (a) We are mortal in body.

Rom. 6: 12.

2 Cor. 4: 11.

- (b) Our soul or spirit is immortal.

Mat. 10: 28.

Rev. 6: 9-11.

1 Pet. 3: 3, 4.

- (c) Our bodies are the only part of us that will put on immortality in the resurrection.

Phil. 3: 20, 21.

1 Cor. 15: 42-44.

- (d) To seek for immortality is to so live that we may have a glorious resurrection in an immortal and glorified body to eternal rewards in heaven. Again, this proves nothing against the immortality of the soul.

1 Cor. 15: 51-55.

3. The dead know not anything.

Eccl. 9: 5, 6.

- (a) This applies to the outer man—the body—that part of us which returns to dust.

Gen. 3: 19.

Psa. 104: 29.

Dan. 12: 2.

- (b) It can not apply to the real inner man— the soul—for that remains conscious after death.

Luke 16: 19-31.

2 Cor. 5: 1-9.

1 Thes. 5: 10.

Rev. 6: 9, 10.

4. In the day of death our thoughts perish.

Psa. 146: 4.

- (a) The mind is one thing,
and its thoughts, schemes, purposes, and intentions quite another.

Isa. 59: 7.

Jer. 4: 14.

Mark 7: 21.

- (b) While the schemes, plans, and thoughts of worldly hearts are cut off by death, and perish, the heart lives forever.

Psa. 146: 4.

Psa. 22: 26.

II. AGAINST ETERNAL PUNISHMENT.

1. The wages of sin is death.

Rom. 6: 22.

Ezek. 18: 4.

- (a) Sin produces death to the soul the very day that man transgresses
God's law.

Gen. 2: 17.

Rom. 7: 9.

- (b) Sin separates from God now.

Isa. 59: 1.

- (c) All sinners are now dead, yet have a conscious existence.

Eph. 2: 1.

Rom. 8: 6.

1 John 3: 14.

1 Tim. 5: 6.

These scriptures plainly show that the death of the soul incurred by sin is not the destruction of its conscious being. The sinner still lives. It is the forfeiture of the bliss of divine favor. Not a cessation of conscious existence, but an alienation from God, whose favor is the normal sphere of the soul's happiness. Sinners are now dead—yet live. They are cut off from God's favor. Just so in the future. They will be cut off from union with God eternally—dead—yet have a conscious existence and be tormented forever and ever in the lake of fire, which is the second death.

Rev. 21: 8.

Rev. 20: 10.

2. Eternal life is only promised to the righteous through Jesus Christ.

Rom. 6: 22.

- (a) Eternal life is not only eternal conscious existence, but a blessed union with God, enjoyment in his service and favor without end. A blessed knowledge of his salvation.

John 17: 3.

- (b) Eternal life given by the word and Spirit of God reunites the soul to God and makes it alive to his glory. This blessed gift is now attainable in this life.

Eph. 2: 1, 5, 6.

1 John 3: 14.

John 5: 24.

John 6: 47.

1 John 5: 11, 13.

- (c) If we prove faithful until death, the same blessed union with God and eternal life we here enjoy, we shall enjoy in the world to come.

Mark 10: 30.

- (d) At the second coming of Christ, death will be destroyed, the righteous will be raised to eternal life, and the wicked to shame and everlasting contempt.

1 Cor. 15: 22-26.

John 5: 28, 29.

Dan. 12: 2.

3. The wicked shall be destroyed.

2 Thes. 1: 7-10.

Psa. 37: 38.

- (a) Destroy does not always necessarily mean to annihilate. It also means to ruin, to render utterly useless for the purpose for which it was made. Floods may destroy cities and not annihilate them. Storms may destroy crops and not annihilate them.

- (b) Examples of its use in the Scripture.

1. Israel destroyed herself, but was not blotted out of existence as a nation.

Hos. 13: 9.

2. A hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbor, but does not annihilate him.

Prov. 11: 9.

3. We may destroy our brother by eating meat, yet he will have a living existence.

Rom. 14: 15.

4. Destroy—to trouble.

Psa. 78: 45.

5. Destroy—to pervert.

Eccel. 7: 7.

6. Paul destroyed God's people by putting them in prison. They were not annihilated.

Acts 9: 21.

Acts 8: 3.

7. Faith was destroyed, yet lived.

Gal. 1: 23.

8. Moral destruction, but conscious existence.

2 Chr. 26: 16.

9. Destroy—to spoil.

Jer. 4: 20.

- (c) From all these scripture texts we learn that destroy does not imply annihilation. So with the destruction of the wicked. It will not be a blotting out of existence as the heathen vainly hope; but an eternal separation from God, a deprivation of his approving smile and favor. Since man was created to enjoy God, love and serve him, when eternally disqualified by sin for that lofty end, he is ruined, destroyed, from the fact that he will never answer the exalted object of his creation. Being still conscious he will suffer an endless punishment.

Rev. 20: 10.

4. The wicked shall perish.

Luke 13: 1-5.

- (a) The word perish does not imply annihilation for the following reasons.

1. The righteous perish as well as the wicked.

Eccel. 7: 15.

Isa. 57: 1.

Micah 7: 2.

2. Truth may perish, but still live.

Jer. 7: 28.

- (b) The sense in which the wicked shall perish is that their doom is irredeemable, and eternal, and there will be no hope of recovery from the state of torment.

5. Obad. 16 and Psa. 37: 10, so often referred to by materialists, do not refer to the REDEMPTION

state of man beyond the judgment. These texts refer to death. Though sinners and wicked men make a great display in this world and spread themselves like a green bay tree, they will soon be cut down by death, and be as though they had not been. The place that now knows them will know them no more forever.

6. Mal. 4:1-6 is fulfilled in this gospel dispensation. Ver. 1 is a metaphorical expression. For comments see Jer. 5:14.

1 Tim. 5:5, 10.

II. GOOD WIDOWS

2. Hears their cry.
Ex. 22: 22, 23.
3. Will judge their cause.
Psa. 68: 5.
4. Will witness against those who oppress the widow.
Mal. 3: 5.

The Sabbath.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. SABBATH MEANS REST.

Ex. 31: 15.
Ex. 35: 2.

II. THERE WAS NO PRE-MOSAIC SABBATH—NO DAY KEPT AS A REST-DAY UNTIL THE EXODUS.

1. The first mention of the Sabbath as a rest-day enjoined upon man that we have in the Bible was 2,500 years after the creation.

Ex. 16: 23-30.

2. The covenant which contained the Sabbath commandment was not given to the people of God before the Exodus.

Deut 5: 2-22.

3. God made known the Sabbath to Israel in the wilderness.
Neh. 9: 13, 14.

4. "Enoch and all the rest, who neither observed Sabbaths, nor any other rites, seeing that Moses enjoined such observances. For if there was no need of circumcision before Abraham, or of the observance of the Sabbath, of feasts and sacrifices, before Moses, no more need is there of them now." "The Sabbath began with Moses." Justin Martyr. "Abraham without circumcision, and without observing the Sabbath, believed in God." Ireneus. "They (the Pre-Mosaic saints) did not observe the Sabbath, neither do we." Tertullian.

5. The book of Genesis was not written at the time of creation, but 2,500 years after, and not until the law had been given on Sinai, in which the seventh-day Sabbath had been enjoined upon the children of Israel. Moses, in writing the history of creation, says that "God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work," etc. Gen. 2: 3. You see at a glance that the sanctifying of the day took place at a later date than God's rest. The day was not sanctified until God delivered it to Israel on Sinai.

Neh. 9:13, 14.

III. THE MOSAIC SABBATH.

1. Was the observance of every seventh day.

Ex. 20:8-10.

2. Was enjoined upon the Jewish nation alone, and the few Gentile proselytes who came within their gates.

Deut. 5:14, 15.

Psa. 147:19, 20.

- (a) What the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law.

Rom. 3:19.

- (b) The Gentiles had not the law.

Rom. 2:14.

- (c) Christians are not under the law.

Rom. 6:15.

3. Was simply a sign between God and the children of Israel.

Ex. 31:12-17.

Deut. 5:15.

Ezek. 20:10, 12.

4. It belonged to the "shadow of things to come."

Heb. 10:1.

Col. 2:13-17.

5. The ten commandments compose the "old" and "first covenant" given on Sinai.

Deut. 5:2-22.

Ex. 34:28.

Deut. 4:13.

Deut. 9:9, 11.

Deut. 10:4.

1 Kin. 8:21, 9.

Heb. 9:4.

6. The covenant which contained the Sabbath commandment is abolished.

Gal. 4:21-31.

Heb. 8:6-13.

Heb. 10:9, 10.

2 Cor. 3:3-18.

IV. THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH, OR REST.

1. Is not the observance of any particular day.

Gal. 4:9-11.

Rom. 14:5.

Col. 2:16, 17.

See the testimony of Justin Martyr and Tertullian under "No Pre-Mosaic Sabbath."

2. Was prophesied as a spiritual rest; a rest of the soul that was to come through Christ.

Isa. 11:10.

Jer. 6:16.

3. Christ taught that the Christian Sabbath is a rest of the soul.

Mat. 11:28, 29.

4. This is the Sabbath rest that now remains for the people of God since the law Sabbath was abolished.

Heb. 4: 9, 10.

5. The Christian Sabbath is entered by faith.

Heb. 4: 3.

V. THE MOSAIC SABBATH AND THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH COMPARED.

1. The first was a rest of the body.

Ex. 35: 2, 3.

2. The second is a rest of the soul.

Mat. 11: 28, 29.

3. The first enjoined but one day in seven—the seventh—to be kept holy.

Ex. 20: 8-10.

4. The second enjoined that every day be kept holy.

Luke 1: 74, 75.

5. Abstaining from manual labor constituted a holy day to the Jews. Performing manual labor made the day unholy to them.

Deut. 5: 12-14.

Ex. 31: 14.

6. Performing manual labor or abstaining from labor does not make a day holy or unholy to us under the gospel dispensation.

Rom. 14: 5, 6.

By abstaining from sin and living holy lives we keep every day holy. By living in sin men make all their days unholy.

7. In the first they abstain from manual labor.

8. In the second we cease from sinful labor or works.

Heb. 4: 10.

9. By performing any manual labor on the former they broke the Sabbath and suffered death as a penalty.

Ex. 31: 14.

10. By indulging in sinful works we lose our sweet soul rest and incur spiritual death.

11. The blessings of the former were but temporal.

12. The blessings of the latter are eternal.

13. The former was but a type of the latter.

Col. 2: 16, 17.

Heb. 4: 10.

VI. THE EXAMPLE OF THE EARLY CHURCH WAS TO ASSEMBLE TOGETHER FOR THEIR PUBLIC WORSHIP ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK.

Luke 24: 33, 36.

John 20: 26.

Acts 2: 1-4.

Acts 20: 6, 7.

1 Cor. 16: 1-3.

1. It was called the "Lord's day" in honor of the resurrection. Rev. 1:10.
2. We to-day follow the example of the early church, and set apart the first day of the week (Sunday) as a day of worship and spiritual devotion.
3. Since the laws of the land have set apart the first day of the week as a Sabbath day from manual labor, and we are law abiding citizens, we as a God-fearing people abstain from manual work in general on that day.

Hospitality.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. CONCERNING HOSPITALITY.

1. It is enjoined upon the people of God. Rom. 12:13.

4. A social distinction is shown between the diligent man and the slothful one.
Prov. 12: 24.
5. We estimate a man's thrift by the condition of his dwelling house, buildings, and improvements generally.
Eccl. 10: 18.
Prov. 24: 30, 31.
6. Diligence in temporal affairs is closely connected with our spiritual prosperity.
Rom. 12: 11.

II. IN SPIRITUAL THINGS.

1. Christ is our example.
Luke 2: 49.
2. Saints of God should abound in diligence.
2 Cor. 8: 7.
3. God requires diligence
 - (a) In seeking him.
Heb. 11: 6.
 - (b) In obeying him.
Deut. 6: 17.
 - (c) In harkening to him.
Isa. 55: 2.
 - (d) In cultivating Christian graces.
2 Pet. 1: 5-8.

- (e) In keeping the soul.

- (f) In keeping the heart.
Prov. 4: 23.
- (g) In our labors of love.
Heb. 6: 10-12.
- (h) In our being found of him spotless, etc.
2 Pet. 3: 14.
- (i) In making our calling sure.
2 Pet. 1: 10, 11.
- (j) In self-examination.
Psa. 77: 6.
- (k) In preaching his word.
2 Tim. 4: 2.
- (l) In instructing children.
Deut. 11: 19.

III. CONCLUSION.

1 Cor. 15: 58.

Prov. 15: 1.

(b) With the law of love.

S. of Sol. 8: 6.

LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

"Happy the home when God is there,
And love fills every breast;
When one their wish, and one their prayer,
And one their heavenly rest.

"Happy the home where Jesus' name
Is sweet to every ear;
Where children early lisp his fame,
And parents hold him dear.

"Happy the home where prayer is heard,
And praise is wont to rise;
Where parents love the sacred word,
And live but for the skies.

"Lord, let us in our homes agree
This blessed home to gain;
Unite our hearts in love to thee,
And love to all will reign."

V. CONCLUSION.

1 John 2: 22, 23.

Wisdom's House.

Prov. 9: 1.

BY D. O. TEASLEY.

All things that are wise and good are traceable to God as their author; hence, he is the founder of wisdom's house, and upon his seven attributes (pillars) is this most magnificent structure predicated.

I. THE SEVEN FOUNDATION PILLARS ARE

1. Omnipresence.

Prov. 15: 3.

Heb. 4: 13.

2. Omnipotence.

(a) God the Son—Jesus Christ—has all power in heaven.

1 Pet. 3: 22.

(b) He has all power on earth.

Mat. 28: 18.

(c) He has all power over death and hell.

Rev. 1: 18.

3. Omniscience.

Prov. 3: 19, 20.

Isa. 40: 28.

Prov. 21: 30.

Jer. 10: 12.

Dan. 2: 20-23.

4. (Infallibility.)

Heb. 6: 18.

5. Immutability.

Heb. 6: 17.

Heb. 13: 8.

Heb. 1: 11, 12.

6. Holiness.

Rev. 15: 4.

7. Eternity.

Isa. 40: 28.

Deut. 33: 27.

Isa. 57: 15.

II. IT IS A STONE STRUCTURE.

1. The corner stone.

(a) God laid it.

Isa. 28: 16.

(b) Is Jesus Christ.

Acts 4: 10-12.

2. The foundation stone.

(a) Is Christ.

1 Cor. 3: 11.

(b) Standeth sure.

2 Tim. 2: 19.

3. The wall stones

(a) Are living stones.

1 Pet. 2: 5.

(b) Are men and women.

Heb. 3: 6.

(c) Are builded together.

Eph. 2: 20-22.

III. IT IS A SPIRITUAL STRUCTURE.

1. Christ the foundation rock is spiritual.

1 Cor. 10: 4.

2. The wall stones are spiritual.

1 Pet. 2: 5.

IV. TOOLS USED IN CONSTRUCTION.

1. A hammer.

Jer. 23: 29.

2. A plummet.

Isa. 28: 17.

3. A measuring reed.

Ezek. 40: 3.

Rev. 11: 1.

V. THE SPIRITUAL BUILDING IS GOD'S HOUSE OR CHURCH.

Eph. 2: 19, 20.

1 Tim. 3: 15.

Heb. 3: 6.

VI. JESUS CHRIST IS THE DOOR OF THIS HOUSE.

John 10: 9.

Rev. 3: 7.

VII. THIS HOUSE HAS NO NEED OF WINDOWS, AS GOD WHO DWELLS THERE IS AN UNFAILING LIGHT.

Isa. 60: 19, 20.

Rev. 21: 23.

God's Will to Man.

BY D. O. TEASLEY.

I. GOD AT DIFFERENT TIMES HAS MADE TWO WILLS.

1. The first covenant—will.

Heb. 9: 1.

Heb. 9: 18.

2. The second covenant—will.

Heb. 8: 6.

Heb. 7: 22.

II. WHEN TWO WILLS ARE MADE ONLY THE LAST ONE IS VALID, AND THE FIRST MUST PASS AWAY.

Rom. 10: 4.

Gal. 3: 22-26.

Heb. 8: 13.

III. A WILL IS NOT IN FORCE UNTIL THE DEATH OF THE TESTATOR.

Heb. 9: 16, 17.

IV. THE FIRST WILL WAS FAULTY, WHILE THE LAST ONE IS PERFECT.

1. In the first or old will we find the following defects.

(a) It was dedicated with the blood of animals.

Ex. 24: 6, 7.

Heb. 9: 18-22.

(b) The inheritance it promised was too scanty to free the heirs from sin.

Heb. 10: 4, 11.

(c) It could not make perfect.

Heb. 10: 1.

Heb. 7: 19.

(d) Their sins were remembered once a year.

Heb. 10: 3.

Heb. 9: 7.

(e) It could not give life.

Gal. 3: 21.

Gal. 2: 21.

(f) It was only a temporary will.

Gal. 3: 19.

2. The last will is perfect and superior to the first for the following reasons.

(a) It is dedicated with the blood of Jesus.

Heb. 9: 13, 14.

1 Pet. 1: 18, 19.

Heb. 13: 12.

(b) The inheritance promised is sufficient to free the heirs from all sin.

1 John 1: 7.

John 8: 36.

Rom. 6: 22.

(c) It brings perfection.

Heb. 7: 19.

Mat. 5: 48.

Heb. 10: 14.

(d) Our sins are remembered no more.

Heb. 10: 17.

Heb. 8: 12.

(e) It gives life in abundance.

John 6: 63.

John 10: 10.

Rom. 8: 2.

(f) It is an everlasting covenant.

Heb. 13: 20.

V. IN HIS LAST WILL GOD HAS WILLED US THE FOLLOWING UNSEARCHABLE RICHES.

1. Repentance unto life.

2 Pet. 3: 9.

Rom. 2: 4.

1 Tim. 2: 3, 4.

2. Justification.

1. Num. 25:7-13.
Psa. 106:30, 31.
2. 2 Kin. 23:19-25.

Questions Answered Regarding our E- ternal Home.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

1. Will the righteous have an eternal existence?

Ans. "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever."

Dan. 12: 3.

"And they shall reign forever and ever."

Rev. 22: 5.

2. Will this world exist forever?

Ans. "What shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?"

Mat. 24: 3.

"Lo I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

Mat. 28: 20.

"The end of all things is at hand."

1 Pet. 4: 7.

3. Will this earth ever pass away?

Ans. "Heaven and earth shall pass away."

Mat. 24: 35.

"Till heaven and earth pass."

Mat. 5: 18.

"Of old thou hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thy hand. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure."

Psa. 102: 25, 26.

"The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly. The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; . . . it shall fall, and not rise again."

Isa. 24: 19, 20.

4. The earth is one of the things we see. What does Paul say of the things which are seen?

Ans. "The things which are seen are temporal [lasting for a time only—transitory]; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

2 Cor. 4: 18.

5. Our eternal home is something we can not see with our natural eyes. Where and what is it?

Ans. "A building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

2 Cor. 5: 1.

6. When and how will this earth pass away?

Ans. "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein shall be burned up."

2 Pet. 3:10.

7. Will its present form pass entirely out of existence?

Ans. "And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heavens fled away; and there was found no place for them."

Rev. 20:11.

8. What is meant in the above texts by the heavens passing away?

Ans. The aerial heavens which surround this globe.

Gen. 7:3, 23.

Jer. 9:10.

Jer. 10:13.

Zech. 8:12.

2 Pet. 3:10.

9. What promise did Christ make his disciples?

Ans. "Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth."

Mat. 5:5.

10. Since this literal earth will pass out of existence, where must we look for the fulfillment of this promise?

Ans. "We according to his promise, look for a new heavens and a new earth."

2 Pet. 3:13.

11. Will we not enter the new heaven and earth until the present earth is no more?

Ans. "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea."

Rev. 21:1.

12. But is not the new heaven and earth simply this earthly country made anew?

Ans. "But now they [God's people] desire a better country, that is, an heavenly."

Heb. 11:16.

13. Since this planet will pass away and be no more, what blessed promises are given to us of that future, heavenly, and better country?

Ans. "Knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance."

Heb. 10:34.

"We have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

2 Cor. 5:1.

"An inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you."

1 Pet. 1:4, 5.

"For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven."

Col. 1:5.

"I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

John 14:1-3.

14. Where will we receive our future reward?

Ans. "Your reward is great in heaven."

Luke 6:22, 23.

"Great is your reward in heaven."

Mat. 5:11, 12.

15. Will the righteous not farm, etc., for a living in that heavenly country?

Ans. "They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; ...for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Rev. 7:16, 17.

"Man is born for a higher destiny than that of earth.

There is a realm where the rainbow never fades,

Where the stars will be spread out before us like islands that slumber upon the ocean,

And where the beautiful beings that here pass before us like visions,

Will stay in our presence forever."

1 Tim. 5:14.

Psa. 127:3-5.

Psa. 128:1-6.

Titus 2:4.

4. The husband must love his wife and give honor to her as unto the weaker vessel.

Eph. 5:25.

1 Pet. 3:7.

5. The wife must love her husband and be in subjection to him.

Titus 2:4.

1 Pet. 3:1, 5.

6. Good husbands will be a blessing to their wives.

Eph. 5:21-33.

7. Good wives are a blessing to their husbands.

Prov. 31:10-31.

“Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.”

“Mid pleasures and palaces
Though we may roam—
Be it ever so humble,
There’s no place like home.”

Separation.

Mat. 19: 6.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. CONCERNING DIVORCEMENT.

1. There were no divorces in the beginning.

Mat. 19: 3-8.

2. Moses allowed men to put away their wives for any cause. If she found no favor in her husband’s eyes, if he saw any unbecoming thing in her he could give her a bill of divorcement, send her away, and she might become another man’s wife.

Deut. 24: 1-4. LXX.

3. Moses suffered men to divorce their wives and marry again because of the hardness of their hearts.

Mat. 19: 7, 8.

4. Jesus did away with the divorce law, and restored matrimony back to the Edenic standard.

Mat. 19: 3-8.

5. Under the New Testament no court on earth should dissolve the marriage relation.

Mark 10: 2-9.

Mat. 19: 5, 6.

6. Under the New Testament husband and wife are bound together for life, death alone severs the marriage tie.

Rom. 7: 2, 3.

1 Cor. 7: 39.

7. Under the New Testament there is but one cause for which a man can put away his wife.

Mat. 5: 31, 32.

Mat. 19: 9.

8. After a man has lawfully put away his wife, or a wife has lawfully put away her husband, they are positively forbidden to marry again until the former companion is dead.

Mark 10: 11, 12.

Luke 16: 18.

Rom. 7: 2, 3.

II. CONCERNING DEPARTING.

1. Let not the wife depart from her husband.

1 Cor. 7: 10.

Adultery.

Heb. 13: 4.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

- I. UNDER THE NEW TESTAMENT, ADULTERY IMPLIES

1. An act.

John 8: 4.

2. A hidden lust of the heart.

Mat. 5: 28.

3. A state.

Mat. 19: 9.

II. THE ACT OF ADULTERY IS

1. Coition between a married person and the opposite sex who is not the lawful companion. Both parties may be married, or only one.

2. This act is also called fornication.

Mat. 19: 9.

Mat. 5: 32.

III. SECRET ADULTERY IS AS FOLLOWS.

1. Looking on a woman to lust after her.

Mat. 5: 28.

2 Pet. 2: 14.

2. The secret lust and thought of the heart.

Gen. 6: 5.

Mark. 7: 21-23.

IV. THE STATE OF ADULTERY IS AS FOLLOWS.

1. After putting a companion away, if the husband or wife marries another, while the first one lives, they are guilty of adultery.

Mark 10: 11, 12.

Luke 16: 18.

1 Cor. 7: 39.

Rom. 7: 2, 3.

2. Whosoever marries a woman who is put away is guilty of adultery.

Mat. 5: 32.

Luke 16: 18.

V. NO MAN IN ADULTERY CAN ENTER CHRIST'S KINGDOM WITHOUT CONFESSING AND FORSAKING HIS SIN.

Gal. 5: 19-21.

Isa. 55: 7.

Unscriptural Marriages.

Rom. 4: 15.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

- I. TO MARRY A SECOND COMPANION WHILE A FORMER LIVES IS ADULTERY—SIN—AND IS FORBIDDEN.

Mark 10: 11, 12.

Rom. 7: 2, 3.

- II. TO MARRY A PERSON WHO HAS A LIVING COMPANION IS ADULTERY—SIN—AND IS FORBIDDEN.

Mat. 5: 23.

Luke 16: 18.

1. The above is the law of Christ, and sin is the transgression of the law.

1 John 3: 4.

2. To transgress God's law man must have a knowledge of that law.

(a) Where no law is there is no transgression.

Rom. 4: 15.

- (b) Sin is not imputed where there is no law.

Rom. 5:13.

- (c) When men have no knowledge of God's law, they have no sin.

John 15:22-24.

John 9:39-41.

- (d) Light brings condemnation, but where no light is there is no condemnation.

John 3:19.

3. From the foregoing scripture we learn that sin is a wilful transgression of God's law. To commit sin men must have a knowledge of God's law, and transgress it knowingly—either the written law or the law of their conscience.

Rom. 2:14-16.

- III. MEN WHO HAVE A KNOWLEDGE OF THE TEACHINGS OF CHRIST'S LAW REGARDING MARRIAGE, AND THEN WITH THAT KNOWLEDGE MARRY A SECOND LIVING COMPANION, OR A DIVORCED WIFE OR HUSBAND WHILE THEIR FORMER COMPANION LIVES, WILFULLY TRANSGRESS THE LAW, ARE GUILTY BEFORE GOD OF SIN—ADULTERY—AND MUST FORSAKE THEIR SIN. ALL SUCH UNSCRIPTURAL MARRIAGES MUST BE DISSOLVED TO GET CLEAR FROM THE SINFUL STATE OF ADULTERY.

Prov. 28:13.

Isa. 1:16, 17.

Gal. 5:19-21.

1 Cor. 6:9, 10.

- IV. IF MEN ENTERED UNSCRIPTURAL MARRIAGES, EVEN THOUGH IGNORANT OF THE WRITTEN LAW, YET CONDEMNED BY THE LAW OF THEIR CONSCIENCE, SUCH ARE NOT CLEAR BEFORE GOD.

Rom. 2:12, 14-16.

- V. PEOPLE WHO HAVE ENTERED UNSCRIPTURAL MARRIAGES IN TOTAL IGNORANCE OF THE TEACHINGS OF CHRIST, AND WHOSE CONSCIENCE DID NOT CONDEMN THEM BECAUSE OF THE GENERAL LOW PLANE OF TEACHING ON THIS SUBJECT THROUGHOUT THE WORLD, SUCH INDIVIDUALS COMMITTED NO SIN—ARE NOT GUILTY OF ADULTERY, HAVE NO SIN ON THAT POINT TO FORSAKE WHEN THEY COME TO A KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRUTH.

Rom. 4:15.

Rom. 5:13.

John 15:22-24.

John 9:39-41.

- VI. CONCLUSION.

Ecc. 12:13, 14.

Mal. 2:14-16.

Phil. 1: 12-14.

"Is not the way to heavenly gain
Through earthly grief and loss?
Rest must be won by toil and pain,
The crown repays the cross.

"In tears and trials thou must sow,
To reap in joy and love;
We can not find our home below,
And hope for one above.

"So every Heaven-sent pang and throe,
That Christian firmness tries,
But nerves us for our work below,
And forms us for the skies."

Rest.

BY F. G. SMITH.

The rest promised to God's people in the Holy Scriptures is divided into two distinct parts; viz.

I. TO THE JEWISH NATION, GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE, UNDER THE LAW.

1. A temporal rest every seventh day.

Ex. 23: 12.

Ex. 20: 10.

Lev. 16: 31.

Lev. 23: 32.

2. A temporal rest every seventh year.

Ex. 23: 11.

Lev. 25: 3, 4.

3. A political rest in the land of Canaan.

Ex. 33: 14.

Deut. 3: 20.

Josh. 21: 44.

Josh. 23: 1.

Josh. 11: 23.

II. TO ALL NATIONS WHO ENTER THE FOLD OF CHRIST IN THE GOSPEL DISPENSATION. "THERE REMAINETH THEREFORE A REST TO THE PEOPLE OF GOD."

Heb. 4: 9.

1. This rest is spiritual in its nature, and includes in its embrace all the children of God.

Mat. 11: 28, 29.

2. Predicted by the prophets.

Gen. 49: 10.

Isa. 11: 10.

Jer. 6: 16.

3. Ushered in by Christ.

Mat. 11: 28-30.

I. THE REST ENJOYED BY THE ISRAELITES WAS TEMPORAL AND POLITICAL.

Ex. 16: 23.

Josh. 21: 44.

Lev. 25: 3, 4.

II. THE CHRISTIAN REST IS A SOUL REST.

Heb. 4: 3.

Mat. 11: 28, 29.

I. JOSHUA NEVER GAVE THE ISRAELITES THE REAL REST—THAT OF THE SOUL.

Heb. 4: 8-10.

II. THE TRUE REST WAS RESERVED FOR THE GOSPEL DISPENSATION.

Isa. 11: 10.

Heb. 4: 7-9.

I. UNBELIEF BARRED MANY ISRAELITES FROM RECEIVING THE LITERAL REST.

Psa. 95: 8-11.

Heb. 3: 18, 19.

II. UNBELIEF WILL BAR US FROM ENTERING THE CANAAN OF SPIRITUAL REST.

Heb. 4: 1, 2, 11.

Heb. 3: 12.

III. "LET US LABOR THEREFORE TO ENTER INTO THAT REST, LEST ANY MAN FALL AFTER THE SAME EXAMPLE OF UNBELIEF."

Heb. 4: 11.

Oh rest, happy rest, in the bosom of God,

A foretaste of heaven above;

No artist can picture, nor language describe,

Our rest in the Canaan of love.

Dishonesty.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. DISHONESTY IS MANIFESTED IN MEN IN THE FOLLOWING WAYS.

1. In holding back their laborer's wages.

Jas. 5: 4.

Jer. 22: 13.

Lev. 19: 13.

2. In unjust weights and measures.

Hos. 12: 7.

Micah 6: 10, 11.

Amos 8: 4-7.

Prov. 20: 10, 23.

Prov. 11: 1.

Lev. 19: 35-37.

3. In overreaching.

1 Thes. 4: 6.

Prov. 23: 10.

4. In taking advantage in trading.

Lev. 25: 14.

Lev. 19: 11.

5. In stealing.

Ex. 20: 15.

6. In borrowing and not giving back.

Psa. 37: 21.

7. In oppressing the poor.

Ezek. 22: 29.

Ezek. 18: 12.

II. WHEN ABOVE CHARACTERS COME TO CHRIST THEY MUST MAKE RESTITUTION TO THE EXTENT OF THEIR ABILITY AND OPPORTUNITY.

Ezek. 33: 15.

III. GOD WILL PUNISH THE DISHONEST.

1. Sometimes in this life.

Zech. 5: 3, 4.

Prov. 22: 16.

2. In the world to come.

Jas. 5: 1-8.

Mat. 23: 14.

"Provide things honest in the sight of all men."

Persecution.

I. GOD'S PEOPLE WILL ALL SUFFER MORE OR LESS PERSECUTION.

2 Tim. 3: 12.

Luke 21: 16, 17.

Mark 10: 30.

John 15: 20.

1. For the Word's sake.
Mark 4: 17.
2. Because they follow Christ.
Jer. 15: 15.
John 15: 20.
3. Because they are not of this world.
John 17: 14.

4. Because they live godly.
2 Tim. 3: 12.

II. FROM WHOM WILL GOD'S PEOPLE RECEIVE PERSECUTION?

1. From their own household.
Mat. 10: 36.
2. From their friends.
Luke 21: 16, 17.
3. Professors of religion.
2 Tim. 3: 3, 5.

III. THE SPIRIT OF PERSECUTION ORIGINATES

1. In ignorance of God.
John 16: 3.
2. In hatred against God.
John 15: 20, 21, 24.
3. In hatred against the straight word.
Mat. 13: 21.
4. In a false religious zeal.
John 16: 2.
Acts 13: 49-51.

IV. ENCOURAGING PROMISES TO THE PERSECUTED.

1. God will stand by us.
2 Cor. 4: 9.
2. God will deliver us.
2 Tim. 3: 11.
2 Cor. 1: 10.

3. They can not separate us from the love of God.

Rom. 8: 35-39.

4. There will be no persecution after death.

Job 3: 17.

V. HOW SHOULD GOD'S PEOPLE BEHAVE UNDER PERSECUTION?

1. They should rejoice.

Mat. 5: 10-12.

Luke 6: 22, 23.

1 Pet. 4: 13.

2. They should glorify God.

1 Pet. 4: 16.

3. They should take pleasure in their persecutions.

2 Cor. 12: 10.

4. They should patiently endure.

1 Cor. 4: 11-13.

5. Return blessings to our persecutors and pray for them.

Rom. 12: 14.

Luke 6: 28.

Accomplishments of Faith.

BY F. G. SMITH.

I. WHAT IS FAITH?

1. The belief in the historic truthfulness of the Scripture narrative, and the supernatural origin of its teachings.
2. "The belief in the facts and truth of the Scriptures, with a practical love of them; especially, that confiding and affectionate belief in the person and work of Christ which affects the character and life and makes a man a true Christian.”—Webster.

3. “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”—Bible.

4. Faith is an eternal principle, inasmuch as

(a) It antedates the material universe, being the direct agent through which the worlds were framed by the word of God.

Heb. 11:3.

(b) It continues evermore. “For thesethreethings are abiding, faith and hope and love.”

1 Cor. 13:13.

Syriac Version.

II. FAITH IS ENJOINED UPON MANKIND.

1 Tim. 6:11, 12.

1. Faith in God.

2 Chr. 20:20.

Mark 11:22.

2. Faith in his word.

Luke 24:25-27.

2 Tim. 3:15.

John 5:39.

3. Faith in his promises.

Rom. 4:20, 21.

Gal. 3:7.

John 11:40.

III. WHAT FAITH ACCOMPLISHES.

1. We are justified by faith.

Rom. 5:1.

Rom. 1:16.

Rom. 10:9.

Eph. 2:8.

1 Pet. 1:9.

Rom. 3:28.

2. We are sanctified by faith.

Acts 26:18.

Rom. 5:2.

Gal. 3:14.

3. Miracles and healings are wrought by faith.

Mat. 9:22.

Mat. 21:21.

Mark 9:23, 24.

Mark 11:23.

Luke 8:48.

Acts 3:16.

Jas. 5:14-16.

4. We live by faith.

Rom. 1:17.

Heb. 10:38.

Hab. 2:4.

Gal. 2:20.

Gal. 3:11.

5. We walk by faith.

2 Cor. 5:7.

6. We are kept by faith.

1 Pet. 1:5.

John 10:24-28.

7. We pray in faith.

Mat. 21: 22.

Jas. 1: 6.

Mark 11: 24.

8. Faith preserves us from trouble and danger.

Psa. 5: 11.

Psa. 9: 9, 10.

Psa. 112: 7.

Prov. 29: 25.

Eph. 6: 16.

9. Those who possess faith are steadfast. Psa. 112: 7, 8.

Psa. 125: 1.

1 John 5: 4.

Col. 1: 23.

10. The Lord is well pleased with those who have faith.

Psa. 147: 11.

Heb. 11: 6.

Jas. 2: 5.

Luke 7: 9.

11. The Lord is displeased with the faithless.

Mat. 8: 26.

Heb. 11: 6.

12. Prosperity is promised to those who have faith.

Prov. 28: 25.

Jer. 17: 7, 8.

1 Cor. 15: 58.

13. It is better to have faith in God than in man.

Psa. 118: 8, 9.

Psa. 40: 4.

Jer. 17: 5.

Isa. 31: 1.

14. God's love and reward is an incentive to faith.

Psa. 36: 7.

Ruth 2: 12.

Heb. 11: 8-10.

Heb. 11: 24-26.

15. A blessing is promised on those who have faith.

Psa. 40: 4.

Psa. 84: 12.

Jer. 17: 7.

16. All things received from God come through faith.

Mat. 21: 22.

Mark 11: 24.

Jas. 1: 6, 7.

IV. CONCLUSION. THE POWER OF FAITH IS UNLIMITED.

Mark 9: 23.

Mark 11: 24.

Mat. 21: 22.

Heb. 11: 3.

"Have faith in God."

Obedience to the Word.

BY E. E. BYRUM.

I. TO OBEY IS BETTER THAN SACRIFICE.

1 Sam. 15: 22.

1. Saul said, "I have performed the commandments of the Lord.

1 Sam. 15: 13.

2. The Lord had sent Samuel to tell Saul to smite Amelek and utterly destroy all their sheep, oxen, etc.; but he did not fully obey, and spared the best of the sheep and oxen. Samuel knowing he had not fully obeyed said, "What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

1 Sam. 15: 14.

3. Saul still insisted that he had obeyed the voice of the Lord, but he had not.

1 Sam. 15: 20.

4. He tried to clear himself by saying the "people" disobeyed.

1 Sam. 15: 21.

5. It was because he did not remain humble.

1 Sam. 15: 17.

6. The result—the kingdom was rent from him.

1 Sam. 15: 28.

II. ADAM WAS TOLD NOT TO EAT OF THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE OF GOOD AND EVIL.

Gen. 2: 17.

1. He disobeyed the command.
Gen. 3: 6.
2. He told the Lord the woman was the cause of his disobedience. Gen. 3: 12.
3. The woman said the serpent beguiled her.

Gen. 3: 13.

4. The serpent could find no one upon whom to lay the blame, therefore received the curse.

Gen. 3: 14.

5. The result of this disobedience—they were driven from the garden of Eden, and death passed upon all men.

Gen. 3: 23.

Rom. 5: 12.

III. A COMMAND TO THE SINNER—"SEEK YE THE LORD."

Isa. 55: 6.

1. Repent and believe the gospel.

Mark 1: 15.

Mark 16: 16.

Acts 3: 19.

2. Repent and be baptized.

Acts 2: 38.

3. Only those who were saved from their sins through believing the gospel were fit subjects for baptism.

Mark 16: 16.

4. John the Baptist refused to baptize sinners.

Mat. 3: 7, 8.

5. The eunuch believed on Christ, then Philip took him down into the water and baptized him.

Acts 8: 26-40.

6. After the Gentiles received the Holy Ghost Peter said: "Can any man forbid water that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized."

Acts 10:47, 48.

IV. JESUS SET AN EXAMPLE AND WASHED HIS DISCIPLES' FEET.

John 13:5.

1. Peter at first refused to have his feet washed.

John 13:8.

2. Jesus said, "If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me."

John 13:8.

3. Peter was then willing to have feet, hands and head washed.

John 13:9.

4. Jesus told him that only his feet were to be washed.

John 13:10.

5. Their feet were not washed because they were unclean. "For he knew who should betray him; therefore he said, Ye are not all clean." Judas was the unclean one among them.

John 13:11.

6. Jesus said, "Ye also ought to wash one another's feet."

John 13:14, 15.

7. This was continued as a practice in the church.

1 Tim. 5:10.

8. Jesus said: "If ye love me, keep my commandments."

John 14:15.

9. Some seem to think these are only some of the "words" of Jesus, which it is unnecessary to obey; but he says: "If a man love me he will keep my words."

John 14:23.

10. Others think they are only his "sayings." He says: "He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings."

John 14:24.

V. JESUS TOLD HIS DISCIPLES TO TEACH THE PEOPLE TO OBSERVE ALL THINGS WHATSOEVER HE HAD COMMANDED THEM.

Mat. 28:20.

1. He administered unto them the bread and cup, and told them to partake of it in remembrance of him.

Luke 22:19, 20.

2. Paul said he received of the Lord that which he delivered unto them.

1 Cor. 11:23.

3. This did not stop with the service at the night of the betrayal, "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come."

1 Cor. 11:26.

VI. JESUS PRAYED THAT ALL BELIEVERS MIGHT BE ONE.

John 17: 20, 21.

1. Paul taught them to be of one mind.

2 Cor. 13: 11.

2. Many of the children of God have become ensnared into human creeds of various beliefs and doctrines, thus causing them to become separated and scattered, where they can not be true to their creeds and fulfill the prayer of Christ.

Ezek. 34: 12.

3. These different religious creeds is what the Revelator calls Babylon, which means confusion. The Lord is calling his people out and says: "Come out of her, my people."

Rev. 18: 4.

4. This call is to every child of God yet in sectism. God intends this command shall be obeyed.

5. "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers."

2 Cor. 6: 14.

6. "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord."

2 Cor. 6: 17.

Steadfastness.

1 Cor. 15: 58.

I. CONCERNING STEADFASTNESS.

1. It is commanded.

Col. 4: 2.

2 Thes. 2: 15.

2. All God's ministers should be steadfast.

2 Tim. 1: 14, 15.

Titus 1: 9.

- (a) Should exhort the people of God to be steadfast.

Acts 13: 43.

Acts 14: 22.

- (b) Should pray for the steadfastness of the people of God.

2 Thes. 2: 16, 17.

1 Thes. 3: 12, 13.

II. STEADFASTNESS SHOULD BE MANIFESTED

1. In keeping the faith.

Col. 2: 5-7.

2. In resisting the devil.

1 Pet. 5: 8, 9.

3. In standing fast in the faith.

1 Cor. 16: 13.

4. In the work of the Lord.

1 Cor. 15: 58.

5. In holding fast our Christian confidence and profession.

Heb. 3: 6, 14.

Heb. 10: 23.

"Oh, for a faith that will not shrink, Though pressed by every foe."

Sickness and Disease.

Jer. 8: 22.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. AS TO THE SOURCE AND CAUSE OF SICKNESS AND DISEASE, THE BIBLE PLAINLY STATES.

1. That it is sent on some as a result of sin.

“O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord! And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.”

Acts 13: 10, 11.

“Behold thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.”

John 5: 14.

“Because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me. The Lord shall make the pestilence to cleave unto thee.”

Deut. 28: 20, 21.

“But if ye will not harken unto me, and will not do all these commandments, . . . but that ye break my covenant: I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart.” Lev. 26: 14-16.

2. That the devil afflicts some people with sickness and disease.

“And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond?”

Luke 13: 16.

“How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.”

Acts 10: 38.

3. That God sometimes permits Satan to afflict with diseases.

“And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thy hand; but save his life. So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown.” Job 2: 6, 7.

4. That God sometimes inflicts disease and sickness on men.

“For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite the and thy people with pestilence.”

Ex. 9: 15.

"I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians."

Ex. 15: 26.

"And the anger of the Lord was kindled against them;... and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow."

Num. 12: 9, 10.

"Then the Lord will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sickness, and of long continuance. Also every sickness, and every plague... will the Lord bring upon thee."

Deut. 28: 59-61.

"And the Lord struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick."

2 Sam. 12: 15.

"And after all this the Lord smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease."

2 Chr. 21: 18.

2 Chr. 26: 21.

Acts 13: 10, 11.

"The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation."

Deut. 28: 22.

"And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten with worms and gave up the ghost."

Acts 12: 23.

5. Through intemperance many bring sickness upon themselves.

"In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorers."

Hos. 7: 5.

6. The sins of youth often leave disease and weakness in the body.

"His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust."

Job 20: 11.

7. Great strain upon the body and intellect will sometimes bring sickness.

"And I Daniel fainted and was sick certain days."

Dan. 8: 27.

II. THE LORD HAS PROMISED TO HEAL ALL OUR SICKNESSES AND DISEASES.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases."

Psa. 103: 2, 3.

"And Jesus went about all Galilee... healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people."

Mat. 4: 23.

“Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever.”

Heb. 13:8.

Humility.

Micah 6:8.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WE ARE EXHORTED

1. To humble ourselves.
1 Pet. 5:6.
2. To put on humility.
Col. 3:12.
3. To be clothed with humility.
1 Pet. 5:5.
4. To walk with all humility of mind.
Eph. 4:1, 2.

II. BLESSED PROMISES TO THE HUMBLE.

1. God gives them grace.
Prov. 3:34.
Jas. 4:6.
1 Pet. 5:5.
2. God dwells with them.

4. God will exalt them.
Mat. 23:12.
5. God will honor them.
Prov. 15:33.
6. God will prosper them.
Prov. 22:4.

III. THOSE WHO HAVE HUMILITY WILL MANIFEST IT IN THEIR LIVES.

Prov. 16:19.

Acts 20:19.

IV. THE HUMILITY OF CHRIST IS AN EXAMPLE TO US. IT WAS MANIFEST IN THE FOLLOWING WAYS.

1. In his humble birth.
Luke 2:4-7.
2. In taking our nature.
Phil. 2:7.
3. In his station in life.
Mat. 13:55.
4. In his poverty.
Luke 9:58.
2 Cor. 8:9.
5. In becoming a servant.
Phil. 2:7.
6. In refusing honor.
John 5:41.
7. In his death.
Heb. 12:2.

“O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness, Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his name.”

Meekness.

Mat. 11:28, 29.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. THE BIBLE TEACHES

1. That God's ministers must show meekness.

"And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, in meekness instructing those that oppose themselves."

2 Tim. 2:24, 25.

"But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness."

1 Tim. 6:11.

"Gentle, showing all meekness unto all men."

Titus 3:2.

2. That all God's people

(a) Should seek meekness.

"All ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness."

Zeph. 2:3.

(b) Should manifest meekness.

"Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness and wisdom."

Jas. 3:13.

"A meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price."

1 Pet. 3:4.

"I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long suffering, forbearing one another in love."

Eph. 4:1, 2.

II. THE BENEFITS OF BEING MEEK.

"The Lord lifteth up the meek."

Psa. 147:6.

"The meek will he guide in judgment; and the meek will he teach his way."

Psa. 25:9.

"The meek shall eat and be satisfied."

Psa. 22:26.

"The meek also shall increase their joy in the Lord."

Isa. 29:19.

"He will beautify the meek with salvation."

Psa. 149:4.

III. JESUS' TESTIMONY.

"I am meek and lowly in heart."

Mat. 11:29.

Conscience.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT WAS PAUL'S TESTIMONY?

"Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day."

Acts 23:1.

"And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men."

Acts 24:16.

II. WHAT WILL BRING A GOOD CONSCIENCE?

"How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God."

Heb. 9:14.

"Having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience."

Heb. 10:22.

III. WHAT KIND OF A CONSCIENCE HAVE ALL GOD'S SAINTS?

"Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience."

1 Tim. 1:5.

"Holding the mystery of faith in a pure conscience."

1 Tim. 3:9.

IV. WHAT BRINGS REAL LASTING JOY TO THE CHRISTIAN?

"For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience."

2 Cor. 1:12.

"I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost."

Rom. 9:1.

"Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God."

1 John 3:21.

V. HOW SHOULD GOD'S MINISTERS COMMEND THEMSELVES TO THE PEOPLE?

"But by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God."

2 Cor. 4:2.

VI. HOW DOES THE BIBLE DESCRIBE THE CONSCIENCE OF THE WICKED?

"Having their conscience seared with a hot iron."

1 Tim. 4:2.

"Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush."

Jer. 6:15.

"Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled."

Titus 1:15.

VII. DOES THE CONSCIENCE AT SOME TIME IN LIFE WITNESS UNTO ALL MEN?

"The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord, searching all the inward parts of the belly."

Prov. 20:27.

"And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one."

John 8:9.

"Their conscience also bearing witness." Rom. 2:15.

VIII. WILL CONSCIENCE ACCUSE MEN OF SIN?

"And Cain said unto the Lord, my punishment is greater than I can bear."

Gen. 4:13.

"Then spake the chief butler unto Pharoah, saying, I do remember my faults this day."

Gen. 41:9.

"And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us."

Gen. 42:21.

"And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him."

1 Sam. 24:5.

"Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood."

Mat. 27:3, 4.

IX. WHEN UNENLIGHTENED, IS CONSCIENCE ALWAYS A SAFE GUIDE?

"I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth."

Acts 26:9.

"Hope will end, but conscience never,
With thy spirit it will fly,
Yea, torment and chide thee ever,
Where the worm shall never die."

The Better Promises of the New Testament,

IN CONTRADISTINCTION TO THOSE OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.

BY F. G. SMITH.

"By how much also he is the mediator of a better testament, which was established upon better promises."

Heb. 8:6.

I. THE PROMISES CONTAINED IN THE COVENANT GOD MADE WITH ABRAHAM, UPON WHICH BOTH THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS WERE ESTABLISHED, ARE

1. "I will make of thee a great nation." "Thou shalt be a father of many nations."

Gen. 12:2.

Gen. 15:5.

Gen. 17:4.

Gen. 22:18.

Gen. 26:4.

Gen. 18:18.

2. "Unto thy seed will I give this land [Canaan]." "And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger; all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession."

Gen. 12:7.

Gen. 15:18.

Gen. 17:8.

3. "In thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed."

“And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed,” etc.

Gen. 12: 2, 3.

Gen. 22: 18.

Gen. 26: 4.

Gen. 28: 4.

II. THE FIRST TWO OF THE ABOVE-MENTIONED PROMISES MEET A TWOFOLD FULFILLMENT.

1. A numerous progeny.

(a) Literally fulfilled under the law.

Deut. 1: 10.

Deut. 10: 22.

1 Chr. 27: 23.

Deut. 28: 62.

Heb. 11: 12, 13.

(b) Spiritually fulfilled under the gospel.

Rom. 4: 13-17.

Gal. 3: 7, 26, 29.

Rom. 9: 6-8.

Gal. 4: 28.

Rom. 2: 28, 29.

2. An inheritance in Canaan.

(a) Literally fulfilled under the law.

Deut. 34: 1-4.

Josh. 1-5.

Josh. 21: 43.

Neh. 9: 7, 8, 23-25.

(b) Spiritually fulfilled under the gospel, because

1. Canaan was the only inheritance promised.
Gen. 17: 8.

2. An inheritance was to be received through Christ.
Gal. 3: 16.

3. It was to be of faith, in order to include all the seed.
Rom. 4: 16.

4. Paul identifies the inheritance with the promise.
Gal. 3: 14-18.

5. And declares that it is the Spirit.
Gal. 3: 14.

Christ instructed his apostles to tarry at Jerusalem until they received the promise.
Luke 24: 49.

They received it on Pentecost.
Acts 2.

6. Therefore, the inheritance ordained to come through Christ was perfect holiness.
Acts 20: 32.
Acts 26: 18.
Col. 1: 12.

7. Paul treats the entrance of the Israelites into Canaan as a type of our entrance into the rest of the soul.

Heb. 3; 4.

8. It was to this spiritual fulfillment of an inheritance in Canaan that Paul had reference when he said, concerning the Old Testament prophets and patriarchs: "These all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us."

Heb. 11: 39, 40.

3. A blessing to come upon all nations.

(a) Fulfilled exclusively under the gospel.

Gal. 3: 16, 14.

Acts 3: 26.

Gal. 3: 8.

Luke 1: 68-75.

Luke 2: 10, 11, 14.

III. THE LITERAL FULFILLMENT AND THE SPIRITUAL FULFILLMENT CONTRASTED.

1. The literal seed of Abraham relates to one nation—the Jews.
2. The spiritual seed of Abraham includes all who are the children of God by faith.

Gal. 3: 7.

1. The literal inheritance in Canaan was enjoyed by one nation only.
2. The spiritual Canaan inheritance of perfect holiness is enjoyed by all nations, who received the promise of the Spirit through faith.
1. The literal seed of Abraham only prove a blessing to all families of the world in that the inspired writings of the patriarchs and prophets are widely diffused among the nations.
2. Christ and his people—the spiritual seed—carry full salvation, through the new covenant, unto the ends of the earth.

IV. UPON THESE PROMISES THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS WERE FOUNDED.

1. The Old Testament was established upon their literal fulfillment to the Jewish nation.
2. The New Testament was established upon their spiritual fulfillment unto all nations.

V. CONCLUSION.

Inasmuch, therefore, as the promises upon which the New Testament is founded are unmistakably broader and better than those promises which constitute the statute basis of the legal economy, it follows conclusively that the new covenant or testament is infinitely superior to the Old Testament.

Heb. 7: 22.

Heb. 8: 6, 7.

Heb. 12: 24.

The Sacrifices @ Blood

OF THE NEW TESTAMENT SU-PERIOR TO THE SACRIFICES AND BLOOD OF THE OLD TES-TAMENT.

BY F. G. SMITH.

“For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.”

Heb. 10: 1.

“By one offering he [Christ] hath perfected forever them that are sanctified.”

Heb. 10: 14.

I. THE OBJECT OF THE OFFERING OF ANIMALS IN SACRIFICE.

1. To obtain access to God.

Gen. 46: 1-4.

Heb. 9: 7.

2. To obtain forgiveness of sins.

Lev. 9: 7.

Heb. 9: 13.

Lev. 4: 19, 20.

Lev. 6: 6, 7.

3. To make reconciliation be- tween God and man.

Lev. 17: 11.

Heb. 9: 22.

4. For the purpose of dedica- tion.

Heb. 9: 18.

Ex. 24: 5-8.

Heb. 9: 22.

5. To render thank-offerings and peace-offerings unto the Lord.

Lev. 2: 1, 2.

Lev. 3: 1, 2.

Lev. 7: 11-13.

Num. 6: 17.

II. THE OBJECT OF THE OFFERING OF THE BLOOD OF CHRIST.

1. That we might have access to God.

Eph. 2: 13, 18.

Heb. 10: 19.

2. That we might receive for- giveness of sins.

Rev. 1: 5.

1 John 1: 7.

1 Pet. 1: 18, 19.

Heb. 9: 14.

Col. 1: 14.

Eph. 1: 7.

Rom. 5: 9.

3. To make reconciliation between God and man.

Col. 1: 20.

Eph. 2: 16.

Rom. 5: 10.

2 Cor. 5: 18.

4. That we might be sanctified.

Heb. 13: 12, 20, 21.

Heb. 10: 10, 19.

Heb. 10: 20, 29.

Heb. 9: 14.

5. For the purpose of dedication.

Heb. 12: 24.

Heb. 9: 18-24.

III. THE TWO CONTRASTED.

1. The legal sacrifices purchased only temporary access to God.

Heb. 9: 7.

2. The blood of Christ purchased a perfect and continual access to God.

Eph. 2: 18.

Rom. 10: 13.

1. The blood of animals only purchased a ceremonial forgiveness of sins, and did not remove them, nor the evil nature that prompted them.

Heb. 9: 13.

Heb. 10: 1-3.

2. The blood of Christ grants perfect deliverance from the power of sin.

1 John 1: 7.

Heb. 9: 14.

1. A remembrance was made of sins once every year.

Heb. 10: 3.

2. Now, "Where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin."

Heb. 10: 18.

1. The legal sacrifices did not effect a perfect reconciliation between God and man, for God expressed dissatisfaction with them.

Psa. 40: 6, 7.

Isa. 1: 11.

Jer. 6: 20.

Heb. 10: 5-9.

2. The blood of Christ effects a satisfactory reconciliation.

Eph. 2: 16.

Heb. 2: 11.

Rom. 5: 10.

1. The sacrificing of animals under the law could not impart spiritual life.

Gal. 3: 21.

2. Through Christ—the great sacrifice—life is obtained.

John 6: 47-54.

John 10: 10.

2 Tim. 1: 10.

1. The blood of animal sacrifices was too weak to cleanse from sin, therefore constant repetition was necessary.

Heb. 10: 1-4.

2. The blood of Christ is all-powerful, therefore needs to be offered but once.

Heb. 10:12-14.

1. The entire penal code, which was dedicated with, and predicated upon, the offering of animal blood in sacrifice, consisted merely of a system of legal forms and observances.

Heb. 9:1-10.

2. The gospel "law of liberty" pertains to the heart and inner being of man.

Jer. 31:31-33.

Ezek. 36:25-27.

Heb. 8:8-10.

IV. THE REDEEMED NOW OFFER SACRIFICES

1. Of praise.

Heb. 13:15, 16.

Jer. 33:11.

2. Of thanksgiving.

Psa. 116:17.

Hos. 14:2.

V. CONCLUSION.

Inasmuch as the sacrifice and blood with which the New Testament is purchased and dedicated is infinitely superior to the blood and sacrifices of the Old Testament, it is evident that the New Testament exceeds the Old, being a more perfect revelation of the will of God to man.

Old Testament Justification,

COMPARED WITH THE JUSTIFICATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

BY F. G. SMITH.

I. WHAT DOES JUSTIFICATION SIGNIFY?

1. "The act of justifying, or the state of being justified."
2. Justify—"To pardon; to absolve."—Webster.

II. JUSTIFICATION OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.

1. The justification received under the law was imperfect, in that it was not absolute.

Heb. 10:1-4.

Heb. 9:9.

Lev. 16:21.

Acts 13:39.

2. It was also imperfect in that it failed to give spiritual life to those who were "dead in trespasses and sins."

Gal. 3:21.

3. The state of being legally exonerated from guilt could not be maintained, because the blood of animals could not purge the hearts of men who were inwardly disposed to commit evil.

Heb. 9:13, 14.

Heb. 10:4.

Micah 6:6, 7.

4. Therefore the apostle was justified in his statement that sin abounded under the law.

Rom. 5:20.

Rom. 6:14.

III. JUSTIFICATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

1. New Testament justification is perfect.

Acts 13:39.

Rom. 5:1, 18.

John 8:36.

2. Frees from guilt.

Rom. 6:22.

Rom. 8:1.

John 8:34-36.

3. Brings life.

John 5:24.

2 Tim. 1:10.

1 John 3:14.

4. Brings joy.

Rom. 5:11.

5. Brings peace.

Rom. 5:1.

Eph. 2:13, 14.

IV. THE NEW TESTAMENT STATE OF JUSTIFICATION, OR FREEDOM FROM SIN, CAN BE MAINTAINED.

1. It is thus declared.

1 John 5:18, 4.

Mat. 7:18.

Rom. 6:14.

1 John 3:9.

Luke 1:68-75.

Titus 2:11, 12.

2. The saved individual is forbidden to commit sin.

John 8:11.

John 5:14.

Rom. 6:12, 13.

Old Testament Sanctification,

COMPARED WITH THE SANCTIFICATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

BY F. G. SMITH.

I. WHAT DOES SANCTIFICATION SIGNIFY?

1. "The act of sanctifying or making holy; or the state of being sanctified or made holy; the act of God's grace by which the affections of men are purified, or alienated from sin and the world, and exalted to a supreme love to God."

2. Sanctify—"To make sacred or holy; to set apart for a holy or religious use. To make holy or free from sin; to cleanse from moral corruption and pollution; to make fit for the service of God, and the society and employments of heaven."—Webster.

II. THE SANCTIFICATION RECEIVED UNDER THE LAW WAS ONLY A LEGAL SANCTIFICATION—

A SETTING APART FOR HOLY AND RELIGIOUS PURPOSES—BECAUSE

1. Inanimate objects, as well as animate objects, received it.

(a) The tabernacle was sanctified.

Ex. 40:9.

(b) The altar was sanctified.

Ex. 40:10.

(c) The vessels of the tabernacle were sanctified.

Ex. 40:9.

(d) The laver was sanctified.

Ex. 40:11.

(e) The mountain was sanctified.

Ex. 19:23.

(f) All the first-born were sanctified.

Ex. 13:2.

Num. 8:17.

(g) All Israel were sanctified.

Ex. 19:10, 14.

2. This act of sanctifying could be performed by man.

Ex. 30:25-29.

Ex. 13:1, 2.

Lev. 27:26.

Ex. 19:14.

3. The priests could sanctify themselves.

Ex. 19:22.

III. THE SANCTIFICATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT SIGNIFIES
THE ACT OF MAKING HOLY, OR THE STATE OF BEING MADE HOLY; "THE ACT OF GOD'S GRACE BY WHICH THE AFFEC-TIONS OF MEN ARE PURIFIED, OR ALIENATED FROM SIN AND THE WORLD."

1. None but human beings can receive it; for it is extended only to those who obey God.

Luke 11:13.

Rom. 15:16.

2. It is performed, not by man, but by the Holy Ghost.

Rom. 15:16.

Acts 15:8, 9.

(a) Example of the Holy Spirit being given.

Acts 2:1-18.

Acts 8:16-18.

Acts 10:44.

Acts 19:1-6.

3. It is a purging process, for it is performed in conjunction with the blood.

Heb. 13:12.

Heb. 10:10.

1 Thes. 5:23.

4. It is God's will to sanctify.

1 Thes. 4:3.

1 Thes. 5:23.

5. Jesus prayed to this end.

John 17:17.

6. And died that it might be accomplished.

Heb. 10:10.

Heb. 13:12.

Eph. 5:26, 27.

IV. CONCLUSION.

The sanctification of the gospel age is superior to that of the legal dispensation in that it not only consecrates or sets apart for holy purposes, but also cleanses the heart from all "moral corruption and pollution," and makes "fit for the service of God, and the society and employments of heaven."

Goodness.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. ARE THERE ANY GOOD MEN IN THE WORLD?

"For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith."

Acts 11:24.

"A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth good things."

Mat. 12:35.

II. WHAT IS THE SOURCE OF ALL GOODNESS?

"There is none good but one, that is God."

Mat. 19:17.

III. SINCE ALL GOODNESS IS IN GOD, IN ORDER FOR US TO BE GOOD

WE MUST HAVE HIM DWELL IN US, OR PARTAKE OF HIS GOODNESS.

"But he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness."

Heb. 12:10.

"For ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God and they shall be my people."

2 Cor. 6:16.

IV. WHAT IS THE EXPERIENCE OF SUCH A ONE?

"For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness."

Psa. 107:9.

"And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able to admonish one another."

Rom. 15:14.

V. HOW DOES THE BIBLE DESCRIBE THE GOODNESS OF GOD?

1. As rich.

"Or despiseth the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?"

Rom. 2:4.

2. As Great.

"For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty!"

Zech. 9:17.

3. As abundant.

"The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord."

Psa. 33:5.

"The Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth."

Ex. 34:6.

4. As Satisfying.

"Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the Lord, . . . and their soul shall be as a watered garden. . . . And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the Lord."

Jer. 31:12-14.

5. As enduring.

"The goodness of God endureth continually."

Psa. 52:1.

6. As universal.

"The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

Psa. 145:9.

"That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust."

Mat. 5:45.

"Blest are the pure in heart,
For they our God shall see,
And from his presence ne'er depart
Through all eternity.

"O bliss for which we've sought,
From sin to be secure;
In every word, and act, and thought,
Forever to be pure."

Selected.

Trusting the Lord.

Psa. 37:3-6.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. OUR TRUST.

1. Negatively.

(a) Should not be in ourselves.

2 Cor. 1:9.

(b) Should not be in the flesh.

Phil. 3:3, 4.

2. Positively.

(a) Should be in God.

Psa. 11:1.

(b) Should be in Christ.

Eph. 3:11-13.

(c) Should be in the word of God.

Psa. 119:42.

II. THOSE WHO PUT THEIR TRUST IN THE LORD

1. Are kept from fear.

Isa. 12:2, 3.

Heb. 13:5, 6.

2. Are kept from sliding.

Psa. 26:1.

3. Are kept in a state of prosperity.

Psa. 34: 22.

Prov. 28: 25-27.

4. Are kept in a settled condition.

Psa. 112: 7.

Job 13: 15.

Psa. 62: 5-8.

5. Enjoy perfect peace.

Isa. 26: 3.

6. Are happy.

Prov. 16: 20.

7. Have much joy.

Psa. 5: 11, 12.

8. Receive the desires of their hearts.

Psa. 37: 3-6.

9. Are known of God.

Nahum 1: 7.

10. Have no fears of death.

Psa. 23: 4.

III. REASONS WHY WE SHOULD TRUST GOD.

1. His promises are great.

Mark 11: 23, 24.

2. His word is unfailing.

Luke 21: 33.

3. He can not lie.

Heb. 6: 17-19.

4. He is able to perform.

Isa. 26: 4.

5. His lovingkindness is to us.

Psa. 36: 7-9.

6. His care is over us.

1 Pet. 5: 7.

IV. CONCLUSION.

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.”

Prov. 3: 5, 6.

Procrastination.

Acts 24: 24, 25.

I. CHRIST'S MISSION TO THIS WORLD.

1. He came to save all men.

1 Tim. 2: 1-6.

2. He tasted death for every man.

Heb. 2: 9.

3. He brought salvation to all mankind.

Titus 2: 11, 12.

4. He came to save his people from sin.

Mat. 1: 21.

II. GOD'S ATTITUDE AND INVITATION TO SINNERS.

1. He is not willing that any should perish.

2 Pet. 3: 9.

John 3: 16, 17.

2. Whosoever will may come.

Rev. 22: 17.

3. Come now, and let us reason together.

Isa. 1: 18.

4. Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden.

Mat. 11: 28-30.

5. Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

John 6: 37.

6. He is not a respecter of persons.

Acts 10: 34, 35.

7. He is kind to the unthankful and evil.

Luke 6: 35.

8. God's goodness is to lead all to repentance.

Rom. 2: 4.

III. GOD'S COMMAND TO SINNERS.

1. He commands all men to repent.

Acts 17: 30, 31.

2. He commands to seek him while he may be found.

Isa. 55: 6.

3. The sinner must forsake his wicked way.

Isa. 55: 7-9.

4. Must restore all legal pledges
(promises).

Ezek. 33: 14, 15.

Mat. 5: 37.

5. Must break unscriptural agreements.

Isa. 28: 18.

Lev. 5: 4, 5.

6. Must forgive trespasses.

(a) To be forgiven.

Mat. 6: 14, 15.

(b) How to forgive.

Deception.

Prov. 14:12.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. GOD'S PEOPLE ARE FAITHFULLY WARNED AGAINST DECEPTION.

1. Let no man deceive you.

Eph. 5:6.

2 Thes. 2:3.

2. Let no man deceive himself.

1 Cor. 3:18.

3. Take heed lest any man deceive you.

Mark 13:5.

4. Take heed that ye be not deceived.

Luke 21:8.

5. Be not deceived.

Gal. 6:7.

II. DECEIVERS WERE TO BE MANY.

1. Evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

2 Tim. 3:13.

2. Many deceivers are entered into the world.

2 John 7.

III. MANY WERE TO BECOME DECEIVED.

1. And shall deceive many.

Mat. 24:11.

2. If it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

Mat. 24:24.

3. Which deceiveth the whole world.

Rev. 12:9.

4. And many shall follow their pernicious ways.

2 Pet. 2:2.

IV. THERE ARE MANY DIFFERENT WAYS MEN BECOME DECEIVED.

1. They deceive themselves.

1 Cor. 3:18.

(a) By putting off salvation till late in life.

1. God's time for men to seek him is in their youthful days.
Ecc. 12: 1.
Prov. 8: 17.
Mat. 6: 33.
 2. There is awful danger in procrastination.
Isa. 55: 6.
Heb. 4: 7.
Gen. 6: 3.
Zech. 7: 11-13.
 3. Eleventh-hour repentance is only for those who never before had a call.
Mat. 20: 6, 7.
 4. Eleventh-hour repentance is not death-bed repentance, for it was but 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and they had still time to labor and earn a reward before evening.
 5. If men will not seek God in his time—early in life—they will not find.
Prov. 1: 20-31.
Luke 13: 24, 25.
1 Sam. 28: 15.
- (b) Men deceive themselves by allowing pride in their hearts.
Obad. 3.
- (c) Men deceive themselves by not bridling their tongues.
Jas. 1: 26.
- (d) Men deceive themselves by thinking themselves pure without the cleansing blood of Christ.
1 John 1: 8, 7.
- (e) Men deceive themselves by getting a knowledge of God's word and then failing to obey it.
Jas. 1: 22.
- (f) Men will sport themselves with their own deceivings.
2 Pet. 2: 13.
2. False teachers deceive many.
Mark 13: 5, 6.
Mat. 24: 11.
Jer. 50: 6.
- (a) With vain words.
Eph. 5: 6.
Titus 1: 10.
- (b) With good words and fair speeches.
Rom. 16: 18.
- (c) They come in sheep's clothing.
Mat. 7: 15.
3. Sin deceives the human family.
Rom. 7: 11.

4. The devil deceives.
Rev. 20: 10.
5. Sect religion has deceived millions of souls.
2 Thes. 2: 1-10.
Rev. 18: 1-4, 23.
Rev. 19: 20.
6. God will sometimes send men strong delusions.

Dan. 3: 13-18.

Our Enemies.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT SOLEMN CHARGE IS GIVEN TO ALL GOD'S PEOPLE?

"If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men."

Rom. 12: 18.

"Follow peace with all men."

Heb. 12: 14.

II. WHO SOMETIMES WILL BE OUR WORST ENEMIES?

"And a man's foes shall be they of his own household."

Mat. 10: 36.

III. HOW SHOULD WE TREAT OUR ENEMIES?

"But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you, and persecute you."

Mat. 5: 44.

"And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other." Luke 6: 29.

"Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: being defamed, we entreat."

1 Cor. 4: 12, 13.

IV. WHAT KIND OF AN EXAMPLE DID CHRIST SET US?

"Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Luke 23: 34.

"Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously."

1 Pet. 2:21-23.

"He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth."

Isa. 53: 7.

V. WHAT ATTITUDE SHOULD WE HOLD TOWARD OUR ENEMIES?

"If thine enemy hunger, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink: for thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee."

Prov. 25: 21, 22.

VI. WHAT PROMISE DOES THE LORD GIVE US REGARDING OUR ENEMIES?

"When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him."

Prov. 16: 7.

that sent me while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work."

John 9:4.

Two Extremes.

BY D. O. TEASLEY.

NOTE.— Man is in possession of two principles; viz., zeal and judgment. A man who has more zeal than judgment, is invariably fanatic, while a man who has more knowledge than zeal will not live to his God-given wisdom, thus compromising the truth of God; but between these two extremes—fanaticism and compromise—there is a beautiful medium, the standard of eternal truth, and those who live by it have an equal supply of zeal and judgment.

I. BABYLON.

1. The standard of the truth with respect to Babylon (sectism, or confusion).

(a) Shall we join any sectarian church?

“Praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.”

Acts 2:47.

“Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?”

2 Cor. 6:14.

(b) Are there any people of God in Babylon?

“And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her [Babylon], my [God’s] people.”

Rev. 18:4.

(c) What are God’s people commanded to do?

“Come out of her, my people.”

Rev. 18:4.

“Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord.”

2 Cor. 6:17.

(d) Shall there ever come a time when God shall have no people in Babylon?

“And the light of a candle [Christian] shall shine no more at all in thee [Babylon]; and the voice of the bridegroom [Christ] and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee.”

Rev. 18:23.

2. Fanaticism with respect to Babylon.

Those who are fanatic on this line, make a hobby of Babylon, preach and talk more Babylon than Christ, etc., thus driving people from the truth instead of winning them to it.

3. Compromise with respect to Babylon.

Those who have either lost, or never attained to an experience of full salvation, and freedom from Babylon, often conclude that sec-tism is not so bad after all. Such persons have not enough loyalty to God and his truth to live and preach all the Bible, so are generally found mingling with sectarian worshippers.

II. OUR ATTIRE.

1. The standard of truth with respect to our attire.

(a) How does the Bible say we should adorn ourselves?

“Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands.”

1 Pet. 3:3-5.

“In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.”

1 Tim. 2:9, 10.

- (b) Can we not conform to worldly fashions in our attire?

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.” Rom. 12:2.

- (c) Can we go slovenly attired and please the Lord?

“Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.”

1 Cor. 10:31.

“Let all things be done decently and in order.”

1 Cor. 14:40.

2. Fanaticism with respect to our attire.

There are those who become so fanatical on this line, that they suppose that we must all wear our clothing alike, wear no buttons, etc.

3. Compromise with respect to our attire.

Those who compromise the plain truth of the Bible on this line will wear gold-rimmed spectacles, gold watch-chains, feathers, flowers, etc., and excuse themselves by saying that their hearts are not set on them, or that they are a present.

Acts 17:24, 25.
3. In being mindful of us and caring for us.
Psa. 144:3.
Mat. 6:25-34.
4. In forgiving and receiving us.
1 Pet. 1:3-5.
Prov. 16:6.
5. In preserving and blessing us. Prov. 20:28.

III. THOSE ON WHOM GOD WILL HAVE MERCY.

1. Those who fear him.
Luke 1:50.
2. Those who confess, uncover and forsake sin.
Prov. 28:13.

3. Those who are penitent.
Mat. 9:13.
4. Those who are merciful.
Mat. 5:7.
Dan. 4:27.
5. "The vessels of mercy"
are those who are merciful.
Rom. 9:23.

IV. EXAMPLES OF THOSE ON WHOM GOD HAD MERCY.

1. Paul obtained mercy, "who was before a blasphemer."
1 Tim. 1:11-16.
2. The man who said he would not go, and afterwards repented and went.

The Bondwoman and the Free.

Gal. 4:21-31.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. ABRAHAM HAD TWO SONS.

Gal. 4:22.

1. The name of the first was Ishmael.

Gen. 16:15, 16.

2. The name of the second was Isaac.

Gen. 21:1-5.

II. THE MOTHERS OF THESE TWO SONS.

1. The mother of Ishmael was a bondwoman: her name was Hagar.

Gen. 16:1-4.
Gen. 16:15, 16.

2. The mother of Isaac was a freewoman--Abraham's lawful wife--Sarah.

Gen. 11:29.

Gen. 21:1-3.

III. THESE PAUL USES AS AN ALLEGORY TO TEACH US A VERY IMPORTANT TRUTH.

Gal. 4:24.

1. These two women represent "two covenants."

Gal. 4:24.

- (a) Hagar, the bondwoman, represents the covenant from mount Sinai which gendereth to bondage.

Gal. 4:24, 25.

- (b) Sarah, the freewoman, represents the new covenant, which makes us free.

Gal. 4:24, 26-28.

1. The covenant from Sinai — represented by Hagar, the bondwoman—was the ten commandments.

Ex. 34:4, 28.

Deut. 5:2-22.

Deut. 4:13.

Deut. 9:9, 11.

1 Kin. 8:21.

1 Kin. 8:9.

Heb. 9:4.

2. The new covenant in Christ Jesus—represented by Sarah, the freewoman—is the New Testament.

Heb. 8: 6.

Heb. 9: 15.

John 1: 17.

- (c) These two women represent these two covenants in the following particulars.

1. Hagar was a bondwoman.

Gal. 4: 22.

So the old covenant which was the mother of the Jewish nation gendered to bondage, and all under that covenant wore the galling yoke of bondage.

Gal. 4: 24.

Gal. 5: 1.

2. Sarah was a freewoman.

Gal. 4: 22.

So the new covenant makes us free—it is our free mother.

Gal. 4: 31, 26.

John 1: 17.

John 8: 32.

Jas. 1: 25.

2. The two sons of one father (Abraham) represent the children of the two covenants.

Gal. 4: 21-31.

- (a) The bondwoman is the old covenant; hence, the mother of the Jewish nation. They were children of the bondwoman.

Gal. 4: 25, 31.

- (b) The free woman is the new covenant. The new covenant, then, is our spiritual mother.

Gal. 4: 28, 31.

1. The church has a mother.

S. of Sol. 6: 9.

2. The mother of the church is "Jerusalem which is above," the freewoman—the new covenant.

Gal. 4: 26, 31.

3. God is our Father.

1 Cor. 1: 2.

4. The freewoman—new covenant is our mother.

Gal. 4: 31, 26.

5. Christ is a son of the Father and of the covenant promised to Abraham: and since God is our Father and the covenant our mother, Christ is our elder brother.

6. The daughter of thi covenant—the New Testament church—is now married to Christ.

S. of Sol. 6:9.

Rom. 7:2-4.

- (a) Hence Christ in a figurative sense is also our father.

Isa. 9:6.

- (b) The church in a sense is also our mother.

Isa. 66:7-13.

- (c) Ishmael and Isaac represent the children of the two covenants in several particulars.

1. In their conception and birth.

- (a) Ishmael was born after the flesh.

Gal. 4:23.

His parents were both of a proper age. His birth was according to the course of nature—natural. So fleshly or natural birth brought the Jews into the Old Testament church under the first covenant.

- (b) Isaac was “by promise,” “born after the Spirit.”

Gal. 4:23, 28, 29.

Sarah was superannuated—or “as good as dead.” At the time of Isaac’s conception and birth his parents were both past the proper age. Hence, his birth was supernatural. So spiritual birth brings men into the New Testament church or kingdom under the second, or new covenant.

John 3:3, 5.

The first covenant children were “born after the flesh,” and the second covenant children are “born after the Spirit.”

2. In their condition.

Hagar was a slave; Sarah was a freewoman. When considered according to property, if the mother is free the offspring is free; if a slave, her offspring is a slave. Hence, Ishmael was a slave, and Isaac was free-born. So the covenant from Sinai was a bondwoman, gendered to bondage, and all the children of that covenant wore the galling “yoke of bondage”—were slaves (Acts 15:10), while the new covenant in Christ Jesus makes us free.

John 8:32.

Rom. 8:1-3.

3. In their inheritance.

- (a) Hagar, not being a proper wife of Abraham, had no property. She had only a slave's portion—bread and water. A loaf of bread and a bottle of water constituted her whole fortune, and Ishmael's inheritance.

Gen. 21: 14.

So the children of the first covenant all died, not having received the promise.

Heb. 11: 39, 40.

(b) Isaac was the rightful heir to the vast estate of Abraham; for he was the only son of Abraham in the marriage covenant. He had the perpetual enjoyment of the vast inheritance at home.

Gen. 21: 9, 10, 12.

So the children of the new covenant are heirs of a vast inheritance promised.

Gal. 3: 13-29.

We now receive our inheritance.

Eph. 1: 11.

Acts 26: 18.

Acts 20: 32.

3. The bondwoman—old covenant—and her son—children of that covenant—were cast out; viz., the law was abolished, and all law keepers—Adventists or modern Ishmaelites—have no part with the free children of God.

Gal. 4: 30, 31.

Excuses.

Luke 14: 15-18.

BY ORA TEASLEY.

NOTE.—In the following will be found a few of the many excuses, offered by those who neglect their soul's salvation.

“Almost decided, sinner,
Will you not come to-day?
Or will you slight the Savior
Till he is gone away?
Then what an awful feeling,
Helpless and bound in sin;
Oh, will you not take warning?
Hasten and come to him.”

I. “NOT NOW.”

1. God's time is now.

2 Cor. 6: 2.

Rom. 6: 22.

2. Procrastination is dangerous.

Acts 24: 24, 25.

NOTE.— We have no record that Felix ever found a “Convenient time”; but died in his sins.

“Sinful man, thy days are few,
How swiftly they decline!
Time will never wait for you,
Only now is thine.”

II. "TO-MORROW."

To-morrow may be too late.

Prov. 27:1.

Jas. 4:4.

"To-morrow's sun may never rise,
To bless thy long deluded sight;
Poor sinner, harden not your heart,
Be saved, Oh, to-night."

III. "TOO YOUNG."

1. Youth is the time to seek the Lord. Eccl. 12:1.

2. In after years he may not be found. Isa. 55:6.

Prov. 8:17.

"Is there not a desire in your heart to reform?"

Oh, remember that kind mother's prayer:
'Father, save my dear child from all danger and harm,

For to meet me in heaven so fair.' "

IV. "A LITTLE MORE OF THE PLEAS-URES OF THIS WORLD."

1. Affliction with the people of God was esteemed by Moses greater riches than the pleasures of sin.

Heb. 11:24-26.

2. In Christ is peace and pleasure evermore.

John 16:33.

Psa. 16:11.

"I would not give up my title
To that future world of bliss
For the shining gold and silver
Of a thousand worlds like this.
I would rather bear affliction,
Be a hated pilgrim here,
Miss the diadems terrestrial,
And obtain a crown up there."

V. "A LITTLE MORE OF THIS WORLD'S GOODS."

1. If the kingdom of God is first sought, all necessary things will be added.

Mat. 6:33.

2. Could the whole world be gained, it would be no profit should the soul be lost.

Mat. 16:26.

3. True riches consist not in the possession of earthly goods.

Luke 12:15-21.

4. Riches profit not in the day of wrath.

Prov. 11:4.

"Eternity's beggar, the call he had heard,
But the warning, he turned it away.
O sinner, then list' to the voice of thy God,
And turn to the Lord while you may."

VI. "I AM IN TROUBLE."

The Lord will save from trouble.

Psa. 34:6.

Psa. 34:17.

Psa. 107:6.

Your soul is tossed with trouble,
For earthly dross you crave;
But Christ, who died in mercy,
From sorrow waits to save.

VII. "I COULD NOT KEEP SALVA-TION."

1. God has promised to keep his children.

Psa. 121:5.

Isa. 26:3.

2. He is faithful.

2 Thes. 3:3.

3. They are kept through faith by his power.

1 Pet. 1:5.

"The words of the Lord are so priceless,
How patient and watchful is he;
Tho' mother forget her own offspring,
Yet he'll never forget to keep thee.
O sinner, why don't you accept him?
He offers salvation so free;
Repent and believe and obey him,
And he'll never forget to keep thee."

VIII. "I AM TOO SINFUL."

"Whosoever will may come."

Rev. 22:17.

John 6:37.

Isa. 1:18.

"Tho' your sins arise like mountains,
Tho' like crimson they appear,
Through the precious blood of Jesus.
They shall be like crystal clear."

IX. "MY PARENTS WOULD DISINHERIT ME."

1. God will care for his own.

Psa. 27:10.

1 Pet. 5:7.

2. He will provide.

Phil. 4:19.

1 Cor. 10:26.

"Though your father and your mother
Drive you homeless from their door,
There's a friend more dear than brother,
Who will keep you evermore."

X. "I CAN GET SAVED WHEN I PLEASE."

It is possible to wait too long.

Prov. 1:22-28.

Luke 13:24, 25.

NOTE.—Will this be your song throughout eternity?

"I've sold out my soul for a feather,
No hope in the whirlwind's fierce blast,
I'm undone forever and ever,
I've missed, I have missed it at last.
The spirit insulted, resisted,
Ne'er refused till the die I had cast,
I said, 'Go thy way,' I insisted.
He went, I have missed it at last."

XI. CONCLUSION.

To those who have heard the gospel call, there is no excuse for sin. John 15:22.

"Some day when God's sweet Spirit,
So loving and so true,
Has taken flight forever,
And calls no more for you,
You'll see your sin and folly,
And moan in your despair;
But heaven ne'er will open,
Nor answer give your prayer.

"Some day when God's fierce anger
Falls on this world of sin,
You'll knock as did the virgins,
But can not enter in.
Ah then, with bitter weeping,
From those fair gates of light,
You'll go with other doomed ones,
Down to an awful night.

"Some day, yes, when forever
The mercy door is closed,
And your lost soul must suffer
Amid eternal woes,
In bitter grief and anguish
You'll think upon the day,
When trifling with God's mercy,
You careless said, 'Some day.' "

The True Israel of God.

BY D. O. TEASLEY.

"And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be unto them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God."

Gal 6:16.

I. WHAT CONSTITUTED AN ISRAELITE UNDER THE OLD COVENANT?

1. All the offspring of Jacob were called "Israel," or all who were born in the commonwealth of Israel. "Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel."

Gen. 32:28.

"And God said unto him, [Jacob] ... thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name. ... A nation and a company of nations shall be of thee." Gen. 35:10, 11.

2. Every Israelite was to be circumcised.

"Every man child among you shall be circumcised."

Gen. 17:10.

"And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed." Gen. 17:12.

II. THE ISRAEL OF THE OLD COVENANT, WAS ONLY A TYPE OF THE TRUE ISRAEL OF GOD.

1. As natural birth admitted the ancient Jew to the commonwealth of Israel, so spiritual birth admits the true Israel of God to the commonwealth of grace.

"Except a man be born again he can not see the kingdom of God." John 3:3.

"Whosoever believeth [with the heart] that Jesus is the Christ is born of God."

1 John 5:1.

"For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

Gal. 3:26.

2. As the ancient Israelites were circumcised in the flesh, so the true Israel are circumcised in the inner man—heart.

"For he is not a [true] Jew, [Israelite], which is one outwardly [by natural birth]; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." Rom. 2:28, 29.

"In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ."

Col. 2:11.

III. GOD NO LONGER FAVORS ONE NATION ABOVE ANOTHER, BUT

TO ALL IN EVERY NATION WHO LOVE AND FEAR HIM HE SHOWS FAVOR.

“Then Peter opened his mouth and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.”

Acts 10:34.

“Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all and in all.”

Col. 3:11.

IV. THE PEOPLE OF GOD UNDER THE NEW COVENANT ARE THE TRUE ISRAEL OF GOD.

“And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.”

Gal. 3:29.

“For ye are all the children [Israel] of God, by faith in Christ Jesus.”

Gal. 3:26.

Israel signifies

1. A prince (king) with God.

“And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father.”

Rev. 1:6.

“And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.”

Rev. 5:10.

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal [kingly or princely] priesthood.”

1 Pet. 2:9.

2. Prevailing with God, or overcoming with God.

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.”

1 John 5:4.

“To him that overcometh [prevaileth] will I give to eat of the hidden manna.”

Rev. 2:17.

V. REFERRING TO THE TRUE ISRAEL OF GOD, PAUL SAYS, “ALL IS- RAEL SHALL BE SAVED.”

“And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.”

Rom. 11:26.

VI. CONCLUSION.

The children of God in the gospel dispensation are born into the family of God, are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands; they are those who in all nations are favored with salvation. They are “kings [princes] and priests” unto God, and they prevail with him. Therefore, in every sense, the people of God in this, the dispensation of grace, are the true Israel of God.

“And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be unto them, and mercy, and upon the [true] Israel of God.”

Gal. 6:16.

Amen!

Five Universal Kingdoms.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT IS SAID IN DANIEL 2 OF A DREAM NEBUCHADNEZZAR KING OF BABYLON DREAMED?

“Thou, O king, sawest, and behold, a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was terrible. This image’s head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and break them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.” Dan. 2:31-35.

II. WHAT DID THIS IMAGE REPRESENT?

Five universal kingdoms.

Dan. 2:36-45.

III. WHAT IS THE REAL BURDEN OF THE PROPHECY?

To reveal the exact time when the kingdom of God should be established, also the nature of its establishment.

Ver. 44, 45.

IV. WHEN WAS THIS WONDERFUL PROPHECY RELATING TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD TO BE FULFILLED?

“But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days.” Ver. 28.

V. WHERE SHALL WE LOCATE THE LAST DAYS?

“But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; and it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh.”

Acts 2:16, 17.

“God who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son.”

Heb. 1:1, 2.

From these texts we learn that this gospel age ushered in the "last days"; hence, this age is the time when this prophecy was to reach its fulfillment.

VI. WHAT DID THE HEAD OF GOLD REPRESENT?

"Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold."

Ver. 37, 38.

By this we are to understand that the head of gold represented the Babylon empire. It arose about 2,300 years before Christ. During the reign of Nebuchadnezzar it was the golden kingdom of a golden age. Babylon its metropolis, was situated in the garden of the east. It was laid out in a perfect square sixty miles in circumference. It was surrounded by a wall 350 feet high, and 87 feet thick. The world was prostrate at her feet. She was "The glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency."

VII. WHAT WAS TO BE THE NATURE OF THE NEXT KINGDOM AFTER BABYLON, REPRESENTED BY THE "BREAST AND ARMS OF SILVER?"

"After thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee."

Ver. 39.

VIII. WHAT KINGDOM WAS THIS?

"PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain. And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old."

Dan. 5: 28, 30, 31.

This occurred 538 B. C.

IX. WHAT DID THE BELLY AND THIGHS OF BRASS REPRESENT?

"And another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth."

Ver. 39.

This was the Grecian kingdom, which conquered the Medes and Persians 286 B. C. and fell 146 B. C.

X. WHAT ABOUT THE LEGS OF IRON, AND FEET PART OF IRON AND CLAY?

"And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay." Dan. 2:40-43.

You will observe that but four kingdoms are mentioned in the above delineation. The legs of iron, feet part of iron and clay Daniel interprets to be the "fourth kingdom," both in its strong and divided condition. This was the Roman empire, the fourth universal kingdom.

XI. WHAT DID THE STONE CUT OUT WITHOUT HANDS REPRESENT?

"And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure."

Dan. 2:44, 45.

Here then we have five universal kingdoms. Babylon, Medo-Persian, Grecian, Roman, and the everlasting kingdom of God. Rome was the last universal kingdom among earthly kingdoms. She was in the height of her glory when Christ appeared and established the everlasting kingdom of God. "In the days of these kings [kingdoms]," viz., during the reign of these four kingdoms (Verses 37-43), the God of heaven was to set up his everlasting kingdom.

XII. WHAT WAS THE RESULT OF CHRIST'S KINGDOM BEING ESTABLISHED?

"Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth."

Ver. 34, 35.

All these heathen kingdoms of darkness went crashing to pieces before the rapid march of Christianity. Even Rome was finally broken to pieces and fell about 476 A. D. But the kingdom of God established by Jesus Christ has marched onward and spread over all the earth and is the only universal kingdom the world will ever see. It was but a little stone at the beginning, and met with bitter persecution at the hands of Rome, but it rolled onward, until at the time Rome reached the "feet," where she became partly divided, Christianity had become such a great mountain that she struck Rome such an awful blow that it flew to pieces and fell.

XIII. HOW DO MANY FALSE TEACHERS INTERPRET THIS PROPHECY?

They claim it was during the time of the "toes" of the image that the stone was cut out.

XIV. IS THAT CORRECT?

By no means. The stone had been "cut out" previous to this, and had become so great that it dealt its crushing blow on the feet of the image before it reached the toes.

XV. WHAT ELSE DO THEY CLAIM?

They teach that the ten kingdoms of Rome are now in existence, and some time soon the kingdom of God will be established.

XVI. WHY IS THEIR EXEGESIS WRONG AND FALSE? GIVE SOME REASONS, IF ANY.

1. The ten kingdoms of Rome are not in existence to-day. Three fell under popery.

Dan. 7:8.

The remains or fragments of those kingdoms are divided into twenty or more divisions.

2. To say that the ten original kingdoms of Rome are now in existence would make the toes of that image far out of proportion, even longer than the whole man. Let us measure the image. The Babylonian kingdom comes into the field of prophecy 606 B. C. The fourth or Roman kingdom fell A. D. 476. So the whole image from the crown of his head to the toes of his feet measures just 1,082 years. Now let us measure the toes of that man to suit the Millennialists. The last of the ten original kingdoms of Rome was formed about A. D. 480. We will measure to the present year 1902. See the length of those ten toes. 1,422 years. That would make the toes of that image 340 years longer than the whole man. According to Millennialism, Nebuchadnezzar saw a man with very great big toes, each toe larger than the whole man. Oh, how ridiculous their position!

3. There were but four kingdoms brought to view in the prophecy and interpretation: Babylon, Medo-Persian, Grecian, and Roman. It was during their reign Christ came and established his everlasting kingdom.

4. All New Testament scriptures declare that Christ came and fulfilled the prophecy in his first advent.

“Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.”

Mark 1: 14, 15.

“And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.” Luke 1: 31-33.

“From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” Mat. 4: 17.

“The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.”

Luke 16: 16.

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

Phil. 2: 9-11.

“Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church.” Eph. 1: 20-22.

XVII. CONCLUSION.

“Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.”

Col. 1:13.

Daniel's Great Vision.

Dan. 7:1-27.

LESSON I.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT IS SAID OF DANIEL HAVING A DREAM OR VISION?

“In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matter.”

Ver. 1.

II. WHAT DID DANIEL SEE?

“And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured an brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.”

Ver. 3-7.

III. WHAT DID THESE FOUR BEASTS REPRESENT?

“These great beasts, which are four, are four kings [kingdoms], which shall arise out of the earth.”

Ver. 17.

IV. WHAT KINGDOMS ARE HERE BROUGHT TO VIEW?

Babylon, Medo-Persian, Grecian, and Roman.

V. WHAT IS SAID OF THE FIRST?

“The first beast was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.”

Ver. 4.

This was Babylon, the Chaldean kingdom. At first the lion had eagle's wings. This denotes the rapidity with which Babylon extended its conquests under Nebuchadnezzar. But soon its wings were plucked. It no longer flew like an eagle on its prey. And a man's heart was given it: weak, timorous and faint. This was the case with this nation during the closing years of its history. It became enfeebled and effeminate through wealth and luxury.

VI. WHAT IS SAID OF THE SECOND?

"And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh." Ver. 5.

This was the Medo-Persian kingdom. It raised itself on one side. This kingdom was composed of two nationalities. The Persian division of the kingdom, which came up last, attained the higher eminence, and became the controlling influence in the nation. This, no doubt, is what was meant. The three ribs in its mouth may possibly signify the three provinces, Babylon, Lydia, and Egypt, which were especially ground down and oppressed by this power. The overthrow of these provinces gave a stimulus to the Medes and Persians to undertake more conquests, hence, in this sense they said, "Arise, and devour much flesh."

VII. WHAT IS SAID OF THE THIRD?

"After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it." Ver. 6.

This was the Grecian kingdom. The four wings on its back like the two wings of the eagle (Ver. 4) may signify rapidity of conquest. As one writer states it, "The conquests of Grecia under Alexander have no parallel in historic annals for suddenness and rapidity." "The beast had four heads." "The Grecian empire maintained its unity but little longer than the life of Alexander. Within fifteen years after his brilliant career ended, the kingdom was divided among his four leading generals. Cassandar had Macedonia and Greece in the west; Lysimachus had Thrace and the parts of Asia on the Hellespont and Bosphorus in the north; Ptolemy received Egypt, Lydia, Arabia, Palestine, and Coele-Syria in the south; and Seleucus had Syria and all the rest of Alexander's dominions in the east."

VIII. WHAT IS SAID OF THE FOURTH?

“After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly: and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and break in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.”

Ver. 7.

This was the Roman kingdom. Rome fulfilled the above description to the letter. She was the fourth universal kingdom which reigned on earth. She was tyrannical in the extreme. She devoured with her great iron teeth, and ground the nations into the very dust beneath her brazen feet.

She had “ten horns.”

IX. WHAT IS MEANT BY THE TEN HORNS OF THIS BEAST?

“And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise.”

Ver. 24.

These are the ten minor kingdoms which grew out of the Roman empire. They were the Huns, Ostrogoths, Visigoths, Franks, Vandals, Suevi, Burgundians, Heruli, Anglo-Saxons, and Lombards.

X. AFTER SPEAKING OF THE FOUR BEASTS REPRESENTING FOUR

KINGDOMS, WHAT DOES DANIEL SAY IN CLOSE CONNECTION?

“These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.”

Ver. 17, 18.

You will observe that the time when the saints were to take the kingdom is in close connection with these four universal empires. This was fulfilled by the coming of Christ during the reign of Rome, when he set up his everlasting kingdom, and the saints received that kingdom which can not be removed. (Heb. 12:28.) “And there was given him [Christ] dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.”

Ver. 14.

XI. WHEN WAS THIS LAST TEXT TO REACH ITS FULFILLMENT?

“Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: and hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church." Eph. 1: 20-22.

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON II.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WE HAVE SEEN IN LESSON ONE THAT THE FOURTH KINGDOM, ROME, BECAME DIVIDED INTO TEN MINOR KINGDOMS, REPRESENTED BY THE TEN HORNS OF THE FOURTH BEAST. WHAT NEXT DID DANIEL SEE?

"I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things."

Ver. 8.

II. WHAT IS FURTHER SAID OF THIS LITTLE HORN?

"Whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them." Ver. 20, 21.

III. HOW DID THE ANGEL INTERPRET THIS PART OF THE VISION?

"And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time."

Ver. 24, 25.

IV. WHAT DID THE LITTLE HORN REPRESENT?

Popery. The above vision and interpretation has been fulfilled in every deed. Every specification has reached its fulfillment during the reign of the papacy. Papal Rome really grew out of old heathen Rome. She has changed times and laws. Among other things she threw away the apostolic Bible, the LXX, and substituted in its stead the corrupted Hebrew version. Speaking words against the most High has been fulfilled in the great assumptions of the pope. Truly she made war against the saints and did wear them out, until it is estimated that over fifty millions suffered martyrdom at her bloody hands.

The three kings subdued by popery were Heruli, Vandals, and Ostrogoths.

V. HOW LONG WAS THIS POWER TO WEAR OUT THE SAINTS AND RULE OVER THEM?

"I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom." Ver. 21, 22.

"And they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end." Ver. 25, 26.

The first of these texts was the vision, the second was the interpretation of it. In the vision this power wore out the saints, and prevailed against them, "until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High."

In the interpretation this time is limited to "a time and times and the dividing of time." Three and one-half times. A time signifies a year. Dan 4: 25, 32. Three and one-half years equal forty-two months. Counting thirty days to the month we have 1,260 days. 1,260 days equal 1,260 years. (Num. 14: 34; Ezek. 4: 6.) The rise of popery is clearly traced to about 270 A. D. Counting forward 1,260 years brings us to 1530, when the power of the papacy was rapidly being broken by the light of the great reformation. So in some sense the judgment of God was at that time executed which dethroned this power—popery—and, thank God, we have now reached the time when the saints possess the kingdom as in days of yore, and righteous judgment is being dealt against all beast power and false religion.

VI. BUT WAS NOT THE JUDGMENT THAT WAS TO CONSUME THIS POWER TO TAKE PLACE AT CHRIST'S COMING, AT THE END OF TIME?

"But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it unto the end."

Ver. 26.

From this we learn that the judgment here spoken of was to take place before the end, and it was to continue to consume and destroy this power even unto the end. That judgment began in the 16th century reformation, and has continued more or less till the present time. We have now reached the time when the saints possess the kingdom and judgment is going forth in the earth against all false religion.

VII. HOW FAR WAS DANIEL PERMITTED TO LOOK IN HIS VISION?

“I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flames.”
Ver. 11.

It seems that Daniel was permitted to look clear down to the end of time, and saw a vision of the final judgment. He was shown a preliminary judgment that would consume the little horn or apostate church even unto the end. But he also beheld till the “Son of man came with the clouds of heaven,” and the beast was “destroyed, and given to the burning flame.” This certainly refers to the final judgment, when this beast power will be cast into hell.

VIII. GIVE A SIMILAR SCRIPTURE TEXT THAT SPEAKS OF THE SAME THING?

“And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.”

2 Thes. 2: 8.

The same thing is here spoken of: first, a consumption; second, its destruction by the brightness of his coming.

“And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet. . . . These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.”
Rev. 19: 20.

All these texts, which speak of the destruction of the beast in the burning flames, refer to the great day of judgment, when the wicked will be cast into hell.

IX. WHAT WILL BE THE RESULT OF THIS?

The devil and all sinners and apostates will then be cast into outer darkness, will be destroyed out of God’s universe, banished to the dark regions of hell forever, never to stain God’s kingdom or domain any more by sin. The earth will be burned up. The righteous will enter heaven, and all God’s domain will be given to them. “The kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven; viz., the whole dominion or universe of God shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.”

Dan. 7: 27.

"The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of the Father."

Mat. 13: 41-43.

This latter text teaches the same truth as that in Daniel. God's angels gather out of his kingdom—dominion—or universe, all that offend and do iniquity, and they are cast into a furnace of fire, the burning flame, hell, then the whole dominion of God is given to the saints, and they shall shine as the sun in the kingdom of the Father.

X. HOW LONG WILL THE PEOPLE OF GOD REIGN WITH THE FATHER?

"And they shall reign forever and ever." Rev. 22: 5.

Daniel's Great Vision.

Dan. 8: 1-25.

LESSON III.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT DOES DANIEL SAY CONCERNING ANOTHER VISION?

"In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first."

Ver. 1.

II. WHAT DID DANIEL SEE?

"Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great."

Ver. 3, 4.

III. WHAT DID THIS RAM WITH TWO HORNS REPRESENT?

"The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia."

Ver. 20.

IV. HOW WERE THE SPECIFICATIONS FULFILLED IN THE MEDO-PERSIAN KINGDOM?

The two horns represented the two nationalities of which the empire consisted. "The higher came up last." This was the Persian element, which at first was only an ally to the Medes, but afterwards became the leading division of the empire. The different directions, which the ram was seen pushing, signify the different directions in which the Medes and Persians carried their conquests. This ram "became great." This was fulfilled in the Medo-Persian empire extending over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces. A large percentage of the then known world.

V. WHAT NEXT DID DANIEL SEE?

"And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand."

Ver. 5-7.

VI. WHAT DID THIS HE GOAT REPRESENT?

"And the rough goat is the king [kingdom] of Grecia."

Ver. 21.

VII. WHAT DID THE GREAT HORN BETWEEN HIS EYES REPRESENT?

"And the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king."

Ver. 21.

This was Alexander the Great.

VIII. WHAT NEXT DID DANIEL SEE?

"Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven."

Ver. 8.

IX. WHAT DID THIS SIGNIFY?

"Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nations, but not in his power."

Ver. 22.

Greece reached her highest glory as a unit under Alexander the Great, who, no doubt, was as famous a general as the world has ever seen. But following his death the kingdom seemed to go into fragments, but immediately consolidated into four divisions. These were the four horns which came up in place of the other. But never did any of them attain the strength of the original kingdom. These four divisions might be summed up, and named, Macedonia, Thrace, Syria, and Egypt.

X. WHAT NEXT WAS INTRODUCED IN THE VISION?

“And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.”

Ver. 9-12.

XI. HOW WAS THIS LAST PART INTERPRETED?

“And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.”

Ver. 23-25.

XII. WHAT POWER IS HERE BROUGHT TO VIEW?

Some expositors suppose this refers to Imperial Rome, both under the Cæsars, and under the popes, while others apply it solely to the papacy; and still others apply it to Antiochus Epiphanes, who was the eighth king of twenty-six, that ruled over the Syrian portion of Alexander's empire. We have already seen that the four horns of the goat kingdom, represent the four divisions of Greece; viz., Macedonia, Thrace, Syria, and Egypt. Out of one of these came forth the little horn.

Ver. 8, 9.

This can not refer to popery, for it never came out of Greece. The question now before us is, Did Imperial Rome come out of Greece? There is no such historical proof. Even the family of Augustus, who was the first emperor of Rome, did not descend from the Greeks. Since the imperial head of the Roman empire can not be traced to Greece, it can not directly fulfill the prophecy. There remains but one point to consider, and that is Antiochus. He was the very "king of fierce countenance and understanding dark sentences," which "came out of one of them,"—out of one of the four divisions of the Grecian empire—out of Syria. A careful reading of the first six chapters of 1 Maccabees will show that Antiochus fulfilled this prophecy of Daniel to the letter. He defiled the sanctuary, took away the daily sacrifice, offered swine's flesh upon the altar, trampled the host under foot, and placed the abomination of desolation. Therefore, without doubt, this prophecy was directly fulfilled in him. However it is clear to our mind, that while this prophecy of the little horn had a direct fulfillment in Antiochus Epiphanes, it has also a fulfillment in Imperial Rome, both under the Cæsars in heathen garb, and under priestcraft in Christian garb. Antiochus fulfilled the prophecy, and was the very king which came out of one of the divisions of Greece. But as the Old Testament is full of types and shadows, the work of Antiochus was certainly a type of the work of popery. And as many Old Testament prophecies had both a direct and indirect fulfillment, this prophecy in Dan. 8: 10-14 had a direct fulfillment in Antiochus, and was indirectly fulfilled under the Cæsars at the destruction of Jerusalem, and under priestcraft during the apostasy of the church.

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON IV.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The first covenant sanctuary.

I. WHAT DID GOD COMMAND MOSES?

"And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. According to all that I show thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it."

Ex. 25: 8, 9.

II. WHAT DOES PAUL SAY IN REFERENCE TO THIS SANCTUARY?

"The first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. For there was a tabernacle made."

Heb. 9: 1, 2.

III. WHAT DO WE LEARN FROM THE FOREGOING SCRIPTURES?

We learn that God's dwelling place upon earth is his sanctuary, and that the tabernacle pitched by Moses in the wilderness was God's sanctuary at that time.

IV. WHAT PROMISE DID GOD MAKE TO ISRAEL?

"And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. . . . And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God." Ex. 29:43-45.

V. GIVE A DESCRIPTION OF IT.

1. There was an outer court, one hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, and five cubits high.

Ex. 27:9-18.

- (a) Into this court the children of Israel in general seemed to have access.

Lev. 6:16, 18.

2 Chr. 23:5.

- (b) Into it came the Israelite with his sacrifice for sin offering.

Psa. 96:8.

2. The tabernacle proper was divided by a vail into two rooms. The first room was called the holy place, the second, the most holy place.

Ex. 26:31-33.

3. Outside the door of the tabernacle, within the court, was

- (a) A brazen altar of burnt offerings.

Ex. 27:1-8.

- (b) A laver, where Aaron and his sons washed their hands and feet before entering the tabernacle of the congregation.

Ex. 30:17-21.

4. The furniture of the holy place consisted of

- (a) A table on which was kept shewbread.

Ex. 25:23-30.

1 Chr. 9:32.

- (b) A golden candlestick.

Ex. 25:31-37.

- (c) A golden altar.

Ex. 30:1-7.

5. The furniture of the most holy place consisted of

- (a) The ark of the covenant.

Ex. 25:10, 11, 16.

- (b) The mercy seat.

Ex. 25:17, 21.

- (c) The cherubims of glory.

Ex. 25:8-20, 22.

VI. WHAT DESIRE DID DAVID EXPRESS?

"And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the Lord had given him rest round about from all his enemies; that the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains."

2 Sam. 7:1, 2.

VII. WHAT PROMISE DID GOD MAKE TO DAVID?

"And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build an house for my name."

2 Sam. 7:12, 13.

This last scripture, while reaching in its prophecy to Christ, was directly fulfilled in Solomon, who built the temple or house of God at Jerusalem. That was God's sanctuary.

VIII. WHILE DAVID WAS NOT PERMITTED TO BUILD THE TEMPLE, WHAT PART DID HE TAKE IN IT?

1. He took out the material for it. 1 Chr. 22:1-5.

2. He received the pattern of it from God.

1 Chr. 28:19.

3. He encouraged Solomon to build it.

1 Chr. 28:1-21.

IX. WHAT IS SAID OF THE BUILDING OF THIS HOUSE?

An account of it will be found in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th chapters of 2 Chronicles.

X. WHAT TOOK PLACE WHEN SOLOMON HAD DEDICATED THE TEMPLE TO THE LORD?

"Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house. And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshiped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth forever." 2 Chr. 7:1-3.

XI. WHAT WAS THIS WORLDLY SANCTUARY A TYPE OF?

"A greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands." Heb. 9:11.

"The sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man."

Heb. 8:2.

"The house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth."

1 Tim. 3:15.

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON V.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The destruction of Solomon's temple, and its rebuilding under Zerubbabel.

I. HOW LONG DID THE PRISTINE GLORY AND SPLENDOR OF SOLOMON'S TEMPLE LAST?

It lasted but thirty-three years, when it was plundered by Shishak, king of Egypt.

1 Kin. 14: 25, 26.

2 Chr. 12: 9.

II. HOW DID IT COME THAT THE HEATHEN COULD THUS DEFILE THE HOUSE OF GOD?

As long as Israel obeyed the Lord, and walked according to his commandments, he was pleased to dwell among them: and as long as he dwelt in their midst their enemies could not prevail against them. It would have been utterly impossible for the heathen to have entered the temple to defile or destroy it as long as the presence of the Lord filled it. But the Jews rebelled against God, and went into idolatry, until God had to forsake them. When he moved out of his house, the heathen could destroy it. 1 Kin. 14: 23-26.

III. WHAT TOOK PLACE FROM THIS ON?

The Jews were subject to more or less wars and pillages from the heathen, until at length they became so corrupt that they themselves polluted the house of God.

2 Chr. 36: 14-16.

IV. WHAT BEFELL THEM ON ACCOUNT OF THIS?

Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, marched his legions to Jerusalem, hemmed in the city, destroyed the house of God, broke down the wall, and left the city a heap of ruins. He carried all the vessels of the temple to Babylon and put them in the heathen temple. All the children of Israel who had escaped the sword were carried captive into Babylon.

2 Kin. 25: 1-11.

2 Chr. 36: 1-20.

V. WHAT DOES HISTORY STATE OF THE CHALDEAN KINGDOM?

It was the ruling kingdom of the world. Babylon, its metropolis, was the greatest city in the world. Surrounded by a wall three hundred and fifty feet high and eighty-seven feet thick, with its hanging gardens, its luxuriant pleasure grounds, its magnificent buildings, the river Euphrates flowing through its midst, was a wonderment to all nations. Such was "The glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency," when Daniel and the Hebrew captives entered its impregnable walls, to serve in its gorgeous palaces. There the children of Israel, oppressed more than cheered by the glory and prosperity of the land of their captivity, hung their harps on the willows of the sparkling Euphrates, and wept when they remembered Zion.

VI. HOW WAS THEIR DISTRESS DESCRIBED BY INSPIRATION?

“By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion. We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof. For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. How shall we sing the Lord’s song in a strange land? If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy. Remember, O Lord, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof. O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us. Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.” Psa. 137: 1-9.

VII. WHEN DID THE JEWISH CAPTIVITY BEGIN?

It began B. C. 606.

VIII. HOW LONG DID IT LAST?

Just seventy years.

Jer. 25: 11, 12.

IX. WHAT TOOK PLACE DURING THIS CAPTIVITY?

1. Daniel received his wonderful visions.

Dan. 7; 8; 11; 12.

2. Daniel interprets Nebuchadnezzar’s dream of the history of earthly kingdoms.

Dan. 2.

3. Daniel was delivered from the den of lions.

Dan. 6.

4. The three Hebrew children were delivered from the fiery furnace.

Dan. 3.

5. The Medes and Persians conquered the Babylonians and took the kingdom.

Dan. 5: 30, 31.

X. WHAT YEAR DID THE CAPTIVITY END?

It ended 536 B. C.

XI. WHEN DID THE FIRST DECREE GO FORTH TO REBUILD THE TEMPLE?

1. In 536 B. C., Cyrus, king of Persia, made a proclamation for the Jews to return and rebuild their temple.

Ezra 1:1-11.

2. In that year 42,360 Jews returned to Jerusalem to rebuild the house of God.

Ezra 2:1-70.

Ezra 3:1-7.

Neh. 7:66.

3. In the second year after they came to Jerusalem Zerubbabel laid the foundation of the temple.

Ezra 3:8-13.

4. The Gentile nations greatly hindered the work, and finally they were compelled to cease.

Ezra 4:1-24.

5. In 520 B. C. the prophets Haggai and Zechariah "prophesied unto the Jews that were in Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them."

Ezra 5:1.

Hag. 1:1-15.

Zech. 1:1-17.

"Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them. But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter. Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands. And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up." Ezra 5:2, 5, 8, 11.

Here they built the house of God under inspiration from Heaven. As we shall hereafter show, this was a beautiful type of the present great work of rebuilding the spiritual temple of God in the New Jerusalem.

XII. WHEN DID THE SECOND DECREE GO FORTH?

1. In 519 B. C. King Darius made a decree for the prosecution of the work of finishing the house of God.

Ezra 6:1-12.

2. Under this decree, the temple was finished.

Ezra 6:13-22,

3. This temple in breadth and height was double that of Solomon's.
4. Its glory exceeded the former temple.

Hag. 2: 9.

XIII. WHEN DID THE THIRD DECREE GO FORTH, AND WHAT WAS ITS OBJECT?

1. In 457 Artaxerxes king of Persia made a decree to Ezra, a mighty priest of the law. Ezra 7: 1-13.
2. The object of this decree was to beautify the house of the Lord, and an unlimited amount of treasure was granted for this purpose. He was granted the privilege to do whatever else seemed good unto him. It empowered him to ordain laws, set magistrates and judges, and execute punishment even unto death; in fact, it was a command to restore the Jewish state, civil and ecclesiastical, according to their law and ancient customs. Ezra was authorized to restore and rebuild Jerusalem according to the original copy in the Chaldaic or Eastern Aramaic. Ezra 7: 11-28.
Ezra 9: 9.

3. Ezra wrought a great moral change in Jerusalem.
Ezra 8; 9; 10.

XIV. WHEN WAS THE FOURTH DECREE GIVEN?

1. In 445 Nehemiah went up to Jerusalem by permission of king Artaxerxes.
Neh. 2: 1-20.
2. His work was rebuilding the walls, etc.
Neh. 3; 4; 5; 6.
3. Nehemiah reigned over Jerusalem about twelve years.
Neh. 2: 6.
Neh. 5: 14.

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON VI.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The defiling of Zerubbabel's temple by the little horn of Dan. 8.

I. AMONG OTHER THINGS, WHAT DID DANIEL SEE IN HIS VISION?

"Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered."

Dan. 8: 8-12.

II. WHAT DOES THIS LITTLE HORN SIGNIFY?

As observed in a previous lesson, it refers to Antiochus Epiphanes. This little horn came out of one of the four divisions of the Grecian empire.

Ver. 8, 9, 21-23.

Neither Imperial Rome nor popery came out of Greece; hence, they can not be referred to in this prophecy. Antiochus, the Syrian king, "a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences" (ver. 23), fulfilled the prophecy to the letter.

III. CAN IT BE PROVED THAT ANTIOCHUS FULFILLED EVERY SPECIFICATION IN THE PROPHECY?

1. "The little horn waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land." Ver. 9. This pleasant land refers to Palestine.

"And it happened, after that Alexander son of Philip, the Macedonian, who came out of the land of Chettiim, had smitten Darius king of the Persians and Medes, that he reigned in his stead, the first over Greece, and made many wars, and won many strongholds, and slew the kings of the earth, and went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of many nations, insomuch that the earth was quiet before him; whereupon he was exalted, and his heart was lifted up. And he gathered a mighty strong host, and ruled over countries, and nations, and kings, who became tributaries unto him.

"And after these things he fell sick, and perceived that he should die. Wherefore he called his servants, such as were honourable, and had been brought up with him from his youth, and parted his kingdom among them, while he was yet alive. So Alexander reigned twelve years, and then died. And his servants bare rule every one in his place. And after his death they all put crowns upon themselves; so did their sons after them many years: and evils were multiplied in the earth.

“And there came out of them a wicked root, Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, son of Antiochus the king, who had been a hostage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundred and thirty and seventh year of the kingdom of the Greeks.

“In those days went there out of Israel wicked men, who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen that are round about us: for since we departed from them we have had much sorrow. So this device pleased them well.

“Then certain of the people were so forward herein, that they went to the king, who gave them licence to do after the ordinances of the heathen: whereupon they built a place of exercise at Jerusalem according to the customs of the heathen: and made themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the heathen, and were sold to do mischief.

“Now when the kingdom was established before Antiochus, he thought to reign over Egypt, that he might have the dominion of two realms. Wherefore he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great navy, and made war against Ptolemee king of Egypt: but Ptolemee was afraid of him, and fled; and many were wounded to death. Thus they got the strong cities in the land of Egypt, and he took the spoils thereof.

“And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he returned again in the hundred forty and third year, and went up against Israel and Jerusalem with a great multitude.” 1 Mac. 1:1-20.

It will be seen from the above that “there came out of them [one of the four divisions of Greece] a wicked root, Antiochus.” What saith the prophecy? “Out one of them came forth a little horn, a king of fierce countenance.” Ver. 9, 23. These are the same. Says, the prophecy, “The little horn waxed great toward the south.” So did Antiochus.

“Now when the kingdom was established before Antiochus, he thought to reign over Egypt, that he might have the dominion of two realms. Wherefore he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great navy, and made war against Ptolemee king of Egypt: but Ptolemee was afraid of him, and fled; and many were wounded to death. Thus they got the strong cities in the land of Egypt, and he took the spoils thereof.

1 Mac. 1:16-19.

The little horn was to enter the pleasant land. "And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he returned again in the hundred forty and third year, and went up against Israel and Jerusalem with a great multitude."

1 Mac. 1:20.

2. "And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand."

Dan. 8:25.

The same was fulfilled in Antiochus.

"And after two years fully expired, the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Juda, who came unto Jerusalem with a great multitude, and spake peaceable words unto them, but all was deceit: for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel."

1 Mac. 1:29, 30.

3. Thus saith the prophecy.

"And it waxed great even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered."

NOTE.—A careful reading of the first chapter of 1 Maccabees, together with the complete history of Antiochus as given in Encyclopedias, will show that all the above was fulfilled to the letter in his reign. He marched his hosts to Jerusalem, set the city on fire, laid waste the sanctuary, and cast it down, took away the daily sacrifice, placed the abomination of desolation, and trampled the host under foot. For the benefit of the reader we will here insert the full account as recorded in the first chapter of 1 Maccabees.

"And entered proudly into the sanctuary, and took away the golden altar, and the candlestick of light, and all the vessels thereof, and the table of the shewbread, and the pouring vessels, and the vials, and the censers of gold, and the veil, and the crowns, and the golden ornaments that were before the temple, all which he pulled of. He took also the silver and the gold, and the precious vessels: also he took the hidden treasures which he found.

“And when he had taken all away, he went into his own land, having made a great massacre, and spoken very proudly. Therefore there was great mourning in Israel, in every place where they were; so that the princes and elders mourned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of women was changed. Every bridegroom took up lamentation, and she that sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness. The land also was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

“And after two years fully expired, the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Juda, who came unto Jerusalem with a great multitude, and spake peaceable words unto them: but all was deceit, for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel. And when he had taken the spoils of the city, he set it on fire, and pulled down the houses and walls thereof on every side. But the women and children took they captive, and possessed the cattle.

“Then built they the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with mighty towers, and made it a stronghold for them. And they put therein a sinful nation, wicked men, and fortified themselves therein. They stored it also with armour and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and so they became a sore snare: for it was a place to lie in wait against the sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel.

“Thus they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled it: insomuch that the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them: whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her; and her own children left her. Her sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, her feasts were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproach, her honour into contempt. As had been her glory, so was her dishonour increased, and her excellency was turned into mourning.

“Moreover king Antiochus

wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, and every one should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king. Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath.

“For the king had sent letters by messengers unto Jerusalem and the cities of Juda, that they should follow the strange laws of the land, and forbid burnt offerings, and sacrifice, and drink offerings, in the temple, and that they should profane the sabbaths and festival days: and polluted the sanctuary and holy people: set up altars, and groves, and chapels of idols, and sacrifice swine’s flesh, and unclean beasts: that they should also leave their children uncircumcised, and make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation: to the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances. And whosoever would not do according to the commandment of the king, he said, he should die. In the selfsame manner wrote he to his whole kingdom, and appointed overseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Juda to sacrifice, city by city.

“Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law; and so they committed evils in the land; and drove the Israelites into secret places, even wheresoever they could flee for succor.

“Now the fifteenth day of the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and fifth year, they set up the abomination of desolation upon the altar, and builded idol altars throughout the cities of Juda on every side; and burnt incense at the doors of their houses, and in the streets. And when they had rent in pieces the books of the law which they found, they burnt them with fire. And wheresoever was found with any the book of the testament, or if any consented to the law, the king’s commandment was, that they should put him to death. Thus did they by their authority unto the Israelites every month, to as many as were found in the cities. Now the five and twentieth day of the month they did sacrifice upon the idol altar, which was upon the altar of God.

“At which time according to the commandment they put to death certain women, that had caused their children to be circumcised. And they hanged their infants about their necks, and rifled their houses, and slew them that had circumcised them. Howbeit many in Israel were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves not to eat any unclean thing. Wherefore they chose rather to die, that they might not be defiled with meats, and that they might not profane the holy covenant: so then they died. And there was very great wrath upon Israel."

Surely Antiochus fulfilled the prophecy. He compelled the discontinuance of the daily sacrifice, offered swine's flesh upon the altar, and completely suspended the worship of Jehovah. This work of Antiochus in defiling the sanctuary, setting up the abomination of desolation, trampling the host under foot, etc., is a type of the great apostasy of the church during the Christian era, as we shall hereafter show.

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON VII.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The cleansing of the sanctuary and the 2,300 days of Daniel.

I. HAVING IN THE PREVIOUS LESSON OBSERVED HOW THE LITTLE HORN DEFILED THE SANCTUARY, WE WILL NOW CONSIDER ITS CLEANSING. WHAT IS SAID IN THE PROPHECY OF THIS?

"Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days: then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." Dan. 8:13, 14.

1. We learn from this scripture that the same sanctuary Antiochus defiled is the one to be cleansed, and not an imaginary one in heaven, as Advent fiction teaches.

2. We also learn that the 2,300 days measure the length of time the sanctuary and host were to be trodden under foot, and especially the length of the continuation of that little horn.

II. BUT DOES NOT THE 2,300 DAYS MEASURE FROM A CERTAIN TYPE TO ITS ANTITYPE AS WE FORMERLY SUPPOSED?

Nothing of the kind is hinted at in the prophecy. A careful reading of Dan. 8 shows that this period measures the length of the continuation of the little horn, who defiled the sanctuary, trod down the host, and took away the daily sacrifice.

III. CAN NOT THESE 2,300 DAYS APPLY TO THE REIGN OF POPERY?

No; for the following reasons:

1. "There is no hint that the 2,300 days apply to anything else than the exact length of time the horn was to continue and the host and sanctuary should be trampled.
2. The 2,300 days must relate to the length of the triumph of the little horn that came from the four; viz, Antiochus Epiphanes.
3. Therefore it would not be proper to apply the 2,300 days to the triumph of Titus when he set up the abomination of desolation in Jerusalem.
4. For the same reason it could not be applied to the triumph of popery; because
 - (a) If the little horn was popery, then we must figure the time of its triumph from a date several hundred years before it arose.
 - (b) Figuring it from that standpoint we would have the reign of the little horn—popery—from 520 B. C. until 1880 A. D.
5. There was an evening and a morning connected with each of the 2,300 days, which makes it appear that they were natural days. See Dan. 8:14—margin, also LXX.

6. Popery may be considered an antitype of Antiochus' triumph, but in that case we could make no antitypical application of the 2,300 days, for we would have to figure the beginning of the antitype from 520 B. C., which was before the type arose."

IV. GIVE THE TRUE INTERPRETATION OF THIS PROPHECY, AND TIME.

1. The abomination of desolation was set up in Jerusalem by Antiochus, and the daily sacrifice taken away in the 145th year, and 15th day of the month Casleu of the Grecian empire. Casleu is the 9th month. See 1 Mac. 1:54; 4:52.

"And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days." Dan. 12:11.

Here we are to count 1,290 days from the setting up of the abomination of desolation, and taking away of the daily sacrifice. As seen above the abomination of desolation was set up in the 145th year, 9th month, and 15th day of the month. 1,290 days from this date brings us to the 149th year, 4th month, and 15th day. This is the year when Antiochus heard of the defeat of his army, was taken sick and died.

1 Mac. 6: 1-16.

The 1,290 days measure exactly from the setting up of the abomination of desolation in Jerusalem by Antiochus, to the 149th year, 4th month, and 15th day, when he heard of the defeat of his army by the armies of Israel, which caused him to take to his bed, sick, and to repent of all the evil he had done against Judea and Jerusalem.

1 Mac. 6: 1-13.

2. After this Antiochus was sick many days.

1 Mac. 6: 9.

“Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.”

Dan. 12: 12.

From the setting up of the abomination of desolation, 1,335 days bring us to the 30th day of the 5th month of the 149th year, which was the date of Antiochus' death (1 Mac. 6: 16), which marks the end of the little horn.

3. Measuring back from the 30th day of the 5th month of of the 149th year 2,300 days, we find their beginning on the 10th day of the 1st month of the 143d year. Which is the year specified as the time when Antiochus marched against Israel in 1 Mac. 1: 20.

V. SUMMING UP THE FOREGOING FACTS, WHAT HAVE WE?

The little horn—Antiochus—marched his hosts to Jerusalem in the 143d year of the Grecian empire, in the 1st month and 10th day.

1 Mac. 1: 20.

He then began to trample the host of Israel under foot. Counting from this date 2,300 days bring us to the 149th year, 5th month, and 30th day, when Antiochus died.

1 Mac. 6: 16.

This marks the end of the little horn of Dan. 8. Antiochus set up the abomination of desolation in Jerusalem in the 145th year, 9th month, and 15th day.

1 Mac. 1: 54.

From this date the 1,290 days of Dan. 12: 11 reach to the exact time when Antiochus heard of the defeat of his army, was taken sick, and repented of the evil he had done.

1 Mac. 6: 1-13.

And the 1,335 days of Dan. 12: 12 reach to the time of his death.

1 Mac. 6: 16.

This is the true history of Antiochus, and the correct explanation of these three prophetic periods.

VI. WHAT IS THE DAILY SACRIFICE WHICH WAS TAKEN AWAY?

The daily sacrifice was a "continual burnt offering," which was offered "day by day" upon the brazen altar before the house of God in the temple.

Ex. 29: 38-42.

Num. 28: 1-8.

2 Kin. 16: 15.

VII. WHAT IS SAID OF THE CLEANSING OF THE SANCTUARY WHICH ANTIOCHUS DEFILED?

Mattathias lamented over the work wrought by Antiochus as follows:

"And when he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Juda and Jerusalem, he said, Woe is me! wherefore was I born to see this misery of my people, and of the holy city, and to dwell there, when it was delivered into the hand of the enemy, and the sanctuary into the hand of strangers?

"Her temple is become as a man without glory. Her glorious vessels are carried away into captivity, her infants are slain in the streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy. What nation hath not had a part in her kingdom, and gotten of her spoils? All her ornaments are taken away; of a free woman she has become a bondslave. And, behold, our sanctuary, even our beauty and our glory, is laid waste, and the Gentiles have profaned it. To what end therefore shall we live any longer?

"Then Mattathias and his sons rent their clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourned very sore."

1 Mac. 2: 6-14.

His son Judas Maccabeus cleansed the sanctuary Antiochus defiled. The following is the account:

"Then said Judas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: let us go up to cleanse and dedicate the sanctuary. Upon this all the host assembled themselves together, and went up into mount Sion. And when they saw the sanctuary desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned up, and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest, or in one of the mountains, yea, and the priests' chambers pulled down; they rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and cast ashes upon their heads, and fell down flat to the ground upon their faces, and blew an alarm with the trumpets, and cried toward heaven.

"Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against those that were in the fortress, until he had cleansed the sanctuary. So he chose priests of blameless conversation, such as had pleasure in the law: who cleansed the sanctuary, and bare out the defiled stones into an unclean place. And when as they consulted what to do with the altar of burnt offerings, which was profaned; they thought it best to pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because the heathen had defiled it: wherefore they pulled it down, and laid up the stones in the mountain of the temple in a convenient place, until there should come a prophet to show what should be done with them.

“Then they took whole stones according to the law, and built a new altar according to the former; and made up the sanctuary, and the things that were within the temple, and hallowed the courts. They made also new holy vessels, and into the temple they brought the candlestick, and the altar of incense, and the table.

“And upon the altar they burned incense, and the lamps that were upon the candlestick they lighted, that they might give light in the temple. Furthermore they set the loaves upon the table, and spread out the veils, and finished all the works which they had begun to make.

“Now on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month, which is called the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and eighth year, they rose up betimes in the morning, and offered sacrifice according to the law upon the new altar of burnt offerings, which they had made. At what time and day the heathen had profaned it, even in that was it dedicated with songs, and citherns, and harps, and cymbals. Then all the people fell upon their faces, worshiping and praising the God of heaven, who had given them good success.

“And so they kept the dedication of the altar eight days, and offered burnt offerings with gladness, and sacrificed the sacrifice of deliverance and praise. They decked also the forefront of the temple with crowns of gold and with shields: and the gates and the chambers they renewed, and hanged doors upon them. Thus was there very great gladness among the people, for that the reproach of the heathen was put away.” 1 Mac. 4: 36-58.

This whole work of defiling the sanctuary, etc., was typical of the great apostasy which has defiled the new covenant sanctuary, or church; and its cleansing by Judas Maccabeus was typical of the present cleansing of the church by the fire of holiness and truth. Amen.

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON VIII.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The building of the temple by Herod, and the final end of the worldly sanctuary.

I. WHO BUILT THE LAST TEMPLE AT JERUSALEM?

About thirty-seven years before Christ, Herod resolved to rebuild and beautify the temple. Josephus, Ant., Book XV, Chap. 1: 11. He pulled down the temple Zerubabel built, and erected one considerably larger. This last one was built of white marble, and was a temple of exquisite beauty. All the Jewish writers praise this temple for its beauty, and the costliness of its workmanship. Even the disciples spake to Jesus of the temple, "how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts."

Luke 21: 5.

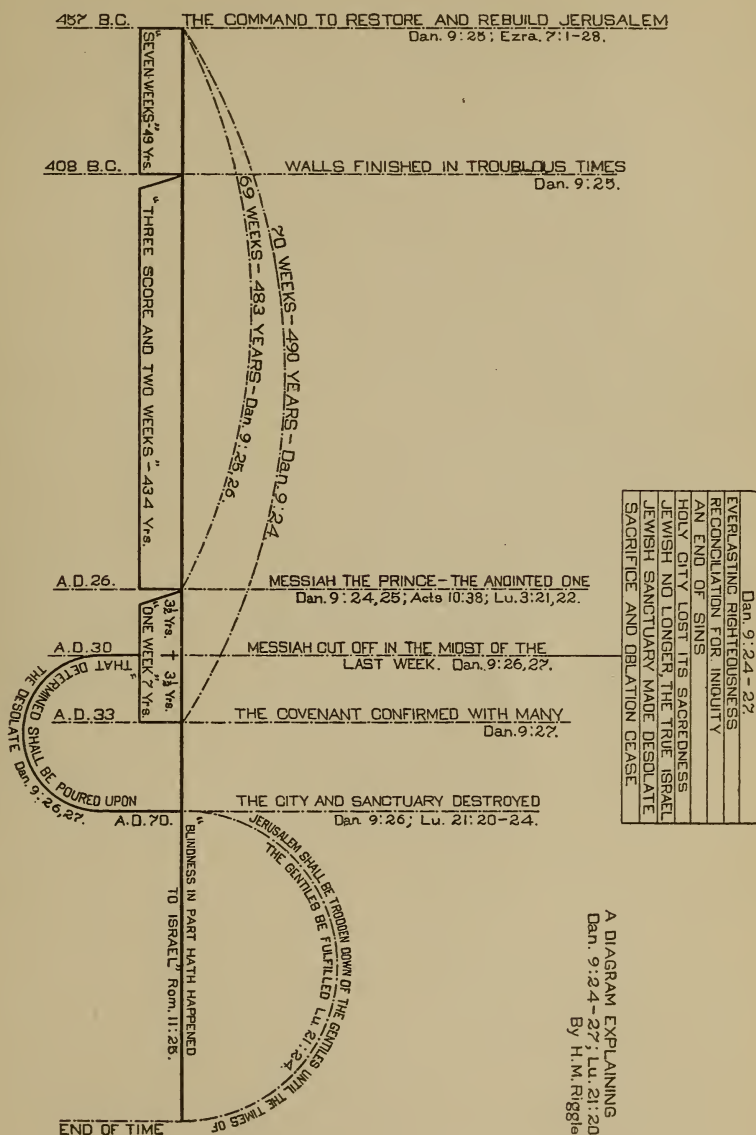

Mat. 24: 1.

Of it Josephus says: "Its appearance had everything that could strike the mind and astonish the sight. For it was on every side covered with solid plates of gold, so that when the sun rose upon it, it reflected such a strong and dazzling effulgence, that the eye of the beholder was obliged to turn away from it, being no more able to sustain its radiance than the splendor of the sun. To strangers who approached the capital, it appeared at a distance like a huge mountain covered with snow; for where it was not decorated with plates of gold, it was extremely white and glistening." Josephus Wars, Book V., Chap. V. This was the temple at Jerusalem, the sanctuary of the Lord, at the time when Christ appeared among men to build its antitype.

II. WHILE DANIEL WAS CONFESSING HIS SINS, AND THE SINS OF HIS PEOPLE, WHAT REVELATION DID HE RECEIVE FROM GABRIEL?

"Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. At the beginning of thy supplications the command came forth, and I am come to show thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Know, therefore, and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, unto the Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate." Dan. 9: 21-27.

III. WHAT DOES THIS SIGNIFY?

The command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem here referred to was given to Ezra by Artaxerxes, king of Persia, 457 B. C.

Ezra 7: 1-28.

A careful study of Ezra and Nehemiah will show that not less than four decrees were given to build the house, walls, etc., of Jerusalem. But the one here referred to by Daniel was to restore Jerusalem. This commission given to Ezra was to reorganize the children of Israel at Jerusalem, restore their judges and magistrates as at the first, and beautify the house of the Lord. It evidently is the one referred to. In Daniel's vision the week of years is used. This was in common use among the Jews in Daniel's time. The seventy weeks equal four hundred and ninety years. Measuring 490 years from 457 B. C., when the command was given, they extend to A. D. 33. In other words, just 490 years lie between 457 B. C. and A. D. 33. However the work of restoring all things did not begin until the middle of the year 457, which runs the 490 years to the fall of A. D. 33, or about the middle of that year. The seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks, which were to reach to Messiah the Prince, equal 69 weeks or 483 years. Reckoning 483 years from 457 B. C. would bring us to A. D. 26. But the real work of restoring Jerusalem did not commence till the middle of the year 457 (Ezra 7:8), which would bring the 483 years or 69 weeks to the middle or latter part of A. D. 26, when Christ was baptized and anointed. It might be well right here to observe that the common account called Anno Domini began when Christ was four years old. The 483 years—69 weeks—were to reach to Messiah the Prince. The question arises, When did Jesus become Messiah the Prince? Messiah (Hebrew), Christ (Greek) means anointed. The anointed one.

How was Jesus anointed?

“God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power.”

Acts 10:38.

When did this anointing take place?

“Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son.” Luke 3:21, 22.

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor.”

Luke 4:18.

Here is where Jesus became the anointed one, Messiah the Prince, and began his earthly ministry. This is what is meant in Daniel’s vision by the words, “to anoint the most Holy.” The sixty-nine weeks—483 years—extended to this time. There yet remains one week or seven years, to fulfill the 70 weeks or 490 years. That week extends from the baptism and anointing of Christ in A. D. 27 to about the middle or fall of A. D. 34.

IV. WHAT WAS TO TAKE PLACE IN THE MIDST OF THIS LAST WEEK OR SEVEN YEARS?

“And after threescore and two weeks, shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself.”

Dan. 9:26.

“And in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abomination he shall make it desolate.”

Ver. 27.

V. WHAT HAS THIS REFERENCE TO?

It has reference to the death of Christ. It will be seen in Ver. 25 that the sixty-nine weeks, which were to extend to Messiah the Prince, the “anointing of the most Holy,” were divided off as follows: "Seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks." The first seven weeks or 49 years extended from 457 B. C. to 408 B. C. This, no doubt, was the time that it took to complete the walls, streets, etc., of the city which Daniel says were finished "in troublous times." From 408 B. C., when the first seven weeks ended, to the anointing of the most Holy was just threescore and two weeks. After this, or in the midst of the last week of the seventy, Messiah was cut off. Just three and one-half years after Jesus was anointed and entered his ministry he was cut off—crucified for the sins of the whole world, in the midst of the last week.

VI. WHAT WAS ACCOMPLISHED BY CHRIST'S DEATH?

- 1 "Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people."

The Jews ceased to be God's chosen and special people. Christ's blood was shed for the sins of the world. He broke down the middle wall between Jew and Gentile and made them both one in him, in which "there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free." Col. 3: 11.

2. "And upon thy holy city."

The moment Christ died, Jerusalem lost its sacredness. No longer did God regard it the holy city. The hour had now come when no longer at Jerusalem would they worship the Father, but in every place the true worshipers would worship God in spirit and in truth.

John 4: 20-24.

3. "To finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins."

Christ by his death accomplished all this. He "put away sin by the sacrifice of himself." Yea he "hath washed us from our sins in his own precious blood," and "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin."

4. "And to make reconciliation for iniquity."

Hear the fulfillment: "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement." Rom. 5: 6-11.

"And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight."

Col. 1: 20-22.

5. "And to bring in everlasting righteousness."

This signifies a complete deliverance from sin, and a supply of grace to serve God in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. Yea, the grace of God which appeared unto all men teaches us to "live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world."

Titus 2: 11, 12.

6. "He shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease."

The sacrifices and the oblations of the law were but types of Christ and his great redemption. Sacrifice generally signifies slaughter. Oblation—offering or present. So Christ offered his body and presented it to God for a sacrifice to atone for the sins of the whole world. He was given as a sacrifice and oblation. His offering was perfect, and brought eternal redemption to the world. Hence, when he expired on the cross, the sacrifice and oblation of the law ceased to be accepted of God. They were but types and now were all fulfilled.

7. "And for the overspreading of abominations, he shall make it desolate."

This refers to the "worldly sanctuary." Christ in his personal ministry began building the temple or new covenant sanctuary—the church of God. Just before he expired on the cross, he cried, "It is finished." His death completed the house of God, "which is the church of the living God," "in which ye are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit." The instant the new covenant sanctuary was thus completed, "the vail of the temple [in Jerusalem] was rent in twain from top to bottom."

Mat. 27: 51.

God moved out of that earthly building, nevermore to dwell in temples made with hands. Their great house at Jerusalem was left desolate. Mat. 23: 37, 38.

The Jews would not be gathered under his wings, but filled up the cup of their iniquities by crucifying the Messiah. Their wickedness and abominations had reached to the full, and God forsok their house forever, and left it desolate.

VII. THREE AND ONE-HALF YEARS OF THIS LAST WEEK CAME AFTER THE DEATH OF MESSIAH, SINCE HE WAS CUT OFF IN THE MIDST OF THE WEEK. WHAT WAS TO BE ACCOMPLISHED DURING THIS LAST WEEK?

“And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week. Ver. 27. This last week began with Christ’s ministry. The covenant is the new covenant in Christ Jesus. “Grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.”

John 1:17.

The three and one-half years of Christ’s ministry were spent in delivering the principles of the new covenant. The same was dedicated with his blood, and came into force at his death. It is also a fact that the first three and one-half years after Christ’s death was a marked epoch in the spread of the gospel among all nations. Thus the covenant was confirmed with many.

VIII. WE HAVE SEEN THAT AT THE DEATH OF CHRIST, GOD MOVED

OUT OF THE JEWISH SANCTUARY AT JERUSALEM AND LEFT IT DESOLATE. HOW LONG WAS IT TO REMAIN DESOLATE?

“He shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.”

Ver. 27.

IX. WHAT IS MEANT BY THE CONSUMMATION, AND THE THING DETERMINED TO BE POURED UPON THE DESOLATE?

“And the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.”

Ver. 26.

X. WHAT DID JESUS SAY WITH REFERENCE TO THIS PROPHECY?

“And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.” “And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.” “For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.” “And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.” Luke 21: 5, 6, 20.

Luke 21: 22, 24.

XI. WHEN AND HOW WAS THIS FILLED?

Titus with his Roman legions came to Jerusalem in A. D. 70 and destroyed the city and the sanctuary, or temple. Thus “that determined was poured upon the desolate” sanctuary. The over-spreading abominations of the Jewish people, were thus avenged. “These be the days of vengeance,” “and wrath upon this people.” When the Romans destroyed the sanctuary, they also took away the daily sacrifice. The Roman legions who marched to Jerusalem, destroyed the city and sanctuary, and took away the sacrifice, which ceased to be accepted of God when Jesus expired upon the cross. The Romans also brought their ensigns and set them upon the ground of the temple where once God dwelt. They even worshiped their ensigns, swore by them, and offered sacrifice to them in the very place where sacrifice had been offered unto God. These ensigns were the banners of the army which did make desolate the temple and city.

Hence, this was “an abomination of desolation.”

XII. WHAT DOES JESUS SAY OF THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION THAT DANIEL PROPHESED WOULD COME?

“When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand :) then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains: let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house: neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. And woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day: for then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.”

Mat. 24: 15-22.

From the above we see clearly that Daniel’s vision reached a fulfillment at the destruction of Jerusalem. In fact, in Luke’s account he says: “When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.”

Luke 21: 20.

XIII. WHAT IS THE REAL ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION?

It is the substitution of heathen worship for the worship of God. Thus when Antiochus defiled the temple, laid it waste, and substituted heathen worship in Jerusalem for the worship of God, when he took away the daily sacrifice of burnt offering to God, and offered swine's flesh upon the altar in idol worship, he “set up the abomination of desolation.” Jesus foresaw that the Roman armies would do just what the little horn of Daniel had done: Set up heathen worship and sacrifice in the holy place, where God alone had been worshiped. So they did this very thing when Titus destroyed the city. Just so has popery and modern sectism set up heathen worship instead of worshiping God alone. The multitudes of sect Babylon are “mad on their idols.” This is an abomination of desolation.

XIV. WHAT FURTHER DOES DANIEL SPEAK CONCERNING THIS?

In Dan. 11 several powers are brought into view. These extend right up to the coming of Michael.

“And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.” Dan. 12: 1.

This refers to the coming of Christ during the reign of Imperial Rome. Following this “there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time.” This refers to the siege and final destruction of Jerusalem, for says Jesus, in speaking of that awful time, “There shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.”

Mat. 24: 21.

“For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.... For there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations.” Luke 21: 22-24.

This awful calamity which befell the Jews was prophesied in Deut. 28: 50-57. “A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young: and he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee. And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the Lord thy God hath given thee. And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee: so that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave: so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates. The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, and toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in thy gates."

Here is prophesied a time when a foreign power would come to Jerusalem, laying siege to the city, overthrowing and destroying the same, casting down the sanctuary or temple, taking away the daily sacrifice, and placing the abomination of desolation on that once hallowed spot. This all took place when Titus with the Roman legions, came to the "pleasant land" laying it waste, and destroyed their city and sanctuary, in which awful siege and destruction Josephus tells us about 1,100,000 Jews perished.

Thus we give a brief history of the worldly sanctuary. We will next consider the spiritual sanctuary of the new covenant under the same heading as the sanctuary seen in Daniel's vision, which was defiled and cleansed, and which was a type of the house of God, "which is the church of the living God."

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON IX.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The new covenant sanctuary.

I. WHAT WAS THE TABERNACLE, AND HOUSE OF GOD AT JERUSALEM, WHICH WAS GOD'S SANCTUARY UNDER THE LAW?

"The first tabernacle . . . which was a figure."

Heb. 9:8, 9.

"For the law having a shadow of good things to come."

Heb. 10:1.

II. OF WHAT WAS IT A SHADOW OR FIGURE?

"A greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building."

Heb. 9:11.

III. WHAT IS THE NEW TESTAMENT GREATER AND MORE PERFECT TABERNACLE, WHICH THE OLD ONE FORESHADOWED? AND WHO IS ITS BUILDER?

"Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man."

Heb. 8:1, 2.

"Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Mat. 16:18.

"Ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building."

1 Cor. 3:9.

IV. WHAT DID THE PROPHETS FORETELL CONCERNING THE BUILDING OF THE TEMPLE OR SANCTUARY OF THE NEW COVENANT?

"Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is the BRANCH [Christ]; . . . he shall build the temple of the Lord: even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: . . . and they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the Lord."

Zech. 6:12-15.

Those afar off who were to build in the temple of the Lord, are the Gentiles who are being brought into the fold of Christ in this dispensation.

V. THE TEMPLE OF GOD IS WHERE HE DWELLS. THEREFORE, WHEREVER GOD DWELLS UPON EARTH, THAT IS HIS TEMPLE, OR SANCTUARY, THE ONE CHRIST BUILT.

Under the old covenant, the sanctuary, whether the original tabernacle pitched by Moses, or the great temple at Jerusalem, was a place set apart for the dwelling-place of God upon earth, a place of service and sacrifice unto him. So must the sanctuary of the new covenant, the antitype of the old, be the place of God's dwelling, where service and sacrifice are offered to him. What then is the new covenant sanctuary, or temple which Christ built, and in which God dwells?

"Ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building."

1 Cor. 3: 9.

"Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people."

2 Cor. 6: 16.

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?"

1 Cor. 3: 16.

"One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all."

Eph. 4: 6.

"Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit."

Eph. 2: 19-22.

"And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God."

Eph. 3: 19.

"But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end."

Heb. 3: 6.

"But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth."

1 Tim. 3: 15.

"Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ."

1 Pet. 2: 5.

VI. WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY OF GOD MOVING OUT OF THE OLD LITERAL TEMPLE OR HOUSE AT JERUSALEM WHEN CHRIST BUILT HIM A NEW ONE FOR HIS EVERLASTING HABITA-
TION?

“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.” Luke 13:34, 35.

“And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.” Mark 15:37, 38.

“Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands.” Acts 7:48.

VII. WHAT DO WE LEARN FROM THE FOREGOING SCRIPTURES?

We clearly see that God’s sanctuary in this dispensation is the church of God.

VIII. WHERE DOES THE TABERNA-CLE AND ITS SERVICE, FURNI-TURE, ETC., MEET THEIR ANTI-TYPE IN THE NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH?

1. The court.

The court was a type of the convicted sinner. He is seeking God for admittance into his fold of love.

2. The tabernacle.

The tabernacle was a clear type of God’s church or people.

3. The holy place.

The holy place or first room was a type of the justified believer.

4. The holy of holies.

The holy of holies was a type of the sanctified believer.

5. The first vail.

Heb. 9:3.

The first vail was a type of Christ through which we enter the church. John 10:7, 9.

6. The second vail.

Heb. 9:3.

The second vail was a type of Christ through which we also enter the holiest.

Heb. 10:19, 20.

Eph. 2:18.

Rom. 5:1, 2.

7. The golden pillars.

Ex. 26:32, 33, 37.

The golden pillars were a type of.

(a) God established brethren who are a special help to others.

“And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship." Gal. 2:9.

(b) Real overcomers.

"Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God." Rev. 3:12.

"None of these things move me." Acts 20:24.

8. The brazen altar.

The brazen altar was a type of the altar of mercy where the sinner offers himself dead in trespasses and sins to God for pardon. The blood shed and sprinkled upon the horns of this altar was typical of the blood of Christ, which washes our sins away.

9. The laver and sea.

Ex. 30:18-21.

2 Chr. 4:2-4.

The laver and sea are typical of the washing of regeneration.

Titus 3:5.

(a) "Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you."

John 15:3.

(b) "Washed us from our sins in his own blood."

Rev. 1:5.

10. The table of the shewbread.

This shewbread was a type of the spiritual food which the justified believer feasts on.

(a) "And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger." "A man may eat thereof, and not die."

John 6:35, 50.

(b) "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Mat. 4:4.

(c) "Eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness."

Isa. 55:2.

11. The golden candlestick.

The golden candlestick was a type of the light of salvation in a regenerated soul.

(a) "The day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts."

2 Pet. 1:19.

(b) "That ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light."

1 Pet. 2:9.

(c) "Ye are all the children of light."

1 Thes. 5:5.

- (d) "For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light."

Eph. 5:8.

- (e) "Ye are the light of the world. . . . Let your light so shine before men."

Mat. 5:14, 16.

- (f) The light of that candlestick was made "to burn always."

Ex. 27:20.

So now the Lord has become our "everlasting light."

Isa. 60:19, 20.

- (g) "The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

Prov. 4:18.

12. The golden altar.

The golden altar was a type of Christ our altar.

Heb. 13:10, 12.

The high priest on atonement day entered into the holiest place to accomplish the services of God, but not until he had sprinkled blood upon the golden altar. This typified our perfect consecration to God for entire sanctification, in which we enter the holiest of all, or perfected holiness.

Rom. 12:1, 2.

Heb. 10:19, 20.

13. The ark of the covenant.

Since the sanctified believer himself is the holy of holies in "the true sanctuary, which the Lord pitched," the ark of the covenant is inside of him. In the original ark were deposited and kept the "tables of the covenant."

Heb. 9:4.

This was a type of the fact that in this dispensation God would write his law in our hearts when sanctified.

Heb. 8:7-10.

2 Cor. 3:3.

14. The mercy-seat.

The sanctified believer constitutes the "holiest of all"; hence, the mercy-seat is in every sanctified soul.

- (a) The type—God Almighty sat upon the mercy-seat between the golden cherubims of glory.

1. "And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims."

Ex. 25:22.

2. God spake unto Moses "from off the mercy-seat from between the two cherubims."

Num. 7: 89.

3. "Thou that dwellest between the cherubims."

Psa. 80: 1.

4. He sitteth between the cherubims."

Psa. 99: 1.

- (b) The antitype.

1. God dwells or sits in our hearts.

- (a) The Father.

"Ye are the temple of God, . . .
for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are."

1 Cor. 3: 16, 17.

"Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them."

2 Cor. 6: 16.

- (b) The Son.

"Christ liveth in me."

Gal. 2: 20.

"That Christ may dwell in your hearts." Eph. 3: 17.

- (c) The Holy Spirit.

"The spirit of God dwelleth in you."

1 Cor. 3: 16.

"Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost, which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own."

1 Cor. 6: 19.

- (d) From the above we learn that the triune God sits in our hearts.

"That ye may be filled with all the fulness of God."

Eph. 3: 19.

2. Where God dwells
there is glory.

- (a) In the original tabernacle or temple where God sat on the mercy-seat, the place was filled with his glory.

"The tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory."

Ex. 29: 43.

"The glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle."

Ex. 40: 35.

"The priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud:
for the glory of the Lord hath filled the house of God."

2 Chr. 5: 14.

- (b) In this dispensation we are God's house. So When God sits in the sanctified soul, he fills us with his glory.

"And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one."

John 17: 22.

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.” 2 Cor. 3:18.

This glory is termed an “eternal weight of glory.”

2 Cor. 4:17.

3. A seat also signifies a place of rest. Here God sat. So all the sanctified who have Christ enthroned within have rest.

“For we which have believed do enter into rest.”

Heb. 4:3.

“There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.”

Heb. 4:9.

“Ye shall find rest unto your souls.” Mat. 11:29.

“Quietness and assurance forever.” Isa. 32:17.

It might be well right here to observe that there are two phases in the spiritual application of the Jewish sanctuary.

First. As seen in the foregoing truths, the sanctuary of the new covenant is God’s church, or people. Hence, the justified believer himself constitutes the holy place, and all the antitypes of the furniture of that ancient room are located in his heart. So also the sanctified believer constitutes the holiest of all, and all the antitypes of the furniture of that room is within him. This is one phase.

Second. The two rooms of that ancient house typify two states or conditions in God’s salvation. After the sinner makes his offering upon the brazen altar of mercy, he passes through the laver, “Washing of regeneration”—into the holy place, the state of justification. But he can not rest here: he must move right on into the holiest. After his offering upon the golden altar of perfect consecration he boldly enters “into the holiest [the state of sanctification] by the blood of Jesus . . . through the vail.”

Heb. 10:19, 20.

“Entereth into that within the vail.”

Heb. 6:19.

This is our everlasting abiding place, the place of our rest. Upon the mercy-seat “we enter into his rest.”

“O sweet and tranquil home, where only God is known.”

Under the cherubims of glory, upon the mercy-seat, his rest—we abide in the house of the Lord forever.”

Psa. 23:6.

“He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." "He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust."

Psa. 91: 1, 4.

"Keep me as the apple of thine eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings." Psa. 17: 8.

"For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me." Psa. 27: 5.

"The children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house." Psa. 36: 7, 8.

"Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence."

Psa. 31: 20.

"My soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge."

Psa. 57: 1.

"I will abide in thy tabernacle forever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings."

Psa. 61: 4.

"In the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice."

Psa. 63: 7.

15. The golden pot of manna.

This manna was a type of the rich spiritual food the sanctified soul feasts upon. This makes the soul "delight itself in fatness," yea, have a "continual feast."

16. Aaron's rod that budded.

Num. 17: 1-8, 10.

This rod is a type of the fruitful yield of a sanctified soul. The Father purges every justified branch, "that it may bring forth more fruit."

Thus we could follow the services of that ancient sanctuary clear through and find their anti-type in the New Testament church. So the church of God is the new covenant sanctuary.

There is a blest pavilion,
A sacred inner court,
The place of God's own dwelling,
With all the world shut out.
Oh, holy resting place!
Oh, calm and pure retreat!
Where God unveils his face,
And life is only sweet.

Ref.—Oh, sweet and tranquil home,
Where only God is known!

Within this greater temple,
Built by the Son of God,
We've found a full salvation,
And entered thro' the blood.
Here on the mercy-seat,
Beneath the cherubim,
We dwell in love complete,
And Heaven's glory hymn.

First at the cleansing laver,
We felt the blood applied,
Then on the golden altar,
Were wholly sanctified.
Within the second veil,
Oh, holy! holy place!
With joyful lips we tell
The fullness of his grace.

Oh, glory be to Jesus!
I've boldly entered in
The secret of his presence,
And triumph over sin.

My soul is hid away
 In God, with Jesus Christ;
 And here I'll ever stay,
 In sweet, eternal rest. D. S. W.

Daniel's Great Vision.

LESSON X.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

The defiling and cleansing of the new covenant sanctuary.

I. WHAT IS THE NEW COVENANT SANCTUARY?

As seen in the previous lesson, the spiritual sanctuary or house of God in this dispensation is the church. The literal sanctuary was its type.

Heb. 8:1, 2.

1 Tim. 3:15.

Eph. 2:19-22.

II. THE DAILY SACRIFICE OF THE WORLDLY SANCTUARY WAS TYPICAL OF THE DAILY SACRI- FICES OF THE CHURCH. WHAT ARE THESE?

The daily sacrifices of the new covenant sanctuary are spiritual offerings of praise and thanksgiving unto God—"spiritual sacrifices."

1. "Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ."

1 Pet. 2:5.

"That ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." Ver. 9.

2. "By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually; that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

Heb. 13:15, 16.

3. "Giving thanks always for all things unto God."

Eph. 5:20.

4. "And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing."

Psa. 107:22.

5. "Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness."

Psa. 51:19.

"That they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness." Mal. 3:3.

III. ANTIOCHUS EPIPHANES WAS A TYPE OF THE POPE OF ROME.

His work of treading down the Jewish host, defiling the sanctuary, taking away the daily sacrifice, etc., as recorded in Dan. 8, is a clear type of the work of the great apostasy of the church.

IV. WAS THIS TREADING DOWN AND DEFILING OF THE CHURCH
FORETOLD BY THE PROPHETS?

Yes. "The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary."

Isa. 63:18.

"Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city! She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the Lord; she drew not near to her God. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bone till the morrow. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law."

Zeph. 3:1-4.

"How has the faithful city Sion, once full of judgment, become a harlot! wherein righteousness lodged, but now murderers. Your silver is worthless, thy wine merchants mix the wine with water. Thy princes are rebellious, companions of thieves, loving bribes, seeking after rewards; not pleading for orphans and not heeding the cause of widows."

Isa. 1:21-23. LXX.

"But there were false prophets among the people, even as there shall be false teachers, among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

2 Pet. 2:1-3

The "little while" the people possessed holiness doubtless refers to the early morning of the Christian era. Then the "light and treacherous" prophets and priests polluted the sanctuary, and trod it under foot. These were foretold by Peter, who gives the manner of this defiling. It was effected by bringing in "damnable heresies." Damnable heresies is rendered in other translations "destructive sects," "parties of destruction," etc. The whole apostate church, which includes both popery and the Babel of Protestantism, is an abomination unto God. They have defiled the sanctuary by not making any distinction between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not. They call light darkness, and darkness light. They call good evil, and evil good. They unequally yoked together a few believers with multitudes who have but a form of godliness. They ignore Christ the head and governor of the church, and set up popes, synods, conferences, etc., to make laws to rule the people. They worship their lifeless institutions and human lords more than the true God. They have crushed under foot the beautiful sanctuary of God and set up instead their human abomination. The faithful city became a harlot, murderers lodged in her. This refers to the defiling of the sanctuary, the apostasy of the church. The wine-merchants are the ministers. They mix the wine with water; namely, weaken the truth. They will not preach a pure gospel. This is the case everywhere in fallen Babylon. This is a perfect picture of the apostasy.

Just as this power under the Cæsars marched its hosts to Jerusalem and made desolate the city, threw down the worldly sanctuary, set up its ensigns on that once sacred spot, and offered sacrifice and worshiped them, so the same power under the priests and popes, trod down the spiritual sanctuary or church, set up its apostate or corrupt institution and worshiped it more than God. This is an abomination of desolation. Just as the Romans slaughtered the jews, so the Catholics slaughtered the Christians. And just as the literal city was to be trodden down of the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled (Luke 21:24), so the spiritual city—the church—was to be trodden under foot by the papists forty and two months—1,260 years. Rev. 11:2

V. HOW HAS THE APOSTASY TAKEN AWAY THE SPIRITUAL SACRIFICES OF THE CHURCH?

True holiness adorned the early church, and the natural result was a continual sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. But during the apostasy true holiness was lost sight of, hence the daily sacrifice was gone. A "sin offering" was given instead. Thus we see that while Antiochus—the little horn—cast down the worldly sanctuary and took away their daily sacrifice, the popes and priests cast down the New Testament sanctuary or church and took away the daily spiritual sacrifices of praise and thanksgiving. The former was accomplished under heathen garb and the latter under Christian garb. The former under Antiochus, the latter under the popes, and also continued under the reign of sectism.

VI. THE CLEANSING OF THE LITERAL SANCTUARY BY JUDAS MACCABEUS WAS A TYPE OF THE PRESENT CLEANSING OF THE SPIRITUAL SANCTUARY BY THE FIRE OF HOLINESS. WHAT IS SAID OF THIS?

“Therefore thus saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, Woe to the mighty men of Israel; for my wrath shall not cease against mine adversaries, and I will execute judgment on mine enemies. And I will bring my hand upon thee, and purge thee completely, and I will destroy the rebellious and will take away from thee all transgressors. And I will establish thy judges as before, and thy counselors as at the beginning: and afterwards thou shalt be called the city of righteousness, the faithful mother city Sion. For her captives shall be saved with judgment, and with mercy.”

Isa. 1:24-27. LXX.

“And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.”

Isa. 4:3, 4.

“And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.”

Rev. 15:2, 3.

“And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia; for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.”

Rev. 19:6-8.

These texts all prove that when this cleansing is accomplished the “spiritual sacrifices” of praise and thanksgiving are restored. Halleluiah! it has reached even me. Amen.

An Exegesis of Rev. 12:1-6.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT WAS JOHN PERMITTED TO SEE IN THE VISION?

“And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars.”

Ver. 1.

1. What was this woman?

The church of God—the bride of Christ—in her primitive glory, purity, and unity.

Rom. 7:4.

Eph. 5:23-33.

2. She was “clothed with the sun.” What does this signify?

Jesus Christ the sun of righteousness, the light and glory of the church. She was clothed with his purity, and power.

3. What does her crown signify?

That she was reigning, through grace, over sin and the world.

4. What did the twelve stars of her crown signify?

The twelve apostles of the Lamb.

II. WHAT WAS HER CONDITION?

“And she being with child, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.”

Ver. 2.

1. What does this signify?

The fruit of matrimony is offspring. The object of the union of Christ and his church is to bring forth fruit unto God.

Rom. 7:4.

The church travails in pain and labors to bring sons and daughters to God. The above text is a picture of the travail of the early church for the salvation of the world.

2. But is the church now married to Christ?

She certainly is, else we would be bastards and not legitimate children.

Eph. 5:23-33.

1 John 3:1.

III. WHAT DID THIS WOMAN BRING FORTH?

“And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron.”

Ver. 5.

1. Does this refer to Christ?

No: Christ is not a child of the church. He is its founder. He purchased it with his own blood. She is his wife.

2. Is Christ then our Father?
In this sense he is. He is called the "everlasting Father."

Isa. 9: 6.

3. What was this man child the church brought forth?

A host, or whole nation of children, born suddenly.

4. Give proof of this.

"Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed she brought forth her children."

Isa. 66: 7, 8.

A nation of children born at once is here denominated a man child. This was fulfilled in the early church. On Pentecost three thousand were born in the family in one day. It was but a few days until a nation of children were brought forth. At an early date the church at Antioch numbered about one hundred thousand.

5. Is there any other scripture to prove the church is termed a man?

"For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us, . . . for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace."

Eph. 2: 14, 15.

The Jews and Gentiles reconciled in one body are termed "one new man."

Again in 2 Thes. 2 the apostate church is termed the man of sin. So the mighty host brought forth by the primitive church is called a man child.

6. Where is a promise that the people of God shall rule with a rod of iron?

"And he that overcometh, and keepeth my words unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron."

Rev. 2: 26, 27.

This is a clear prophecy of the early church and its success.

IV. WHAT NEXT DID JOHN SEE?

"And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and, behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads."

Ver. 3.

1. What was this dragon?

Pagan Rome. It was a dragon power.

2. What were the seven heads?

The seven supreme forms of government which the Roman empire had.

3. Name them.

The regal power, the dictatorship, the decemvirate, the consular, the triumvirate, the imperial, and the patriciate.

4. What were the ten horns of the dragon?

The ten kingdoms which grew out of the Roman empire.

5. Name them.

Huns, Ostrogoths, Visigoths, Franks, Vandals, Suevi, Burgundians, Heruli, Anglo-Saxons, Lombards.

V. WHAT DID THIS DRAGON DO?

“And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.” Ver. 4.

1. What is meant by the tail of the dragon?

The latter end of his reign.

2. What is meant by his casting down the stars?

Stars sometimes signify God's people. Dan. 12:3.

The twelve sons of Jacob were seen in vision as stars.

Gen. 37:9.

Paul says the righteous shine as lights in the world. The casting down of the stars doubtless refers to the great host of bright luminaries, true saints, who were slain by the pagan power. Rome was ready to devour every man and woman born into Christianity.

VI. WHILE ROME WAS THUS SLAYING THE CHRISTIANS AND CASTING THEM DOWN TO THE GROUND—SENDING THEM INTO THEIR GRAVES BY THE THOUSANDS, WHAT BECAME OF THEM?

“And her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.”

Ver. 5.

The souls of the martyrs ascended to paradise and continued to reign with Christ.

VII. WHAT NEXT DID THE WOMAN DO?

“And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.”

Ver. 6.

1. What does the wilderness signify?

The great apostasy into which the church went.

2. How long was she to remain there?

“A thousand two hundred and threescore days.”

Ver. 6.

3. How long is that?

1,260 days—counting a day for a year [Num. 14:34; Ezek. 4:6.]

equal 1,260 years. The church went into popery about A. D. 270. Counting forward 1,260 years brings us to 1530 A. D., the time of the reformation, when the church came out in clearer light.

Revelation 12:7-17 Explained.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT GREAT CONFLICT DID THE REVELATOR SEE?

"And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels."

Ver. 7.

II. WHAT IS MEANT BY WAR IN HEAVEN?

John while in the Spirit saw in a vision what was to take place on the earth in reality.

Rev. 4:1, 2.

III. WHO WAS MICHAEL?

"Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil," etc.

Jude 9.

1. What is meant by archangel?

Head or chief of the angelic host.

2. Who holds that position?

"Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him."

1 Pet. 3:22.

IV. WHAT DOES DANIEL SAY OF MICHAEL?

"And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: ... and at that time thy people shall be delivered."

Dan. 12:1.

V. WHO IS THE GREAT PRINCE CALLED MICHAEL?

"The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins."

Acts 5:30, 31.

VI. WHAT DO WE LEARN FROM THE ABOVE SCRIPTURES?

We learn very clearly that Michael is the Lord Jesus Christ.

VII. WHO ARE MICHAEL'S ANGELS?

The great host of Christians, and especially ministers, who were willing even to lay down their lives in defense of the gospel of the kingdom.

VIII. WHAT DID THE DRAGON REPRESENT?

Pagan Rome, as seen in the previous lesson.

Ver. 3, 4.

IX. WHO WERE THE DRAGON'S ANGELS?

The adherents of paganism.

X. WHAT DOES THE WHOLE LESSON TEACH?

The great conflict between Christianity and paganism, which took place in the beginning of the gospel dispensation.

XI. HOW DID THIS CONFLICT END?

"And the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not;... and the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

Ver. 7-9.

XII. WHAT DOES THIS SIGNIFY?

The victory Christianity gained over heathenism. The triumphs of the gospel over pagan darkness. At the ushering in of the gospel dispensation, paganism was the universal religion. Rome held universal sway. paganism held the highest position on earth when Christ appeared to save the world. But he who is called Michael, he and his angels—ministers and adherents—waged war against this dragon in his high places. Being victorious he proved to the world that paganism had no right to such a high seat. Therefore Christ cast him down, and set his kingdom up instead..

XIII. WHY WAS THIS GREAT POWER CALLED SATAN, THE DEVIL, THAT OLD SERPENT?

These appellations were applied to this power because its religion was purely of devilish origin. The early Christians termed heathen Rome the devil. In fact it was the main instrument through which Satan worked in opposition to Christianity, and through which he had deceived almost the whole world. Paul says, "The things which the Gentiles [heathen] sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils;...and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. Ye can not drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils." 1 Cor. 10: 20, 21.

XIV. HOW DID THE EARLY CHRISTIANS CELEBRATE THIS GREAT VICTORY FOR CHRISTIANITY?

"And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night." Ver. 10.

Here it is clearly stated that this Michael was Christ. Michael cast down the dragon, and the saints are heard to say that it demonstrated "the power of Christ."

XV. IN WHAT SENSE DID THE PAGANS ACCUSE THE CHRISTIANS?

If any calamity ever befell them, they blamed the Christians. If death or famine came upon them as a people they blamed the Christians and put them to death. If so much as a fire would break out in any of their cities they accused the Christians and put them to death for it. Thus they were both day and night accusing the Christians of things of which they were not guilty, and then glutted themselves by shedding their innocent blood. No wonder they shouted for joy when the Roman power began to crumble before Christianity.

XVI. HOW DID THE CHRISTIANS OVERCOME?

"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death." Ver. 11.

While the pagans opposed Christianity with fagot, sword, crucifixion, the rack, wild beasts, etc., the followers of Christ never raised their hands in rebellion. They went into the amphitheater to be eaten by wild beasts, testifying that the blood of Christ saved them from sin. They went to the rack, the chopping-block, the stake, with the same sweet and burning testimony. These were their only weapons of warfare. Never did men enter a holier conflict. Never before had an army went to battle with such weapons. But, thank God! they overcame. The cause they had espoused was so dear to them that they loved not their lives unto the death. Heathenism could not stand before such a religion as this, but went crashing to pieces before it.

XVII. WHEN ROME SAW HER RELIGION CRUMBLING BEFORE THE LIGHT OF CHRISTIANITY, AND ITS PURE GOSPEL, HOW DID SHE TRY TO SAVE HERSELF?

"And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child."

Ver. 13.

This dragon power tried to save itself by slaughtering the Christians. But watch-fires were rapidly kindled in every land. The Christians soon outnumbered the heathen, and they came begging admission to the church. Rome tottered, and finally fell A. D. 476.

XVIII. WHEN CHRISTIANITY MIGHT HAVE SWEEPED THE WORLD TO GOD, WHAT TOOK PLACE?

“And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.” Ver. 14.

This woman was the church. (Verses 1, 2.) The wilderness into which she went is the same as already considered in Ver. 6—the great apostasy. Two wings of a great eagle signify the rapidity of the spiritual decline of the church. The time, times, and half time, cover the same period as Ver. 6; viz., 1,260 years.

XIX. WHAT NEXT DID JOHN SEE?

“And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.” Ver. 15.

Doubtless this was fulfilled in the Arian heresy, which arose, and for a short time seemed to sweep every thing like a flood. The adherents of that heresy at one time outnumbered the orthodox. It really looked as though the entire church would be carried away by it. This heresy was but the dregs of paganism. Came out of the dragon’s mouth.

XX. WHAT BECAME OF THIS FLOOD?

“And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.”

Ver. 16.

This language, no doubt, is borrowed from the time when the earth opened and Korah, Nathan, and Abiram quickly went down into the pit. It signifies a sudden disappearance of that flood of heresy. And truly it was short-lived and very soon disappeared.

XXI. WHAT DID THE DRAGON NEXT DO?

“And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.”

Ver. 17.

The old dragon was completely conquered—cast down—his power broken. So he became wroth at the woman—church. A son was born to the dragon, called a beast, and through this son the dragon made war against the remnant of her seed; namely, the few who stood true to God during the dark ages.

Revelation 13:1-10 Explained.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT FOLLOWED THE DRAGON IN JOHN'S VISION?

"And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy."

Ver. 1.

This beast represents popery, or papal Rome. He resembles his father the dragon, in that he also has seven heads and ten horns. The only difference is this: The dragon had his crowns on his heads, (Rev. 12:3.) while the beast had his crowns on his horns. (Rev. 13:1.) The solution is this: Under the pagan form the seven heads or forms of government, were the ruling power of the empire, while under the papal form the ten horns or ten kingdoms, were the ruling power.

II. WHAT APPEARANCE DID THIS BEAST HAVE?

"And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion."

Ver. 2.

Leopard — spotted — signifies sins. This power was to be extremely sinful. Feet like a bear signifies crushing, rending, etc. Mouth like a lion signifies devouring. Such was papal Rome.

III. WHERE DID THIS BEAST GET HIS AUTHORITY?

"And the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority." Ver. 2.

It is an undisputed fact that papal Rome received her power and authority from pagan Rome. The ten kingdoms of the empire gave "their power and strength to the beast," (Rev. 17:13.) and thus became the horns (power) of the beast. "When Constantine removed the seat of his empire from Rome to Constantinople in A. D. 330, the city of Rome was given up to the bishop of Rome. The bishop of Rome in 538 became the head of all the churches by the work of Justinian, the ruling emperor of the Romans. Thus Rome became the seat of the papacy."—Croly on the Apocalypse. pp. 114, 115.

IV. WHAT BEFELL ONE OF HIS HEADS?

"And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast."

Ver. 3.

It was one of the seven heads that was wounded, (Rev. 13:3.) and after that head was healed all the world wondered after the beast, worshiped it, etc. Turn to Rev. 17:8-11. Here the Revelator describes these seven forms of government in the following words: "Five are fallen [past], one is, [This was the imperial which existed at the time the book of Revelation was given.] and the other is not yet come [patriciate]; and when he cometh he must continue a short space [about 51 years]." In the year 425 A. D. the imperial power was overthrown by the hordes of savages that swept over the Roman empire from the North, and for 51 years (while the empire still survived under the rulership of the patriciates) it seemed as though the sixth head was wounded to death; but when the old empire was finally overthrown in 476 A. D., the same old imperial power of the Cæsars revived under a Christian garb in the form of the papacy, thereby constituting the eighth Roman power, but in reality was one of the seven. So that head which received such a deadly wound was thus healed and formed the eighth ruling power of Rome—popery. John spoke of it in these words: "The beast that was [did exist as the sixth power], and is not [cast down and overthrown], and yet is [still exists, and revives again]."

Ver. 8.

"And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven."

Ver. 11.

The power exercised by the popes during the reign of the papacy was nothing more nor less than the old imperial power of the Cæsars. This in another sense explains how the ten horns serve as horns both of the dragon and of the leopard—spotted beast, since the papacy is nothing but the old imperial power cloaked in a Christian garb.

V. WHAT DID THE BEAST WORSHIPERS REALLY WORSHIP?

"And they worshiped the dragon which gave power unto the beast." Ver. 4.

Papal Rome has many rites which she brought from pagan Rome, doing penance, worshiping images, using holy water, etc., etc. Catholics in observing these things simply worship the old dragon—paganism.

VI. WHAT DID JOHN HEAR THIS BEAST SAY?

"And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies. . . . And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven."

Ver. 5, 6.

Part of this was fulfilled in the following great assumptions of the pope of Rome. "I am King of kings, and Lord of lords; holy father; vicegerent of the Son of God. I am infallible. I have power to forgive sins; to release from purgatory; to damn and to save."

VII. HOW DID THIS POWER TREAT THE SAINTS?

"And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them."

Ver. 7.

This was fulfilled in the bloody persecutions received from the papists.

VIII. WAS THIS POWER TO HAVE UNIVERSAL SWAY?

"And power was given unto him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world."

Ver. 7, 8.

IX. HOW LONG WAS THIS BEAST TO RULE OVER GOD'S PEOPLE?

"And power was given unto him to continue forty and two months." Ver. 5.

42 months, counting 30 days to the month, equal 1,260 days or years. This covers the same period of time that the church was to continue in the wilderness, (Rev. 12:6, 14.) as before observed.

X. WHAT WAS TO FINALLY HAPPEN THIS BEAST?

"He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience of the saints."

Ver. 10.

The patience of the saints down through the dark ages of persecution was that the very power that was putting them to death with the sword, sometime would be killed with the sword. Thank God! their prayers were answered. Thirty years of bloody war in Germany finally broke off the imperial yoke, and this beast power was dethroned with the sword, and it shall continue to diminish in power "unto the end,"

Revelation 13:11-18 Explained.

BY H. M. RIGGLE.

I. WHAT DID JOHN SEE COMING UP OUT OF THE EARTH?

"And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon."

Ver. 11.

This represents Protestantism. Its two horns represent two temporal powers that have stood back of Protestantism. These are England and Germany. Lamb-like signifies the tolerance of these nations. He spake as a dragon. Instead of the heavenly inspiration and Holy Spirit anointing, speaking forth the eternal truth, he spake by dragon power.

II. WHAT IS SAID OF THIS BEAST?

"And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed."

Ver. 12.

Like the first beast, popery, the religion of Protestantism was to become the universal religion. This is in reality a Protestant world just as much as it was once Catholic. The causing of the people to worship the first beast (popery) is fulfilled by the Protestant's adopting in their creeds many doctrines and rites of the papacy. A few among the many are: Sprinkling for baptism; infant damnation unless baptized; all outside the pales of the church (?) are lost; giving titles to their preachers such as D. D., LL. D. and Reverend. By Protestants accepting many doctrines and rights of popery and observing them, they virtually worship the first beast.

III. WHAT DID THIS BEAST ACCOMPLISH?

"And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, and deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live." Ver. 13, 14.

Fire from heaven must be Holy Spirit fire, for no other kind comes from that source or direction. But when, it may be asked, during the reign of Protestantism did Holy Spirit fire fall from heaven? We answer, In the spiritual reformations and holiness movements of the past. For example: Luther's Reformation was spiritual, and watch-fires were kindled over most all Europe. But when that people saw that God was with them they became deceived and organized a society, which was only an image to the old papal beast. As soon as they did this they lost their power and spirituality. Just so with the Wesleyan Reform. Europe and America shook under the labors of those two young men. Showers of Holy Spirit fire fell in their meetings. But soon their followers became deceived and made an image—organized a sect—and the result was an immediate decline in spirituality. Thus it has been clear down through the Protestant ages. As soon as they thus organized they became persecuting powers, and some have went so far as to put to death those who would not worship their image.

IV. AFTER THEY MAKE THEIR IMAGE, WHAT IS THE NEXT STEP TAKEN?

“And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.”

Ver. 16, 17.

As soon as they make an image they mark their subjects; educate and catechize them in their peculiar faiths. And no man can buy and sell only those who have the mark and name of the beast. Buying and selling signify their preaching. God's ministers freely receive and freely give. But in Babylon they buy what they preach. They must take the different courses through college and the theological seminary, and be well marked with the peculiar doctrine, before they can enter the ministry. These are simply preacher factories. Those who pass through the Methodist factory and receive their peculiar mark never come out preaching Baptist, or Lutheran doctrine. So with all the sects. A course through these factories costs too much for them to give away freely what they had to buy. So they sell it and make merchandise of the gospel. If a man stands outside of all these human frauds, not having their mark, name, or the number of the names (viz., do not belong to any of their schisms), they will not allow him to preach in their houses.

V. WHAT IS SAID OF THE NUMBER OF THIS BEAST?

“Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred threescore and six.” Ver. 18.

This number signifies a great multiplicity of sects and sect names which would make up Protestantism.

VI. WHERE IS THE CHURCH OF GOD
AFTER BEING GATHERED OUT OF THIS CORRUPTION?

over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.”

Rev. 15: 2, 3.

This sea of glass mingled with fire is the pure word and holiness of God. This host seen thereon is the multitude of saints now gathered out of sectism into the unity and purity of primitive days. Glory to God in the highest! We stand redeemed from all sin and apostasy.
