Preface

The Evening Light Songs hymnal has long been a blessing to the church and to all who have used it since it was first published in 1949. The hymnal's General Classification Index, Subject Index, and Index to Titles and First Lines are of great value in its use. The intent of this work is to further enhance its use by assisting the user in finding a specific song when only a key word or phrase in that song is remembered and as an additional means for finding a song that best meets a specific theme.

As one can imagine, many hours have gone into the preparation of this work. Despite careful and repeated proofreading, checking, and cross-checking, any work of this magnitude may contain errors and omissions. For those we apologize.

Acknowledgements

The compilation of this work was the cumulative effort of a number of individuals. Janet McMurrin, Grace McMillan, Rene Smith, and Patsy Smith helped type the songs in preparation for the indexing. Mark Spinks wrote a software program that did most of the sorting and formatting of the indexes.

Arrangement and Explanation of the Concordance

Page Number Index

The songs are listed in numerical order by song number, followed by the name of the song.

Title Index

The titles of songs are listed in alphabetical order followed by the song number. You will note that in the alphabetical sequence, the words The, a, and and are ignored when they are the first word of the song title.

Title Keyword Index

To identify a specific song title, choose any word that appears in the title of that song. The format of this index is the same as the Main Index. See explanation below.

Song Writer Index

The writers of the songs are listed in alphabetical order followed by the songs they wrote.

Composer Index

The composers are listed in alphabetical order followed by the songs they composed.

Main Index

To identify a specific song, choose any word that appears in a phrase of that song. Following each bold-faced word heading is a complete listing of all of the phrases or groups of words which contain that word. The key word in each line is represented by the first letter of that word printed in italics. The number at the end of each line is the page number of the song that contains that line.

Unimportant Words

As in any concordance of this type, certain unimportant words appearing very frequently are omitted from the alphabetical index for obvious reasons. Following is the list of fifty-nine words omitted from this concordance:

doctor jesus j the same today as long ago, 491 for he's j the same today, 307
he hath place me j where he would have me, 147 he is j the same forever, 303
he is j the same today, 306
he is j the same today, 307
here is the pool j step right in it, 491
i have kept them in the pathway of the j, 124
i know his power is j the same, 305 if i but do what's right and j, 287 i'm j awaiting for the trumpet sound, 497 in the pathway of the j, 186
j as far as you can see, 164
j as i am and waiting not, 358
j as i am poor wretched blind, 358
j as i am thou wilt receive, 358
j as i am thy love i own, 358
j as i am without one plea, 358
j as it is today, 334
j as the lord in the world's early ages, 298
j as the stream finds a bed that is lowly, 298
j asleep her soul immortal, 374
j before his trial jesus entered dark gethsemane, 483
j behind the cloud, 164
j believe and you'll be free, 306
j beyond its dark shadow is rest, 155
j beyond where the shadows are falling, 372
j fashion me to thine own pleasure, 237
j glory in the holy strife, 258
j receive his healing favor, 307
j stop and think before you yield, 251
j the holy life my lord now giveth me, 187
j to know that he knows that my lord understands, 180
j to know that i can say, 472 knows j what is needful and best, 477 lo now j at midnight the watchman they hear, 359
o j stop and think what remorse and woe, 471 obey his word j as you hear it, 491 oh worship god the father j and true, 54 perish j in sight of home, 400 stop j a moment now and count up the cost, 466A take up your bed and j keep walking, 491
the gate that's strait is j before, 234 then do as he bids you his counsel is j, 116 they are walking in the pathway of the j, 124 they're j as contented as those who have oil, 359 tis so sweet j to feel as before him low i kneel, 159 tis so sweet j to know as i with my savior go, 159 tis so sweet j to know he is nigh, 159 tis so sweet j to know that my father loves me so, 159 tis so sweet j to trust him and rest, 159 we are sure the sun is shining j behind the cloud, 164 you may know j now that you're justified, 443

deprived of peace and I, 127
for my bondage he gives I, 132

LIBERTY'S

I law to fulfill, 249

LIE

all shall I beneath the sod till the trump of god, 453 and all who in darkness still I, 354 and make you I in pastures green, 268 and though dangers thickly round my pathway I, 148 crowns of victory I before us, 257 feelings I buried that grace can restore, 325 god of truth who cannot I, 39
he makes me down to I, 63 help me at thy feet to passive I, 276

I bound in sin's domain, 233 let him no more I down in sin, 378 then we know he can never I, 56 then we make his word a I, 281
when through fiery trials thy pathway shall I, 37 wrecked on its billows the helpless now I, 324

LIFE

a crown of I shall be, 271

I scattered thy children o zion have been, 3
I with a scornful wonder, 4
I years have we dwelt in confusion and strife, 8 lord jesus i I to be perfectly whole, 296 misty fogs so I concealing, 1
oh eternity I eternity, 409 oh I dreary papal night, 20 one I calm unbroken summer, 456 praising my savior all the day I, 194 satan has I on thee imposed, 431
so I as we walk in the light, 116
